

VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE STRICKEN

James S. Sherman Has Serious Attack of Gall Stones--Physicians Do Not Think Operation Is Necessary.

CLEVELAND, June 23.—Representative James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican candidate for Vice-President, was removed early today from the home of former Governor Herrick to Lakeside Hospital, a sufferer from gall stones. He is reported, in an official bulletin tonight as holding his own after a somewhat restless day. If the patient's condition continues to improve, the bulletin said, it is not likely that an operation for the removal of the gall stones will be necessary. An unfavorable symptom in the case is his continued high temperature.

RECORD BREAKING CROWD

GREAT OUTPOURING OF YALE MEN IN HONOR OF TAFT.

NEW HAVEN, June 23.—As with a scene of jubilation, as picturesque a mass of humanity as ever has had a setting on the baseball diamond, was that which the alumni of Yale University presented as a greeting to Secretary William H. Taft this afternoon as he sat with the class of '78 in the stand on the Yale field to see the game between the Blue and the Crimson. The crowd was a record breaker in his honor. Yale won from her opponent by a score of 3 to 0 in a game which was full of better playing than either team has shown this season.

As an omen of good luck, Taft, with Judge Hollister, in the front rank of his class, immediately following the band, which constantly played stirring Yale airs, flanked on either side by the Stars and Stripes, the banner class marched twice around the ball field in full view of more than 14,000 cheering men and women, followed by the reunion classes, numbering several hundred men. In the procession, which lasted 30 minutes, were bull fighters, matadores, Irish peasants, Tyroleans, rough riders freely using six-shooters, others with contrasting colored uniforms, while here and there was a feature such as wild bull impersonated by two men under the skin of an enormous lion, men on horseback, others carrying placards on which were humorous references to the chief guest of the day.

PRESIDENT IS NOW MAKING HAY

OYSTER BAY, June 23.—The sun shown at Oyster Bay today, and the President made hay. During the mowing President Roosevelt was content to supervise the work, but tomorrow morning, when the crop that covers the hillside in front of the President on his summer vacation. Chief Executive will take a hand in the work. Making hay is one of the yearly occupations engaged in by the President on his summer vacation. This morning he took a horseback ride, in the heat of the day he labored in the field, before dinner he laid low a sturdy tree, the usefulness of which, except as fuel, had been ended. At 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the President with his family will board the Mayflower, set sail for New London, where he will witness a boat race on the Thames Thursday morning.

PLEADS GUILTY ON THREE COUNTS

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 23.—In the United States Court today the Toledo Ice and Coal Company pleaded guilty to three counts on a charge of having received rebates from the Ann Arbor Railroad Company. Judge Kyler assessed a fine of $1,200 on each count, the remaining 152 counts in the indictment being dismissed.

PORTLAND, June 23.—Six people were painfully injured today in a head-on collision between two heavily loaded electric cars on the Mount Scott division of the Portland railway light and power company.

BLOODY FIGHT AT TEHERAN

TEHERAN, June 23.—After a bloody fight, which waged around the Parliament building, the city is comparatively quiet tonight, although Cossacks are camped in the streets and squares. Cossacks and soldiers early this morning surrounded the Parliament building and demanded a number of persons, whose arrest the Shah had ordered, be forthwith handed over to them. Parliament refused to comply with this demand. Shots were fired at the troops, several soldiers being killed. Orders were at once issued from military headquarters that the building be bombarded, which commenced at 10 o'clock. While this was progressing bombs were thrown from the Parliament and buildings, disabling one of the guns and wounding the gunners. Eventually the halls of Parliament were cleared, but not before many persons were killed and wounded. The bombardment stopped at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

HEARST CONTINUES TO MAKE GAINS

NEW YORK, June 23.—The recounting of votes today in the Hearst-McClellan Mayoralty controversy give Hearst a net gain of 115. McClellan's plurality of 3,834 so far has been reduced to 3,131.

WOMAN'S SUICIDE WAS SENSATIONAL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Mrs. James Walsh, wife of a member of the Fire Department, committed suicide in a sensational manner before a large number of people at the Haight street entrance to Golden Gate Park, this afternoon, drinking carbonic acid. Mrs. Walsh has been demented recently, owing to illness. She was missing from home since Sunday.

NEW TARIFF REVISION.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—San Domingo has taken the preliminary steps looking to a revision of her customs tariff, according to information received at the insular bureau of the War Department. The existing tariff is said to be obsolete, archaic and not adapted to present conditions on the island.

BERLIN, June 23.—A dispatch says some looting continues in Parliamentary quarters. The dead have not even been carried off the streets; they are lying everywhere in exposed places. A large number of persons have been wounded. The artillery fired on the population at short range, while from the roofs of houses and mosques people repelled with rifles and revolvers. The Shah remained almost entirely alone during the fighting, only his personal aids accompanying him. All the troops were engaged. They suffered losses of over 100 dead and wounded. European quarters at Teheran are comparatively quiet.

