The Fashions

Bradley & Metcalf Company's shoes are always first to come out in the new styles—have been for 66 years.

And their very latest for women is the "CLIO." It's neat—sloppy, and gives the foot that small, dainty appearance.

But comfort is not sacrificed for style in the "CLIO"—it is combined with it.

The counters are accurately made, it is the exact size and shape of the foot, and it is made of the best material, and is very moderate in price.

The "CLIO" gives that feeling of satisfaction which comes from knowing that you have bought something correct in style, exceptionally good in material and workmanship and very moderate in price.
