WOOD ACTS FOR EDITOR OF

(By Associated Press.)
KANSAS CITY, May 2.—Clarence S. Darrow is here today enroute to Fort Scott to defend Fred D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason, whose trial on a charge of sending "scurrilous, defamatory and threatening" matter of not guilty was found in the case of John Vederwede and John Mason,

POPE WILL NOT AID ANNA GOULD

ROME, May 2.—An attempt was made recently on behalf of Mme.
Anna Gould to obtain from the Vatican an annulment of her marriage to Count Castellane, but the Pope, in spite of recommendations alleged to have been made by influential prelates, refused to arrange for an examination of the case. He is reported to have declared that the church annulled marriages when doubts were entertained as to the validity of the ceremony, but never when one of the contracting parties wished to marry again.
Mme. Gould is still striving to have her marriage annulled, and in the hope that the Pope will change his mind has come to Rome to plead with him personally. It is not likely, however, that she will be granted an audience.
The papal major domo, Manager Bisletti, referring to her purpose, said today that it is not the custom of the Pope to receive divorced women in audience, even when liberal contributions of Peter's pence are made.

TONOPAH IN GRIP OF A BLIZZARD

SEVEN YEARS AGO YESTERDAY
THE CAMP EXPERIENCED SEVERE STORM.

And they say that history never repeats itself. Seven years ago the first of May, Tonopah experienced a terrific wind storm, which blew down every tent in the place. The wind blew a perfect hurricane and tents and personal belongings were scattered to such an extent that many of them were never recovered. On the following day it commenced to snow and only when the ground was covered to the depth of a foot did the downfall abate.

And so it was yesterday. The question of the hour was "Is this next winter or last winter?" and a great many seemed to think that it was both. The weather bureau had predicted fair, but that didn't matter. It snowed just the same. At first it was this soft, wet, drizzling snow and then the real article. It was glorious—for those who liked it and hell—for those who didn't. About four inches of the beautiful fell and as a result all the crops in this vicinity are ruined.

of steel works fame, and a party of fifteen in a private coach, left Chicago last night and are due in Blair sometime during the week.
Their object is a thorough inspection of the Pittsburgh Silver Peak mine and mill, which is now in perfect running order—100 stamps dropping and the bullion being turned out at a marvelous rate.

Mr. Effinger states that financial conditions in the East are improving.
Many of the industrial works have resumed operations with their full quota of employes and running on full time.

Secretary Evans of the Elcentro telegram to the court relating to a suit against the New Liverpool Salt ing the Salton basin. He also dismissed the contempt charges against the officers of the California Development Company for alleged violation of the injunction issued in favor of the New Liverpool Salt Company.

DELAY WAS DUE TO BROKEN AUTO

PARTY OF TONOPAH MEN COM-PELLED TO PUT IN AT MIL-LERS FOR NIGHT.

Four weary and bedraggled men, mounted on patient burros, were observed yesterday afternoon approaching Millers, by Bob Kuhns, and the entire population of Millers turned out, thinking that the Wise Men of the East were coming, when lo! an inland! It was found to be Ralph Wardel, R. P. Dunlap, William Ryan and another unfortunate. The party had started out from Tonopah early yesterday morning in an auto on their way to Marietta to look after some mining properties, and had reached the old Stewart wells when they had the misfortune to strip the gear of their machine. Seeing a prospector in the distance, they immediately opened negotiations for the loan of his four burros to transport them to Millers. One wanted to soak his reputation, another his watch, another his toupee, and the fourth was willing to give the dismantled machine, backed by a draft on the State Bank and Trust Company, which seemed so good to the prospector that he immediately closed the deal. He had been out of civilization for nearly ten months and was not familiar with the banking conditions here.

Bob Kuhns stood good for a meal, gave them a shakedown for the night and if necessary this morning will furnish them with return tickets to Tonopah, in the event the machine cannot be repaired so that they can proceed to their original destination.

