

BOTTLING WORKS STARTED

They Are Turning Out About Thirty Cases of Beer a Day at Present.

A Plant Built by Home Enterprise and Capital Which Keeps Money Here.

The Montana Brewing company has completed its new bottling works, equipped it with the best modern machinery, and has now got everything in working order and ready to supply its customers with the amber fluid.

The bottling works building is a long, one-story building, erected just west of the massive stone brewery, and underneath its entire length is a commodious storage cellar. At one end of the building is the bottle-washing machinery, consisting of a large water tank and a machine which operates a rubber brush which is inserted through the neck of the bottle.

The Montana Brewing company have been disposing of about 300 barrels of their product per month. Before they started up all their beer was shipped in here and to pay for it a sum amounting to considerably more than $100,000 per year was sent out of town.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Given By the Misses Kingsbury Last Night.

The home of the Misses Kingsbury, at 527 Fifth avenue north, was a bower of beauty where mirth and joy reigned last night, the occasion being a party given by the Misses Kingsbury.

Each guest represented the title of some book and the unique selections puzzled many, the prizes for the guessing being finally awarded to Miss Sprague, who received a hand-painted perfume bottle, and to S. E. Atkinson, he being the recipient of an ivory paper cutter.

Miss Eva Conner represented "Pearly Cross," and wore a small cross studded with pearls; Miss Armstrong wore a card bearing a house painted in gold, "The Golden House"; Miss Newman wore ostrich feathers in her hair, and represented "Three Feathers"; Miss Sadie Conner had two gold stars partly concealed in her hair, "The Heavenly Twins"; Miss Taylor wore her hair in a braid and exemplified a "Tale of Two Cities" by the word "Anacoda" suspended from the braid while above was seen "Helena"; Miss Sprague wore a map of Louisiana, representing Mrs. Burnett's story of that name; S. C. Armstrong "Tax Books," with two tacks; Charles Jenks had a card inscribed with miniature figure sixes, "Little Sixes"; B. P. McNair carried a card upon which were sketched a number of women seated around a tea-table making "Revelations"; A. W. Kingsbury wore the portrait of a small "Kittie Alone"; Geo. Stanton wore a portrait of the rooster usually symbolic of the losing side, which he termed "Life of Grover Cleveland"; Robert S. Blankenbaker wore a badge of "Blue Ribbon"; Frank Brown symbolized "The Light That Falls" by a match; Harry Rice carried a small bottle of Old Bourbon, symbolizing a "Kentucky Colonel"; W. N. Fletcher wore a card upon which were painted against a dark background a number of ships, "Ships That Pass in the Night"; M. Skinner wore the badge denoted by the supporters of Helena since election and called it "The Tale of Two Cities"; W. T. Kidgley carried a printer's galley, in which was bound the figure of a man, "The Galley Slave"; Miss Trigg wore the title of two very familiar stories, "Twice Told Tales"; Mrs. Houston wore a ribbon inscribed "Matthew, Mark, Luke, John," the "Gospel Hymns"; Miss Bessie Kingsbury's hair was adorned with a wreath, making her "Under the Lilacs"; Miss Lyster represented with a badge "A Bow of Orange Ribbon"; Miss Longway wore a calendar, exhibiting the months of June, July and August, "One Summer"; S. E. Atkinson exhibited the votes cast for Helena and Anacoda respectively, "The Tale of Two Cities"; Miss Kingsbury wore a card with two nickels, one followed by "S," the other by "B," representing "Nicholas Nickleby"; W. P. Wren carried one hand gloved in a sling, "The Hidden Hand"; Miss Bessie Murray wore the letter "S" of the Dutch alphabet, "The Dutchess"; Miss Ophelia Kingsbury was attired in white and carried a small mirror, representing "Vanity Fair"; Miss Collins wore a small tire of a wheel, covered with silk, "In Silk Attire"; A. C. Coleman wore a card inscribed March 16, "Middlemarch"; Miss Conner represented "The Pathfinder," a small shovel; Miss Lucy Coleman wore a small gold seal, "Lucille"; Miss Fannie Cockrill wore a rose in her hair, which was dressed very high, representing "On the Heights"; R. F. Lind wore a ring on each side, representing "On Both Sides"; Mrs. A. W. Kingsbury represented "Brownies Around the World" by a small globe surrounded by brownies; Miss Cockrill carried the invitation to the party, "As It Was Written"; Miss Perkins' photograph hung behind her represented "Looking Backward"; James Rice wore numerous small sleigh bells, "Sweet Bells Out of Tune"; Miss Downing wore "A Woman's Reason," the word "Because"; Miss Murray wore an exceedingly slender letter "A," "Innocents Abroad."

