

REPUBLICAN TEXTS.

We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens; and we recommend to congress and the state legislatures, in their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the execution of all schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to market. We approve the legislation by congress to prevent alike unjust burdens and unfair discrimination between the states.—Republican national platform.

"We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection; we protest against its destruction, as proposed by the president and his party. They serve the interests of Europe; we will support the interests of America. We accept the issue, and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment. The protective system must be maintained. Its abandonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests except those of the usurer and the tyrant.—Thos. H. Carter's Great Falls speech.

If there is a better country, one that offers better wages, fuller hopes than this, we have not found it out. Now, if that is true, then why is it true, and how is it to be continued—this condition of our country? It is because, and only because we have for years, by our protective tariff, discriminated in favor of American manufacturers and American workmen. Strike down this protective system, bring our workmen and workingwomen in equal competition in the products of their toil with those who labor abroad, and nothing is clearer than that these mills and factories must reduce wages here to the level with wages abroad, and they must shut down.—Benjamin Harrison.

We have been too long subject to the policy of the British merchants. It is time we should become a little more Americanized and, instead of feeding the paupers and laborers of Europe, feed our own, or else in a short time, by continuing our present policy, we shall be paupers ourselves. It is, therefore, my opinion that a careful tariff is much wanted to pay our national debt and afford us the means of that defense within ourselves on which the safety and liberty of our country depend—and last, though not least, give a proper distribution to our labor, which must prove beneficial to the happiness, independence and wealth of the community.—Andrew Jackson.
