

JAPAN IS WILLING

That the United States Shall Present the Petition of the Chinese

ASKING FOR SUSPENSION

Of the War—Minister Denby Instructed to Present the Offer Direct.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—In accordance with the suggestion of Japan, the state department has notified Ministers Dunn at Tokio and Denby at Peking to transmit direct any offer that China may wish to make Japan. The Chinese delegation here is not notified as to what course its government will take. The Associated Press cable from Japan states, however, that China has intimated a willingness to pay an indemnity of 100,000,000 taels, and in addition all the war expenses incurred by Japan. As the war expenses reach 150,000,000 taels, the total offer of China would be 250,000,000 taels. A tael, a Chinese silver coin, is worth about 55 cents at the present exchange. It is believed here arrangements between the two nations could be effected on terms providing for a small indemnity. Diplomats say that under ordinary circumstances it would take some time for China to formally present its offer to Minister Denby, but, as the Japanese are now on their way to Port Arthur and about to make a last blow at China's greatest fortress, it is anticipated that China may hurry negotiations to a conclusion. It is expected that Minister Denby will transmit an offer by telegraph to Tien Tsin and Shanghai, and thence by cable to Yokohama.

Fighting Not Stopped.
YOKOHAMA, Nov. 22.—The Chinese Pie Yang squadron is reported to have shelled the Japanese troops marching on Port Arthur. A desperate battle between the Chinese and Japanese fleets followed. The result is not known.

INSURANCE THIEVES.
His Friends Say Young Howe Was Also a Victim of Holmes.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—Jephth D. Howe, the young St. Louis lawyer who, in connection with H. H. Holmes, is charged with defrauding a local insurance company out of $10,000, reached this city today. He was met by Marshall F. McDonald of St. Louis, a law partner of young Howe's brother, and surrendered himself. Lawyer McDonald said: "This arch conspirator, H. H. Holmes, or H. M. Morgan, the name by which he was known in St. Louis, came to the office while I was absent in Colorado and proposed the case, saying Mrs. Pitzel wanted some one to represent her. It was the first case the boy had ever been offered, and he jumped right into it with all the ardor and enthusiasm of youth. He did not wait for us to return, and the result was this slick crook imposed upon him. My young friend may have been indiscreet, but he is no criminal."

FIGHTING TALK.
The Mexico Universal Pays Its Respects to the Guatemala Press.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 22.—The Universal Newspaper today contains a very warlike article regarding the Mexican-Guatemalan trouble. It says: "In consequence of continued attacks against Mexico and her government, made by the Guatemalan press, it was rumored yesterday that this country would declare diplomatic relations with Guatemala at an end. In Guatemala they say the Mexicans always fled before the Americans and French. The world knows the Mexican soldier does not turn his back. Cherubusco, Chapultepec, Puebla, etc., are witnesses of that. With Guatemala we do not expect glory or gaining of laurels. We have offered them friendship and they return black ingratitude, and our men and our people are not in a humor to listen to the distiches of the Guatemalan press."

CONVICTED.
The Four Managers of the A. R. U. Strike in Los Angeles Convicted.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.—W. H. Clune, B. T. Johnson, Isaac Ross, and Philip Stanwood, of the A. R. U. board, who officiated in this city during the strike, were found guilty by the jury in the United States district court this morning. Sentence will be passed Monday. Their offense was conspiracy to obstruct the United States mail in transit and obstruct interstate commerce.

Bad Frenchmen.
PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Figaro says: "An attempt has been made to steal the patterns of the new Depot gun which was shipped in padlocked cases to Calais and Bourges by the minister of war. No one except the president and artillery testing committee knew of the shipment."

Must Have Been Crazy.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 22.—Alma Howard, the 13-year-old daughter of Conductor Charles Howard of this city, who disappeared at noon Tuesday, was found last night. She had wandered about the streets, not knowing where she was going, and was unable to find her home. The child seems to have been affected with temporary insanity.

THE HERSHFIELD SCANDAL.
Mr. Aaron Hershfield and Mrs. L. H. Hershfield Have an Interesting Talk About Each Other.