EXPERT TO HELP SOLVE MYSTERY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—After working quietly for several weeks on various samples of handwriting evidence turned over to him by the Federal authorities, Theodore Kytka, the handwriting expert of this city, has been called to Salt Lake City to assist in solving the mystery of the unexplained disappearance of $106,000 from the vaults of the Utah National Bank of that city. Kytka left Saturday night on his investigation, in which he will be called upon to display all of his extraordinary aptitude as an expert of handwriting.

A Federal Grand Jury is at present investigating the case, and it is possible that Kytka will be called before it to give testimony. The jury has been hearing evidence in the case for nearly two months, and is expected to make its report this week. Kytka's connection with the matter, it is understood, has been that of examining minutely the handwriting of various letters and papers, as well as the handwriting of every employe in the bank.

BELL ENTERS A DENIAL OF RUMOR

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—In the course of an interview today Theodore Bell, who arrived from San Francisco to confer with leaders of the local Democracy, stated that there was no foundation for the statement that he was a candidate for the Vice-Presidential nomination at Denver; that his activity was now directed toward his election as temporary chairman of the National Democratic Convention.

CASTRO'S GOVERNMENT AGAIN IN HOT WATER

Diplomatic Relations Between Venezuela and Several Nations Severed--Holland Has Grievance.

CARACAS, June 23.—Members of the American Legation are awaiting the arrival of the United States gunboat Marietta, at Port Cabello, the warship having been ordered there for the purpose of transferring them to the United States. The interests of the United States have been placed in charge of the Brazilian Legation, as representatives of the European nations are having considerable friction with President Castro's government. The American Consular agent, John Brewer, remains in charge of the archives. President Castro returned suddenly a few days ago after a long absence in the interior. All kinds of rumors are current. The withdrawal of representatives of the United States is not quite understood by Venezuelans. It is probable, too, that there will be an early rupture with Holland. There are reports that a revolution against the administration is being organized in Colombia. As matters now stand, the United States, France and Colombia practically have no relations with Venezuela. Great Britain and Holland have serious questions pending. Germany alone has undisputed sway. The recent diplomatic friction between Venezuela and Holland is over the closing of Venezuelan ports to Dutch vessels. President Castro's decree prohibiting the transshipment of cargo in the Island of Curacao reached a crisis several days ago when the President vigorously answered a note sent him by the Dutch Minister, J. H. Deceus, protesting against this decree and criticizing the Venezuelan Consul at Willemstad. Castro refused to modify the orders which he had issued.

SUES EXECUTRIX FOR ACCOUNTING

NAPA, June 23.—In the Superior Court John F. Even, a prominent butcher and former Councilman, has commenced a sensational suit for an accounting against Mrs. Ruth Zollner as executrix of the estate of her husband, John F. Zollner, former Sheriff and Republican leader who died here in January. Even sues as administrator of the estate of his father, who died eight years ago. For twenty-five years prior to Even's death, he and Zollner were partners in a wholesale and retail butcher business here. Even alleges that upon the father's death Zollner assumed charge of the affairs of the firm and controlled the same to the time of his death. He avers that during that period Zollner received and deduced to himself notes, cash and real estate belonging to the firm, to the value of more than $25,000. The widow is now asked to render an accounting, and convey a half interest in eight valuable pieces of real estate to Even.

SETS MARK FOR GOLD PRODUCTION

GOLDFIELD, June 23.—To produce gold for an even week at the rate of $744 an hour is the mark set by the Rogers Syndicate on Florence ground, according to a smelter report made public today. An ore purchasing company's settlement with the corporation shows that over $35,000 was paid for stock taken out of the ground June 9th and 10th. The run of $12.40 a minute began at the end of the high grade. The treasure sack was encountered at the 500-foot level, and by stopping for fifty feet the miners took out enough gold to pay the expenses for five years.

FIRE MENACES BIG MINE HOIST

RENO, June 23.—The hoisting force and the C. & C. shaft at Virginia City were nearly destroyed by a big fire which broke out in a barn close to that place this afternoon. So grave was the danger that every bit of available fire fighting apparatus was brought into play to fight back the flames. The electric lines were burned to the ground and with them went down the pumps by which the great mine is kept drained. The full afternoon shifts of miners was employed in the deepest levels of the mine at the time, but beyond the extinguishing of the electric lights in the mine they had no idea that their lives were endangered until they were brought to the surface after finishing their day's work. The fire at the top was put out only after the buildings surrounding the C. & C. shaft were burned to the ground.

OIL EXCITEMENT NEAR DAGGETT

SAN BERNARDINO, June 23.—An oil excitement eclipsing all former ones on the desert has broken out in the vicinity of Daggett, and hundreds of prospectors are hastening to the territory five miles southwest of town, where already 2,400 acres have been located. Indications that the ground is oil-bearing are good, and men, women and children have joined the rush, forcing every imaginable vehicle into service to convey camp equipment and provisions to the scene. Perry Powers is declared to have struck a heavy trace of oil at 100 feet. The well was originally sunk for water. The surface seum was scraped off and ignited. It burned briskly. Before Powers could locate his land for oil the rush had begun, but with a shotgun he maintained possession and proposed to have an oil rig on the ground next week, if one can be secured.
