

HOLDS MEETING IN NEW QUARTERS

TONOPAH-MANHATTAN COMMITTEE TRANSACTS CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS.

The Tonopah-Manhattan Promotion committee met last night in its new quarters in the State Bank and Trust building, and the meeting was as usual an enthusiastic one. The handsome quarters made a hit with the members, and Secretary Force was the recipient of numerous compliments for his taste as well as the location he had selected. The filing system used by the secretary was also commended by the committee.

Reports on several properties which had been investigated were received, but it was the consensus of opinion that these should not be made public at this time, or at any time, for the matter of that. In this regard a communication was received from the Manhattan committee which stated that the reports received by them were to be filed and to be made public only to those making inquiry about the property. The communication stated further, that since it had been made known that these reports were to be considered private property many more returns have been coming in, and there is considerable more satisfaction expressed. Action was postponed on several matters until next meeting.

PERSONAL MENTION

Ed. Knapp came in from Silver Peak yesterday.

E. E. Aldridge of Goldfield was a visitor in the city yesterday.

W. R. Hobson was in Goldfield yesterday, returning last night.

Miss Ethel Murphy of Goldfield, is the guest of Miss Frances O'Meara.

Frank Golden, president of the Nye and Ormsby County bank, will leave this morning for Reno.

Walter Lamb, one of the optimists of the camp, who has been in Reno for several days, is again in Tonopah.

George E. Holesworth, the architect and builder, left for Reno yesterday morning, to enjoy his turkey with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weir came over from Goldfield yesterday to be present at the Sutcliffe-St. Pierre wedding last night.

Miss Annie McGarry, who has been the guest of Mrs. George A. Bartlett, will leave this morning for San Francisco. She expects to return before the winter is at an end.

George Stanley, president of the Thanksgiving mining company, arrived here from Los Angeles yesterday, and has gone to Manhattan to view the new strike in the mine.

J. S. Chaffin, president of the Nevada Light and Power company, and Edward Boyd, both of Denver, were among the arrivals here yesterday. They will both go to Goldfield today.

Mrs. Walter J. Agnew, accompanied by her brother, Harry Epstein, will leave for San Francisco this morning, having been summoned thither by the serious illness of their brother.

Hugh H. Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Brown and Hugh H. Brown, jr., will leave for Reno tomorrow morning. Mr. Brown is to deliver the oration at the Elks' memorial on Sunday next.

W. H. Nebeker, formerly state senator of Utah, and a big mill and mine owner of that state was one of the arrivals on the Beatty train last night and will be the guest of Hon. W. P. O'Meara today on a trip to the Valcaldia mine.

Mrs. O'Brien, wife of Judge O'Brien, returned yesterday from San Francisco, where she has been ill for two months. She is much improved in health, and will remain here for a few weeks, returning at the end of that time to California.

Ray Baker, the advance agent of Rockefeller, accompanied by his brother, Cleve, the press agent of prosperity, arrived from Reno yesterday to get something to eat for Thanksgiving. They will both address the newsboys at the free dinner of the latter at the Creamerie this afternoon. There is something doing every minute in the lives of great men. Ray's speech will be printed in full in tomorrow's Bonanza, the Associated Press having asked for advance and exclusive copies.

WARNING TO TAXPAYERS.

Taxpayers are notified to make haste and pay their taxes, which are delinquent on December 2. Do not wait until the last moment, for the county treasurer may not be able to accommodate you in consequence of the rush.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. MARKS

MISS DELPHINE ST. PIERRE BECOMES MRS. JOSEPH SUTCLIFFE.

One of the prettiest wedding ever witnessed in Tonopah was that of Miss Delphine St. Pierre and Joseph Sutcliffe, which was solemnized last evening in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The church was decorated as it had never been before, the friends of the bride having put in a busy day hanging wreaths, twisting ferns and smilax. There were red berries and holly on the walls, carnations and chrysanthemums. Above the bridal couple was suspended a huge wedding bell of pink carnations and smilax, tied to which was a big pink boa.