FARGO, Nov. 22.—The Hershfield divorce case is still attracting great attention. The array of lawyers is able, and the testimony is liable to be sensational. The two points of the Hershfield side are that the man was of unsound mind when he married and was roped into the marriage, and also that the defendant wife was unchaste at the time of the marriage. Quite a number of depositions have been read in support of the insanity claim, and several, all thus far from hotel attendants, in support of the claim of unchastity, though the latter are very weak.

A feature of the case is that the legal battle is being supplemented by a newspaper, in which both sides seem to have pretty good supporters. Yesterday's Associated Press despatch sent from Fargo says: "Several days ago there appeared in the Chicago Tribune a Fargo despatch claiming to give the history of the Hershfield case, and an interview with Mrs. Aaron Hershfield. She said that coming from Helena to Fargo Mrs. L. H. Hershfield and her friends persisted in walking past her and jeering at her and the sufferings of her baby, which was sick. These statements were answered in the Daily Forum last evening. Mrs. L. H. Hershfield was eulogized as a lady of refined tastes and good breeding, and it was declared preposterous that she could be ungenerous to anyone.

The Commonwealth interviewed Mrs. Aaron Hershfield today. She said: "I do not see how any one could be so manifestly unfair in their statements. I blame all this present trouble between us—myself and husband—upon Mrs. L. H. Hershfield. If the people only knew her—but they probably do, at least they do in Helena. All this talk about her being such a fine lady with such antecedents! Why, I could tell a good many things about her antecedents. I could tell all about how L. H. Hershfield got acquainted with her while she was the wife of a Mr. Aaron when she kept a cigar store in the little town of Virginia City, and also about the $500 Mr. Aaron received for divorcing her.

"Why," she exclaimed with spirit, "she is no more fit to be a banker's wife than the lowest servant. The statement is all true about Mrs. L. H. trying to make a scene on the cars.

"Whenever she passed she would make a face or laugh and try to create a disturbance, but I would not be guilty of noticing or paying any attention to her. She was not in her stateroom one-third of the time during the day, but was playing cards or boldly making sport of me and my troubles."

Commenting editorially on the case the Daily Commonwealth says: "The Daily Forum has gone far out of its way to do a lady harm who ranks far above her tormentors in every particular, and its 'house of Hershfield' smells a little too much of the yoke to gratify the freedom-loving people of the northwest. If half the many things said about this 'house of Hershfield' are true their case would parallel the celebrated Breckinridge case with Pollard left off."

Mrs. Aaron Hershfield says the Associated Press statement that the Montana papers were subsidized by her enemies is wrong, and that they have all treated her with great fairness.

HOW IT WAS DONE.
An Officer Tells About the Firing of Troops Into the Mob at Washington Court House.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—Lieut. Oylor, who ordered the troops at Washington Court House to fire, in accordance with the order of Col. Coit in a given contingency, testified today in a court of inquiry to the battering of the doors by the mob with stones and other things. He said: "A shot fired by a person outside was followed by the cry, 'Altogether!' and a blow opened the south door four feet, when I gave the command to fire. After one volley I gave the command to cease firing. The door was open but a few inches. None of the men were intoxicated."

The witness was confident that the mob was determined on getting in. The line of soldiers outside would have been easily overcome. Such a defense would have been idiotic. He saw at least fifty revolvers in the crowd in the afternoon.

THEY INVADE MUSKOGEE

And Declare They Will Release One of Their Band Who Is Now in Jail.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 22.—Last night a half dozen members of the Cook gang were on the streets here. Citizens began hunting for them but the outlaws made themselves scarce. The officers who fought with them last night came in about dusk and reported that they had chased the bandits to the bottom and there lost their course. Cherokee Bill was six miles north of Muskogee. He had two Winchester and two six shooters. Lou Cook, the queen of the outlaws and a sister of Bill and Jim Cook, is in Muskogee. It is believed she is planning a release for Wade Chambliss, a robber now in jail. Extra jail guards have been placed on duty. United States Attorney Jackson has wired Attorney General Olney that all the officers have returned from the chase and in his opinion the only thing to do is to send the troops.