THE LEGISLATURE.

It Will Be Republican on Joint Ballot by a Large Majority.

Chairman Mantle of the republican state central committee has sufficient returns to announce the result in the election of members of the legislature. According to his figures the legislature, including the hold-over senators, will be as follows:

Table with 3 columns: County, Rep., Dem., Pop. Rows include Beaverhead, Cascade, Choteau, Custer, Dawson and Custer, Deer Lodge, Deer Lodge and Missoula, Fergus, Flathead, Gallatin, Granite, Jefferson, Lewis & Clarke, Madison, Meagher, Missoula, Park, Ravalli, Silver Bow, Teton, Valley, Valley and Fergus, Yellowstone, Total.

This will give the republicans a majority of 28 on joint ballot, and while there may be one or two changes in the list it will not exceed that.

According to the returns thus far received, and they are practically complete, the vote for congressman is: Hartman (rep.) 15,536; Corbett (dem.) 6,660; Smith (pop.) 10,631; Hartman's plurality 4,625. The vote for associate justices is only complete in eleven counties, including Silver Bow and Lewis and Clarke, and in those counties Hunt's (rep.) plurality is 2,339, which insures his election.

The Baptist Church.

The Baptist church is undergoing considerable repairs. The interior is being decorated and repaired and the electric light system is being re-arranged. When all the work is completed the church will have a very pretty and attractive appearance. The ladies are actively engaged on plans to raise funds for seating the edifice with new and permanent pews; and also for providing a new furnace for its heating. On account of these repairs the Sunday school will not be held tomorrow. A minister from Illinois is expected to occupy the pulpit on Sunday, Nov. 18.

Hound Creek Precinct.

The chief interest in the Cascade county election returns is excited by the contest between James Donovan, populist, and J. A. Harris, republican, for representative in the legislature. The former has 38 plurality, with Riceville, Geyser, Ming Coulee and Hound Creek not reliably reported. The county central committees have no returns from either precinct and each candidate has only the vote for himself and opponents. Mr. Harris has returns that Hound Creek gives him 11, Donovan 1. This reduces Donovan's plurality to 28, with three precincts, which cast an aggregate vote of 77 in the capital contest, to hear from.

A Pleasant Surprise.

On Thursday evening a surprise party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Merrill, on Eighth avenue north, in honor of Mr. Merrill's birthday. The evening was spent in card-playing and with various games. Lunch was served during the evening. The guests departed, pronouncing the surprise a complete success. Among those present were Mesdames Jennings, Botkin, Clifford, Misses Post, Connelly, Mansfield, Geary, Clifford, Dibb, McCourt, McCloskey, Rose Miller, Mayme Miller, Kathryn Miller, Georgia McNeil, Gabrielle McNeil, Agnes Gallagher, Lizzie Gallagher; Messrs. Jennings, McCloskey, Mahoney, Joyce, Renan, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Moran, Mansfield, Burns, Green, Humphrey.

E. G. Jaffrey of St. Paul, representing the Twin City stock yards, has been in the city a day or two in the interests of his company. Mr. Jaffrey expresses himself as greatly surprised and pleased at the growth of Great Falls.