The church lighted up very prettily. It was shortly after 7 o'clock when Mrs. L. A. Gibbons, accompanied by Miss Richards, rendered "Beauty's Eyes," by Benza. Then the doors of the church were swung open, and the ushers and bridal train moved down the aisle toward the entrance where they met the bride and her party. To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the party proceeded to the altar, where the bride was met by the groom and his best man. The bride leaning upon the arm of her father, and preceded by little Delphine Fowler, bearing the wedding ring on a white silk cushion, looked a dream in her gown of white crepe de chine, empress style, cut decollete. She wore orange blossoms in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of maiden-hair ferns and white carnations.

A flood of light and color added to the pretty appearance of the altar, which was well filled by the bridal party. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Hills of Goldfield, the bride being given away by her father. The bridesmaids, the maid of honor, and the bridal train, formed a striking background for the bride, in their fetching gowns of pink and white.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, to the air of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party left the church, and were whisked away in automobiles, carriages and carryalls. There was a wedding supper for the party, and this morning Mr. and Mrs. Sutcliffe will speed away on the northern train, their destination being a secret.

The bridal party was composed of the following: The bridesmaids were Misses Mayme McCaffrey and Alicia Grimes, and the maid of honor, Miss Louise Fischer. E. E. Aldridge of Goldfield, Mr. Sutcliffe's best man. In the bridal train were the Misses Lena Heffron, Hazel Joanis Trixy Smith, Daisy Easton and Messrs. Fred Brown, Chester Ishmet, O. D. Payne and W. Walker. The ushers were Messrs. Raymond Frisbie, L. A. Gibbons, Puddy Grimes and Charles Bevis.

NEW SERVICE BETWEEN NEVADA AND LOS ANGELES

Commencing December 5th, the Tonopah and Tidewater (T. & T.) route, in connection with the Tonopah and Goldfield, Bullfrog-Goldfield and Santa Fe railroads, will operate through reclining chair cars and Pullman buffet sleeping cars between Tonopah and Los Angeles. This splendid service offers the advantage of meals on train and of a saving of time en route. Close connections at Ludlow for the east and San Francisco.

DEGAN ACCEPTS RESIGNATIONS

BUT FROM ALL ACCOUNTS THE END IS NOT YET.

The resignation of the fire department has been accepted by Overseer Degan, but from all accounts the end is not yet. There has been not a little comment on the matter of the department leaving in a body and a number of the property owners are interesting themselves in the matter to see if things cannot be patched up with regard to the new rules and the old department.

The boys who have so long fought the fires in Tonopah occupy a green spot in the hearts of the people here, and they want to see them continued in their positions. They want to feel secure when they retire at night that their interests are being looked after, and there has been considerable talk in this respect. Personally, Chief McKenzie and his crew express themselves as satisfied with the outcome, and assert that they will be in the front ranks of firefighters whether they are with the department or with the volunteers. They say that it is impossible to do good work and keep a four hour watch. The men under McKenzie are of the opinion that he should not be compelled to do the work of the ordinary fireman, otherwise, he is chief in name only. The chief is not permitted to buy anything for the house, the apparatus, the horses; in fact this is all done by Overseer Degan, who is really the chief except at a fire. Following is a copy of the acceptance of the resignation of the fire laddies by General Overseer Degan:

Tonopah, Nev., Nov. 27, 1907.
Mr. J. G. McKenzie, Mr. J. R. Schmidt, Mr. J. S. Full, Tonopah, Nevada.
Dear Sirs—Your resignation as members of the Tonopah fire department, of November 26th, '07, to take effect December 1st, '07, to hand, and regret very much your action. Being that your resignations are made in good faith, they are hereby accepted, and I appreciate your noble offer as members of the volunteer fire department to be ever ready and willing to act as such firemen when duty calls.

Respectfully yours,
J. J. DEGAN,
General Overseer.

FINE DINNER AT THE RICHELIEU.

No one need go hungry for a home Thanksgiving dinner today. The Richelieu grill is going to serve a dinner that has never been surpassed in Tonopah, and the price will be 75 cents for the meal. There will be turkey and chicken and entree, with vegetables in season; a meal in fact which would ordinarily cost $2 or $3. But this is Thanksgiving day and Proprietor Johnson says that he is going to give a meal to which there can be no possible exception, either as to service or price.

