

TROOPS ARE ORDERED TO THE BORDER

PLANK IS NOT NAILED

ANTI-INJUNCTION SECTION IN PLATFORM NOW THE ONLY STRUGGLE.

(By Associated Press.)
DENVER, June 29.—The fight over the anti-injunction plank in the Democratic platform is now the only struggle in which the committee on resolutions and possibly the convention itself may be involved. It developed today that the prohibition question is to be brought to the front and that a desperate effort will be made to have a plank declaring in its favor in the platform. Notices of a contest was filed with the National Committee involving forty-five seats, but of this number the contests actually filed relate to thirteen seats, six of these from the District of Columbia, seven from the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Pennsylvania Congressional Districts. Notices of contests yet to be filed will come from Chicago and Brooklyn.

The Vice-Presidential situation remains unchanged, although the boom for Lieutenant-Governor Chandler of New York seems to have weakened somewhat. Only one name was mentioned today as a Vice-Presidential possibility. This was Governor Chamberlain of Oregon. He found much favor with some of the party leaders, and it is said he will be personally acceptable to Bryan if the latter is nominated.

TURFMAN CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 29.—A sensation has been caused through England by the arrest today of Robert Stever, editor of Winning Post and one of the best-known sportsmen in this country, on the charge of attempting to blackmail Jack Joel, a nephew of the late Barney Barnato, the "diamonding" Stever was arrested at the Sandown track during the afternoon racing, and brought to Bow street in a motor car, where he was remanded to prison for a hearing on Monday.

He is charged with having threatened to publish a defamatory article about Joel unless the latter paid him $25,000.

Stever is famed as one of the heaviest plungers in England. He was the owner of the famous Sceptre, which won nearly $200,000 in stakes and was sold to R. W. Bass for $125,000, after Stever having lost a fortune by the mare's falling to win the derby.

MINER SUES FOR HEAVY DAMAGES

JAMESTOWN (Tolunne County), June 29.—J. D. Simmons, by his employer, F. E. Otis, has filed an action against A. Campora and A. Marengo, of this place, in which he sets out a grievance which he estimates is worth $20,000 in coin of the realm.

Plaintiff was foreman of the Harvard mine, owned by W. B. Buckminster, and while so engaged the defendants are said to have written a letter to the owner saying that Simmons was not doing the right thing by good men; that he turned away white miners and residents of Jamestown and its vicinity and hired Slavonian and Montenegrin men because they worked cheaper and handed him a rake-off.

This letter is alleged to have been sent to Buckminster and to have damaged plaintiff in the amount stated, for which he asks judgment.

REPORT LEARNS THAT ABSOLUTE QUIET REIGNS IN AFFECTED DISTRICT.

(By Associated Press.)
CITY OF MEXICO, June 29.—Up to this evening no news of any sort had been received at the capitol that would indicate there had been a repetition of the disorders similar to those occurring in the towns of Viesca and Las Vacas. On the contrary, at the departments of the Interior, War and State comes the report that absolute quiet reigns in the region where small bands of malcontents have been operating. A sensational report is current tonight in which it is stated that the town of Jimenez, a place of about 11,000 inhabitants, was assaulted and captured by revolutionists. At the Interior Department the Associated Press is assured that the report is absolutely untrue. Foreign Minister Mariscal declared today that those manifestants who crossed the Rio Grande and now are on United States soil will be extradited on the grounds that they are guilty of common and not political offenses.

BUTLER HELD FOR BANKER'S MURDER

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 29.—The arrest in this city of the butler, Renard, charged with complicity in the murder of August Remy, a wealthy retired banker who was stabbed to death June 6th in his home in Paris, has revealed the existence of an astounding state of affairs in the banker's household prior to the assassination. The banker's nephew, named Raingo, was submitted to a severe examination, at the end of which he told the Magistrate that Renard killed his uncle. This breaking down completely Raingo explained that after years of service in his uncle's house Renard had become complete master of the establishment, gaining ascendancy over the banker's wife to such a point that the keys to her money and jewelry box were always in his possession. The young man confessed also that the relations between him and Renard had been of a scandalous character.

M. Remy often complained of Renard's growing domination in his household, but his wife defended the butler. The climax came the day before the assassination, when the banker discovered his nephew and Renard together. He then informed his wife that he would no longer endure the situation and that he intended to send his nephew to a disciplinary school and that he was going to discharge the butler.

High words followed this announcement. Mme. Remy refused to believe the stories told her, and finally, in company with her maid, she left the house.

That same night, Raingo had declared, M. Remy and Renard quarreled during the dinner, and Renard killed the banker by stabbing him with a dessert knife. After killing the old man, the butler arranged the house and dining room in such manner as to give support to the theory that the crime had been committed by burglars. Another arrest in the case is expected.

When Mme. Remy was apprised today of the arrest of Renard she would not believe the charges against him. "No," she declared, "it is impossible. If he is guilty he is a monster of hypocrisy."

THAW IS STILL IN PRISON

CASE IS POSTPONED UNTIL JULY 13TH BY JUSTICE MILLS OF WHITE PLAINS.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 29.—Today Justice Rowling, of the Supreme Court, who presided at the second trial of Harry K. Thaw, denied Thaw's application to be removed from the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan to some other institution, on the ground that Thaw, a dangerously insane person, is not to be punished but to be kept under restraint so that he may not injure either himself or any one else. On a phase of Thaw's effort for freedom Justice Mills heard arguments at White Plains today, after issuing a writ of habeas corpus on Sunday on Thaw's application for a jury trial to determine his sanity at the present time. The Justice adjourned the case until July 13th, when further arguments will be heard, ordering that Thaw be returned to prison at Poughkeepsie in the meantime.

RETURN TO ASYLUM DELAYED.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 29.—Harry Thaw has obtained a new writ of habeas corpus returnable before Supreme Justice Mills, of White Plains, N. Y. The writ was obtained in anticipation of Judge Morschauser's signing an order at 11 o'clock this morning recommitting Thaw to Matteawan.

Harry Thaw was delighted with the turn affairs have taken. He made the following statement: "I cannot bear the thought of returning to Matteawan on account of being obliged to associate there with insane people. I would rather go to prison. I have thought all along, and especially since Justice Morschauser handed down his decision, that if I could get my case to a jury I would be able to convince the 12 men of my present sanity and secure thereby my liberty. I am anxious to take the stand and be examined as to my mental condition, feeling confident that a jury will agree that I am not insane."

The petition on which Judge Mills granted the new writ is made by Russell Peabody, as attorney and next friend of Thaw.

HYDE'S ATTORNEYS ARRAIGN JURYMEN

WASHINGTON, June 29.—A sensation was sprung here today in the land fraud cases when Frederick A. Hyde and Joost H. Schneider, wealthy Californians convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of public lands, appealed from the decision in the case on the ground of the misconduct of the jury.

They charge that the verdict was an unlawful compromise entered into by the jury to break a deadlock that had existed for 72 hours. It is asserted that some of the jurors represented to others on the jury that they would agree to convict Hyde and Schneider if Dimond and Benson, accused of similar charges, should be acquitted.

Justice Stafford, who presided in the case, sent the jury back after their 72-hour session, with the instructions that it was to the interest of the Government and of the defendants that a verdict be reached in his instructions, and he told the jury that individual members of the jury, although having expressed an opinion to their brother jurors, could change their opinion without prejudice to themselves, provided further deliberations should lead them to a different conclusion.

It is charged in the appeal of Hyde and Schneider that these instructions led the jury to the compromise which resulted in the conviction of their clients.

He left a letter saying that neither his wealth nor rank could make life endurable, as he could not follow his chosen vocation.