AN ARRAY OF CHARGES
To Which Police Judge Pat Diver of New York Will Answer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Patrick Diver, police justice, may be compelled to show cause why he should not be deprived of his judicial function. A petition has been lodged with J. F. Daly, chief judge of the court of common pleas, alleging that Diver is habitually careless, negligent, and inefficient in the discharge of his duties, is guilty of malfeasance, has scandalously offered bribes to secure the falsification of election returns, has been in collusion with green goods swindlers, and has engaged in public brawls. The petition is signed by five taxpayers, of whom one is Isaac K. Funk, the publisher, and another C. E. Prague, president of the Dime Savings bank.

COULD CORNER CAMPHOR.
Some Speculations of the Possibilities of Japan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A special to the New York World says: Japan will control the world's supply of camphor should it get the island of Formosa as part of its indemnity from China, according to Anthony T. Pritchard, who lived many years in Asia.

"Camphor sold for less than 10 cents a pound twenty years ago," he says, "but it has advanced to over $1 a pound."

"It is generally believed by Japanese merchants and travelers that if Japan had not been drawn into the war with China at this time it would have seized the Hawaiian Islands, on the ground that there are more Japanese there than people of any other nationality. These men look upon the move to secure Formosa as in line with Japan's policy to strengthen herself as the 'England of the Pacific' and as preliminary to securing the Philippine Islands, and the Hawaiian Islands also should the United States fail to annex them."

STANDARD OIL.
Owners of the Company Indicted by a Texas Grand Jury.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Regarding the indictment of Flager, Rockefeller and others by the grand jury of McLennan county, Texas, yesterday, S. C. T. Tod, attorney for the Standard Oil company, said: "The same thing has been done before and the indictments were dismissed as it undoubtedly will be in this case. The Standard Oil company does no business in Texas anyway, but sells to St. Louis parties, who supply the trade in the southwest."

Sessions' wound is serious.

TREATY OF AMITY

New Deal to Regulate Relations Between the United States and Japan

HAS BEEN FORMALLY SIGNED

The Affair Looked Upon as Having an Important Diplomatic Influence.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Secretary of State Gresham, in behalf of the United States and Minister Kurino of Japan, in behalf of his country, have affixed their signatures to the new treaty of amity and commerce between this country and Japan. The final formalities in execution of the instrument occurred at the state department after the close of office hours, and the fact that it now awaits only the ratification of the two governments was exclusively announced by the Associated Press yesterday. Secretary Gresham will now transmit the new treaty to the United States senate as soon as it convenes and Mr. Kurino will forward it to the Japanese foreign office to be approved by the emperor of Japan and the privy council. Coming at the present time, the signing of the treaty is considered of much significance beyond its actual terms, as it establishes cordiality between the countries, when foreign powers are endeavoring to show that the Japanese rejection of peace mediation was a snub to the United States. The signing of the treaty concludes the labor which has been in progress for fifteen years, and it was with a special view of closing the long negotiations that Kurino was taken from an important post in the Japanese foreign office and sent to Washington. The event also will cause much comment in Great Britain, France, Switzerland, and other foreign countries as the action of the United States affects similar treaties abroad. The treaty with Great Britain is closed and one with France and Switzerland are largely dependent upon the close of American negotiations.

WORSE AND WORSE.
China's Greatest Battleship Is Disabled by an Inexplicable Accident—Advances on Port Arthur.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The Chinese have lost the most powerful vessel in their navy, the great battleship Chen Yuen, which stood the brunt of the fighting at Yalu. A cable received at the state department today states that the Chen Yuen in leaving Wei Hai Wei harbor on the 13th inst. accidentally struck a torpedo. She was beached, but rendered useless for lack of docking facilities. In despair at the catastrophe the commander, Commodore Lin Si, committed suicide. It was as well that he did, for he would doubtless have been decapitated as the result of his error. It is believed here that this loss has deprived the Chinese navy of its offensive power. There remains Ting Yuen, a powerful battleship, and a few lesser ironclads, but without the aid of the Chen Yuen they would hardly dare to make an offensive campaign, and probably will remain in port to assist in the defense.