Mr. Phelps, who is putting up a fine brick and stone business block on the corner of Central avenue and Third street, states that he expects to have the building completed by February 1, when it will be occupied by Strain Bros.

F. A. Sears, representing the Burlington, who has been here during the cattle season and secured a very satisfactory share of business for his road, leaves today for his home in St. Paul.

A PAIR OF YOUTHFUL ELOPERS

Artie Gerin and Miss Jennie Kelton Were Married Thursday Night at Choteau.

They Skipped Out with a Livery Rig and Left a Note Explaining Their Errand.

Thursday afternoon a young couple well known in Great Falls created a sensation among their immediate friends by eloping and getting married at Choteau the same evening. As they were both under age and unable to get the consent of their parents, they considered that the best way to accomplish their object was to run away and get married where they were not known. With this end in view they made their arrangements quietly, and securing a rig and driver Thursday afternoon drove out to Choteau. The couple were Artie Gerin, a son of City Detective John Gerin, and Miss Jennie Kelton, a young lady who has been engaged with her brother on the stage at Robert Johnson's beer hall. She is about 17 years of age and a girl of very attractive appearance. Artie Gerin has been playing in a city band and is a bright boy of about 20. The young couple reached Choteau Thursday evening and succeeded in getting a license and having the matrimonial knot tied before a telegram forbidding the wedding reached there. According to the account of the driver, who returned to this city yesterday morning and who witnessed the wedding, it was just completed when a telegram reached the authorities asking them to intercept the runaways and prevent the marriage.

The first intimation which the parents had of the intention of the young folks was a letter received by Mrs. Kelton from her daughter stating that she had left town for this purpose and that by the time the note reached her she would be married to Artie Gerin. The young couple are expected back here again in a few days.

P. S.—Last night about midnight Mr. Gerin and his bride returned to Great Falls by the narrow gauge line and received the congratulations of their friends. The Choteau band gave them a serenade before leaving for Great Falls. Their parents have forgiven them and it is hoped that hereafter the course of true love will run smoothly with them.

TWO AFTERNOONS

Mrs. D. B. Hatcher Entertains in Honor of Miss Pierce.

Thursday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5:30 o'clock Mrs. D. B. Hatcher invited a number of ladies to meet Miss Pierce, her guest. Fancy work and other sewing kept the deft fingers plying busily for awhile and over dainty refreshments the ladies discussed many pleasant subjects. The rooms were beautifully decorated, smilax in profusion forming an appropriate framework for the handsome carnations which scented the atmosphere with their fragrance. The guests on Thursday afternoon were Mesdames W. G. Downing, Veazey, Reckards, W. F. Brown, Rice, Ford, Goodrich, Stanford, Leslie, Huy, and Gordon; Friday afternoon Mesdames Scott, Long, Wertheim, Cooley, Dunn, Matteson, Raban, Bruce, and Bateman and Misses Booth and Brown were present.

A FANCY-WORK PARTY.

At the Kingsbury Home—Many Ladies Present.

One of the most enjoyable afternoons of the week just passed was that given at the Kingsbury home, 527 Fifth avenue north, Saturday, when Mrs. M. E. Kingsbury, assisted by the Misses Kingsbury, received many ladies in honor of Mrs. A. W. Kingsbury. The rooms were handsomely decorated, and during the afternoon an interesting musical program entertained the guests, the ladies meanwhile busying themselves with fancy work, until dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were Mesdames Newman, Goodrich, Burris, Ellis, Conner, Hatcher, Morrow, Burlingame, Gordon, Huntoon, Skinner, Sweet, Dickerman, Conrad, Adams, Scott, Cooley, Leslie, Veazey, McClelland, Huy, Kennedy, Leaming, Armstrong, Rogers, Ford, Long, Wasson, Bateman, Collins, Kullmer, Weirick, G. W. Taylor, H. O. Chown, Reckards, Pett, Longway, Kelly, Phelps, Rice, Benjamin, Matteson, C. M. Webster, Gregg, A. W. Kingsbury, Bruce, J. D. Reid, Nelson, Baker, Cockrill, Sykes; Miss Booth.