PROLONG AGONY FOR TWO WEEKS

INCLEMENT WEATHER CAUSED POSTPONEMENT OF ELKS-EAGLES BALL GAME.

The great doings between the Eagles and Elks have been postponed for two weeks on account of the snow. According to both sides, the agony is only prolonged, but we can stand that.

The new suits of the Eagles arrived yesterday and all afternoon there was an admiring crowd of birds in front of Rounsell's window, admiring the uniforms. And there were some Elks there, too. But they did not stay long. The Eagles were too strong and snowballs were plentiful.
The uniform that Judge Brissell, in his official capacity of water boy, will wear and which was ordered from Paris, also arrived yesterday. It is a combination Merry Widow and Fluffy Ruffles, and is a work of art.
And it sets off the Judge's handsome form so nice. Mercy.

LEASES GOING AT RAPID RATE

NEW CAMP OF MARIETTA AT-TRACTS MANY TONOPAH PEOPLE.

With ledges on the surface that will run from $900 and upwards a ton, the camp of Marietta, situated about fourteen miles southeast of the old town of Belleville, is attracting considerable attention at present. A number of leases have been taken on the property owned by A. A. Bass and associates of Tonopah, and work will be started in a few days. One ledge has been opened up by Mr. Bass for a distance of over 3000 feet, which gives enormous returns. At present there are mostly Tonopah people in the camp and nearly all of them have secured leases or property.

Water can be secured at a distance of about four miles and wood is very plentiful in the near vicinity.

SLICK MERRILL LOSES THE FIGHT

GOLDFIELD, May 2.—Reference Grant stopped the fight between Frank Fields and Slick Merrill of Tonopah, in the Hippodrome last night, after the bout had gone ten rounds, and awarded the fight to Fields. Merrill was groggy and staggering around the ring, constantly clinging to Fields in order to protect himself from a knockout. His face looked like a piece of raw beefsteak, his right eye was closed and his under lip swollen to the size and color of an over-ripe tomato.

ARMSTRONG USED TOO MUCH BOOZE

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AT RAW-HIDE ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY.

GOLDFIELD, May 2.—A. D. Armstrong last night appeared before Judge Langan about 5:30 o'clock, and reversed his plea of not guilty to the indictments charging misdemeanor in office, and entered a plea of guilty to both indictments. His attorney, W. F. P. Fogg, made a plea for mercy to the court, and the judge suspended judgment on one indictment and fined Armstrong $100, and ordered that he be removed from office as justice of the peace at Rawhide.

ENCOUNTER VERY ROUGH WEATHER

AUTO PARTY FROM MANHATTAN NEARLY SUCCUMB TO THE BITING STORM.

Journeying across the desert in a blinding snowstorm, by auto, was the unique experience of a party of four who came in from Manhattan yesterday afternoon in "Shorty" Kutzkau's big Stimplex. The members of the party were James Weir, a broker of New York; Wyman Smith, a New York lawyer; W. J. Stock of Manhattan, and J. Vosburgh, traveling representative of the firm of Crane & Co. of Los Angeles. In speaking of the experience last night, Mr. Vosburgh said:

"I have been traveling for the past twenty years, but this experience today is the worst that I have ever been through. When we left Manhattan it had just started to snow, and all went well for a short time.
Soon the snow turned to a sleet and then back to snow, and this with the growing coldness of the atmosphere, chilled us thoroughly. The snow was beating in our faces and the entire party looked like they were wearing white masks. When the machine drew up in front of the Tonopah Drug store, I was so numb with cold that the first step I took after getting out of the car I fell in a heap on the sidewalk and was unable to rise without assistance. I sincerely believe that had we been out another half hour the entire party would have succumbed to the cold. I understand that in this city Mr. Kutzau bears the title of 'king of drivers,' and you can quote me as saying that he is the best driver that I have ever met, and I would be willing to take a chance anywhere with him." Mr. Vosburgh leaves this morning for Goldfield.
