THE SILVER BOW COUNT.

That the discovery and suppression of the deliberate fraud, whereby the democrats secured to themselves a majority of votes in Silver Bow county, should cause deep-mouthed and heavy mutterings of violence or other extraordinary action on their part, should not surprise any one conversant with their past methods and record.

The conclusion of the LEADER, as indexed in our issue of yesterday morning, that the decision of the canvassing board was reached only after the most mature deliberation on their part following an exhaustive discussion of the matters of law and fact involved in the controversy, is fully confirmed by a double-headed leader on the subject in the Inter Mountain of Monday evening. It says:

This action has been taken with great deliberation and after the democratic counsel have been given full opportunity to rebut the evidence of fraud and to establish the legality of the face of the returns. The Inter Mountain believes the majority of the board to be fully justified in their action as the face of the returns is undoubtedly true and as the evidence of the fraud is more than corroborated by the affidavits of one of the election judges and other men who certify under oath to the wrongful and unlawful acts of the election authorities of the Tunnel precinct.

It takes Sam Hauser's organ to cry fraud. It spasmoidic pretensions to yrtue almost equal Collins' Tooter. The democratic papers say nothing against the dastardly frauds committed by their leaders. They howl because those frauds are not all allowed.

We call special attention to the notice at the head of the first column on the second page. We understand that irre-sponsible parties have been giving receipts and running accounts in the name of the LEADER. No one besides Messrs. Dickerman and Rolfe have had authority to do this and the LEADER company will respectfully decline being held for such. Any one holding such receipts or accounts will confer a favor by communicating with the manager and giving the name of the party.

The special features of the Youth's Companion for the coming year include six serial stories and one hundred and fifty short stories, fully illustrated. Also ideas of advantage, scientific and historical articles, humorous hold articles, one thousand anecdotes, timely editorial on the leading questions of the day, and a whole page of special material for $1.50 a year.

Upon calling the board to order on Monday morning, before rendering the decision, Chairman Wm. M. Jack stated that he had been informed that threats against the lives of the commissioners had been uttered if they dared to throw out any of the returns. He was there, he said, to say that the board would do the right thing as they saw it, no matter which political party it might help or injure. They were there to do their duty, and they had the moral courage to do all of it.

Mr. Booth, however, arose and stated that he had not made any such statement. A large number of affidavits were filed showing that the count was illegally conducted; that during the count the door of the polling place was locked and the windows covered with thick paper so that no one but the three judges could gain access or see within the building; that after counting a part of the votes the poll-books and ballot-boxes were removed to another building, where the same secrecy was maintained and all persons refused admission; that voters were paid for voting the democratic ticket; that whisky was kept at the polling-place and given by the judges to voters; that voters were permitted to cast their votes there unlawfully, not being registered or having any state certificate; that persons resident in the territory less than two months were permitted to vote, and that other irregularities were practiced and countenanced by the judges.

With such a showing, at the hearing on the mandamus before Judge DeWolfe on the 7th of November, an order can be made commanding the board to count the votes cast in the Tunnel precinct, then the Australian or any other election law may be over-ridden with impunity. We confidently expect that Judge DeWolfe, though a democrat, will sustain the law and dismiss the writ.

ADVERTISING FIRMS. The following leading firms representing almost the entire range of American traffic, owe their success to advertising, for which each one of them expends from $25,000 to $100,000 in judicious newspaper advertising annually—and they do not bear down the papers in which they advertise to penurious rates, either:

- Armour & Co., Chicago. Chicago Corset Co., Chicago. R. W. Bell & Co., Buffalo, N. Y. C. B. & Q. Ry., Chicago. Jas. Egan & Co., London, Eng. N. K. Fairbank & Co., St. Louis. Peter Henderson & Co., New York. Price Baking Powder Co., Chicago. Jas. S. Kirk & Co., Chicago. Jas. Tyle & Son, New York. Wm. Henry Maule, Philadelphia. Storrs & Harrison, Palmerville, O. Union Pacific Railway, Omaha.

Besides these, not included in the foregoing, is the army of agricultural implement manufacturers, bankers, seedsmen, nurserymen, etc., which will aggregate a grand total of over $3,000,000 for clean advertising sent to the American press every year.

"What is your politics, sir?"—inquired a democrat of one of the voters here on election day. "Well, sir," replied the gentleman very calmly, "I have $3,000 in the Cascade bank here; I have a $500 span of coach horses, harness and new carriage; a new wagon and double harness, which together represent exactly the amount of money I received this year for my wool over what I received last year—and all the result of protection. Probably this will answer your question and at the same time furnish you some interesting facts for contemplation." The democratic ingratiate vanished in search of a more plastic subject.

We are reliably informed that on election day, in Helena, from $5 to $50 each was paid to purchasable republicans to leave the city for that day so that they should not vote. Such customers should go over to the boodle party, for there is where they belong, body and breeches.

This true rendering of the Dago booby tag used by Daly & Co., at Anaconda on election day is: "I can neither read nor write the English language, consequently I want to vote the straight democratic ticket."

It takes Sam Hauser's organ to cry fraud. It spasmoidic pretensions to yrtue almost equal Collins' Tooter. The democratic papers say nothing against the dastardly frauds committed by their leaders. They howl because those frauds are not all allowed.

Colonist Sleepers.

The Union Pacific Railway, well known as The Overland Route, has lately added to its service a number of new cars (which by the way are built by the World famous Pullman Company) entitled Colonist Sleepers, and which for convenience and comfort are but little behind the handsome Pullman Palace Car. The cars are designed for the use and comfort of the Colonist, who with his family intend moving west to grow up with the country.

The only difference between these cars and the regular first-class Pullman is that the Colonist sleeper is not upholstered. There are fourteen sections in each car, and separate toilet-rooms for ladies and gentlemen. At night, by means of sliding head boards and heavy damask curtains, as much privacy is secured as if in the regular first-class sleeper. Plenty of fresh, clean towels and a good supply of water are also to be found. A uniformed porter accompanies each car to look after the comfort and attend to the wants of the passengers, and no smoking is allowed. It certainly affords the most for cheap and commodious sleeping accommodations, while traveling, these cars cannot be excelled. 012.