The German Society.

The Great Falls German society will meet Tuesday evening next at the court house to discuss questions of interest and importance. The club is organized for the political and social benefits of its members, and the incidents of the late campaign will be discussed and the lessons which it has taught considered from various points of view. A committee appointed at a previous meeting to see what could be done in the way of securing permanent quarters for the club will report, and it is understood that they will recommend renting the vacant storeroom in the Montana house building on Central avenue and fitting it up for their purpose. There are now 156 names on the membership roll of the club and its affairs are in a flourishing condition.

A Sneak Thief.

Last Saturday W. Kellison purchased merchandise from the Manhattan to the value of $5.65 and tendered a $20 bill in payment, laying it on the show-case. He turned aside for a few moments and when he returned the bill was missing and the form of a man dressed in a cowboy costume was seen hurrying from the store. The cowboy had also made purchases, picked up Kellison's bill and given it to the clerk, receiving his change. The police were at once notified and are hot on the flim-flammer's trail.

Six Years Ago.

Although perhaps few residents of the city recalled the events, nevertheless Saturday was the anniversary of two important events in the city's brief history. Nov. 10, 1888, the first through train on the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway (now the Great Northern) left for Great Falls, and forty-five hours later was in this city. The train was met near Craig by the train from Helena, which arrived here about 4 p. m. Phil Gibson was the first passenger for the east from this city.

Not less important was the first city election, of which yesterday was also the sixth anniversary. For mayor there were 541 votes cast, and Paris Gibson received every one. For the other positions there were fierce contests, but the ballots chose J. W. Stanton city attorney, Harry Ringwald treasurer; G. H. Huy police magistrate, J. H. Fairfield, R. R. Hotchkiss, Charles Wegner, D. R. Mitchell, J. C. Johnson, J. Mathews, W. P. Beachley, and C. N. Dickinson aldermen.

SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

FROM SUNDAY'S DAILY.

Ira Myers has secured judgement for $136.53 against A. D. Myers.

The county treasurer's office was removed to the new quarters yesterday.

W. E. Wild leaves today for Salt Lake City, where he will reside in the future.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to William Gunn and Lottie Langham, both of Monarch.

Judge Dudley duBois was in the city yesterday, en route to Choteau, where he holds court, beginning Monday.

H. H. Nelson, a well-known cattleman and rancher of Cascade, came in yesterday and will be in the city for a few days.

Parties in the city bring news of the death of Petross Zeeb, a rancher about sixteen miles north of the city. Age, 55.

The Great Falls Water Power and Townsite company deeds to Harry S. Jackson lot 3, block 572, Fifth addition; $500.

Minnie Fishopp deeds to C. E. French and Peter Weidenbaker the undivided one-half of lot 13, block 138, First addition; $350.

Jacob Lof et al. have filed a certificate of the Finnish Social club of Sand Coulee. The capital stock consists of 10,000 shares, of a par value $10,000.

The Street Railway company and the Electric Light company paid their employees for October yesterday. The Sand Coulee Coal company will pay tomorrow.

John B. Traxler has been elected justice of the peace and Henry Minter and John Ranton constables of Sun River township.

Walter Cooper, brother of Ransom Cooper of this city, has been elected to the legislature from Gallatin county. He is a democrat.

The stone work on the new school house is now going up. Contractor McKay has a large force of men at work and will push the construction as rapidly as possible.

Mrs. Phillip Gibson, assisted by Mrs. Theodore Gibson, gave an elegant afternoon tea yesterday from 2 to 5 o'clock. Many ladies were invited to meet Mrs. Paris Gibson and an enjoyable afternoon was spent.