Going Very Cautious.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The advance on Port Arthur is regarded as having an important bearing on the peace negotiations. Lieut. Miyoka, a naval attaché of the Japanese legation here, says the advance movement has been most cautious, as the ground for forty miles around Port Arthur has been found to be fairly alive with powder mines connected with the electric wires to Port Arthur.

Japan Borrowing.
YOKOHAMA, Nov. 23.—The minister of finance has announced a further loan of 50,000,000 yen in notes, making 80,000,000 yen of 100,000,000 authorized by parliament to be raised for war purposes. A third army has left Unjinan aboard a transport. Its destination is not known, but it is rumored it is intended to operate in the Yang Tai Kiang districts of China.

England Not in It.
LONDON, Nov. 23.—Rumors from Washington that Great Britain is supporting or co-operating with the United States in an attempt to mediate between Japan and China, is declared in official circles here altogether incorrect. The United States government is understood to have acted with complete independence of the powers. England has noted the rebuff sustained by the United States with positive delight.

California Miners.

Crespo Will Resign.
CARACAS, Venezuela, Nov. 23.—It is reported that President Crespo, disgusted by his failure to pacify the country, will resign and go to Europe. Gen. Parades is said to have informed Crespo that the government must listen to all reasonable demands of the opposition or there can be no permanent peace. Gen. Monstacantine, chief of artillery, implicated in the recent conspiracy, has disappeared. Some say he has been shot, while others say he has joined the rebel leaders.

BOYCOTTING RAILROADS.
Old Time Californians Show Their Independence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Seropion Brothers, commission merchants of Fresno, and C. A. Campbell, who has hauled freight for twenty years on the western slopes of the Sierras, have hit upon a plan by which they hope to be independent of the Southern Pacific railroad and its enormous freight charges. Campbell left Fresno on Sunday with ten mule teams and two wagons, loaded with about ten tons of dried figs, bound for San Francisco, a distance of 212 miles. He expects to reach here by Nov. 26 and a return load is waiting for him.

Campbell is confident that he will make a fair profit out of his venture, while the Seropion Brothers say they will save 12 cents per 100 pounds on carload lots, and 28 cents per 100 pounds on less than a carload.

Shippers throughout the San Joaquin valley are watching the experiment with intense interest, and if it proves a success hundreds of wagons and men and thousands of mules and horses will be employed in the freighting business once more.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS.
New Yorkers Who Are Battling for an Alleged Estate of $350,000,000.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 23.—David Hyde, Mrs. John A. Merritt, Miss Flora E. Hyde, Mrs. E. W. Davis, and Edwin S. Hyde, all of this city, have received word from John Knowles, agent of the Hyde Association of America, who is in England, that the heirs are in a fair way to get the $350,000,000 estate which they claim. There are about 400 of the heirs in America.

The story of the claimants is this: William Hyde espoused the cause of Oliver Cromwell and when Charles II. ascended the throne he fled to America, leaving behind a big estate in the northern part of England. He located at Norwich, Conn. There were no heirs in England and the property was put in charge of the court of chancery.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 23.—Hubert L. Hurd, aged 17, and Miss Eva Tewksbury, aged 15, were married last evening by consent of both parents of the bridegroom and of the mother of the bride. The bridegroom is a bright young man, having a good position in a Main street store. The bride is a good-looking, happy-appearing little lady. It was a case of love at first sight.

They first planned to run away and get married secretly, but they were too closely watched, and after much beseeching the parents consented in order to avoid scandal.

It is stated that they are fitting themselves for the stage.

ERUPTIVE RANIER.
It Is a Volcano and Has Ruined the Ellensburg Water Works.

SEATTLE, Nov. 23.—Despite the incredulity of some persons who have no means of knowing, not having even the evidence of their eyes, there is no reason to doubt that some natural convulsion has occurred at the summit of Mount Ranier.

Water Works Ruined.
ELLENSBURG, Wash., Nov. 23.—The eruption of Mount Ranier has explained to the satisfaction of many a mystery here which baffled all. The water works reservoir here suddenly became exhausted. Investigation showed a crevice running along the hill north and south, from one inch to one foot in width and of unknown depth. It ran directly through the reservoir, letting the water out. It has been traced several hundred feet along the hill. No shocks of earthquake have been felt here so far as known.