The Richelieu has the reputation of serving fine dishes, but on this occasion all previous efforts will be surpassed.

It is a well known fact that persons living in the Pine forests do not suffer from kidney diseases. One dose of Pineules at night usually relieves backache. 30 days' treatment $1.00. Your money refunded if not satisfied. Sold by Tonopah Drug Co.

REPORTED SALE OF RAILWAY

BROCK SAID TO HAVE PURCHASED MONO LAKE RAILWAY.

It is reported on good authority that the Brock syndicate of Philadelphia has purchased the Mono Lake railroad, in Mono county, California, with about 100,000,000 feet of standing timber, and that the road will be broad gauged and connected with the Tonopah and Goldfield line, now controlled by the syndicate, and made a part of the system. This plan would require the building of about thirty-five miles of new road to connect the lines, extending from Mina, Nevada, to Bodie, California.

In case such sale has been made it means that the road will be rushed to an early completion. It also means a Santa Fe connection to the south and eventually a San Francisco connection via Carthers and West Walker, making necessary the building of a line from Bodie to such a connection, of about forty-two miles of road. It also means that the road will be free and independent of the Southern Pacific, and above all it means growth and prosperity for Bodie and the influx of outside capital to the mines of this section.—Bodie Miner.

GOOD TIME FOR THE NEWSBOYS

The Butler theater will give a matinee this afternoon to which all newsboys will be admitted free. It will be one grand day for the "kids." Fred Blackford, Tonopah's favorite baritone, accompanied by four pieces, will render a solo.

The Creamerie restaurant will provide a big "toiky" dinner and those who are able to walk after finishing the elegant repast will attend the theater. One of the principal pictures shown will be "Dream of the Rarebit Fiend," which should be highly enjoyed by the juvenile audience.

The tickets will be distributed at the Bonanza office and also at the Creamerie restaurant during the dinner. The matinee will start at 3 o'clock sharp.

W. W. Booth, the proprietor of the Bonanza, will present to the newsboys a box of candy after the spread at the Creamerie. They can enjoy their candy while watching the moving pictures at the Butler.

RECORDS MADE AT TURKEY SHOOT

PROMINENT CITIZENS PAY AN INDIAN TO BRING DOWN BIRDS.

There will be a turkey shoot today upon the slopes of Mt. Brougher. There was a sort of a shoot yesterday. Tom Kendall, Tom Risch, Bill Douglass, Lem Platt, and other celebrated gun men went up to the mountain in a careless sort of a way just to get a turkey for today's feast.

The turkeys came from Bishop, and they were knowing birds. Did you ever see a turkey shoot? A string of birds is placed at a distance of 240 yards, and a string of men stand up at the other end, and pay four bits a shot, and then, bang, bang, bang. If the bird falls, the man who shot him gets the carcass; and that is the way some men bring turkeys home for Thanksgiving.

Tom Risch took the first shot. "Gobble, gobble, gobble" came the answering refrain.

"What's the matter with that gun?" demanded Tom.

"Next shot," remarked the gentleman from Bishop.

"The gun's all right," said Tom Kendall; "it's the man behind. Watch me."

"I learn a great deal by watching you," retorted Risch, as the smoke cleared away, and the number of live turkeys showed no falling off.

"You fellows ought to hire an Indian to go out and kill a turkey with an axe," sneered Bill Douglass, as he stepped into the breach and let fly.

A turkey rolled off the box, and Bill gave an eulogical cry; but the next moment, the turkey righted himself and climbed back on the box to be shot at again. He had flown the coop to get out of the way of the bullet, and hid behind the box.

"You fellows ought to stick to shooting craps," said Lem Platt as he stepped up, gun in hand, and let fly, only to waste more ammunition.

Thirty shots were fired by Tom Risch; twenty-five by Tom Kendall; twenty-three by Bill Douglass, and twenty-two by Lem Platt, and then all hands made up a purse and paid an Indian to do the shooting.

They came home with four birds each, the greatest bird shots that ever went out and came back the same day.