J. W. Searles, stock agent of the Great Northern road, left yesterday afternoon for Glasgow to meet his wife, who is returning from a vacation of several months in St. Paul and other Minnesota points.

J. E. Fox, president of the Trades and Labor council of this city, left yesterday afternoon for his old home at Harlem, Mont., for a week's vacation and rest, after his hard work in the cause of Anaconda for the capital, as secretary of the Great Falls committee.

Col. W. C. Plummer and daughter left yesterday afternoon for Minn. N. Dak., to settle up their affairs. They expect to return to this city Tuesday next and will take up their residence in Montana thereafter, either in Great Falls or Anaconda.

E. B. Largent, deputy collector of internal revenue for this district, states that he has a good deal of trouble in enforcing the new law which requires all packages of playing cards to bear an internal revenue stamp before they are sold. A number of retail dealers in this county have been selling cards purchased before the passage of the law without stamps, being in ignorance of the fact that the law forbids it.

P. J. Shields, superintendent of the Castner Coal and Coke company, states that work is progressing rapidly on the construction of the coke ovens and coal washing plant at Belt, and that he expects to have the coke oven operation by the first of January. He says the company will still do business at the old stand, notwithstanding the location of the capital at Chinatown and will not fail to remember their friends.

One of the most complete undertakings establishments in Montana is that conducted by McBratney in the old Tribune building on First avenue north. A very complete line of coffins and caskets is kept in stock at all times. The process of embalming used is as perfect as has yet been attained in the business. In fact the aim is to do all work honestly and at an expense that is reasonable. Remember the place—old TRIBUNE building, First avenue north.

The returns from Geyser, Ming coulee, Riceville and Hound creek, were sealed up and transmitted to the county clerk without any copy being made of them, and the result is that they cannot be obtained until the official count is made, which will be next Monday. The board of county commissioners will canvass the returns at that time. It will take the official count to settle the race between Harris, republican, and Donovan, populist, for the legislature, and the successful candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, which lies between Swan, republican, and Graham, populist.

A NEW COURT HOUSE BUILDING

Cascade County Officials Will Occupy Their Elegant New Quarters Sometime Next Week.

Description of the Building—The County Treasurer Has Already Moved In.

Cascade county is to have new and more commodious quarters for its county offices next week. The new court house building on the corner of First avenue north and Third street, is now practically finished. The painters and plumbers will have their work done within a day or two and the county officers expect to move in about the last of the week or the first of next. County Treasurer McClellan was busy moving in his books and furniture yesterday and expects to be ready for business at the new office tomorrow. He concluded to move in at the very earliest opportunity, so as to occasion no delay when the busy season comes on, and already a good many taxpayers are dropping in to settle for their taxes.

The new building is built of pressed brick and stone and, excepting a store room on the corner of First avenue north and the basement, the whole of the two story building is occupied by the county. The lower floor contains the office of the county treasurer, sheriff, clerk and recorder, clerk of the court, county commissioners and county auditor. The upper floor contains the offices of the judge of the district court, the county assessor, the county superintendent of schools, jury rooms and a large court room, 62x40. The interior of the building is finished in tamarack and the staircase is of oak. The front basement is finished up for billiard room and saloon.

The building is owned by D. F. Wilson and was erected by Roberts & Donlin, contractors. It cost about $30,000. The contractors have pushed the work with such vigor that they will have the building ready to turn over some days before the time specified in the contract.

The Como company, which has the contract for the painting and interior decoration, are executing their portion of the work in a most artistic manner, and the building will present an elegant appearance inside, while the fact that Jack Collins has the contract for plumbing is a guarantee of first-class work in this department.

Some English Comment.

The return of Coxe to congress is a pleasing sign of the times. There is every reason to believe that he will exercise a healthy influence at Washington. While McKinley has triumphed and Wilson been defeated the decision of West Virginia must be a source of regret to many Englishmen. Wilson is a man of high character and broad views and his non success is a distinct loss to congress.—Westminster Gazette.
