

ALMOST NEW IS NEXT LEGISLATURE

The next Legislature of Nevada will be almost an entirely new body both in personnel and in number. In the first place, there are 11 hold-over Senators.

The membership of the Senate has been increased to 19, one each from Esmeralda and Nye counties. In Esmeralda County is one Democratic holdover, Senator George D. Pyne, and a confere will be elected. In Nye County Tasker L. Oddie goes out of office and two Senators must be elected. A successor must be elected in Humboldt County for John O'Kane the Democratic holdover being W. J. Bell. Lincoln must elect a successor to J. D. Campbell, president pro tem, of the last session, and Lyon must elect a successor to J. W. Wilson.

Washoe will elect a man to succeed Harry Martin, who held the unique position last session of being a resident of Nye County and representing with James T. Boyd, of Reno, Washoe County in the Senate. White Pine will select a successor to W. C. Gallagher, whose term also expires.

The Assembly has been increased from 40 to 43 members, and all must be elected this fall as usual. Esmeralda has an increased delegation, her representation now being six, instead of three. Nye also gets four members in the Lower House, her representation now being seven, and Churchill gets an additional member.

JAMES CORBETT TO QUIT STAGE

CHICAGO, June 26.—Jim Corbett is to retire from the stage. After next season, when he will appear in "Cashel Byron's Profession," Bernard Shaw's play, Corbett intends to quit the footlights and conduct a cafe and hotel in this city. His season in the play entitled "The Burglar and the Lady" winds up this week, and he will reach the city next Monday.

Corbett made one attempt in the Shaw piece late one season, when the play was too far advanced for the theatrical element to profit much. He will rehearse the play with his company this summer, while quartered in this city, and will then make his final trip on the road.

The site for his cafe and hotel has already been secured on State street, under a twenty-one year lease. In entering this business he is following in the footsteps of Sharkey, Jim Jeffries, Joe Gans and other lights of the ring who have found the hotel and buffet business profitable.

WANTS FAMILY TO CONTRADICT REPORT

VIENNA, June 25.—The father of the Countess Glazky, Robert Patterson, editor of the Chicago Tribune, came here a week ago intending to make an arrangement with the count, who refused to discuss his affairs unless first the Patterson family contradicted all of the "slanderous" reports published about him in the American newspapers, which reports, he says, were inspired by Joseph Medill Patterson.

The father declared that he could not, for family reasons, do this, as he was hardly on speaking terms with Joseph Patterson. He said that he regretted his son's foolish attitude, but fears spoiling his daughter's case if he showed to the public that the family was not united.

The count broke off the negotiation. Patterson left today for St. Petersburg, where he will employ a lawyer in the countess' interest. The count also intends taking a Russian lawyer. The Pattersons seem anxious to find what right the countess has over her child by the Russian law.

WILL YOURS?

A waiting cottage by the sea,
A pack-and-ready Family,
In state of glad expectancy
Arrayed in smiles,
Advantages beyond compare,
Not least a Multi-Millionaire
Whom each Fair Daughter plans to snare

With maiden wiles.

A despot's adamant decree,
A panic-stricken Family,
On verge of wild profanity,
Or depths of woe,
Dejected wait the Daughters Fair!
Some other'll get that millionaire!
But vain are bribe, invective, prayer.

THE COOK WON'T GO!

WILL BE TAKEN DEAD OR ALIVE

WINNEMUCCA, July 1.—Sheriff Lamb, with a posse, left last night for Humboldt for the purpose of capturing C. R. Webster, a saloon-keeper, dead or alive.

Webster, assisted by his bartender by the name of York, resisted arrest earlier in the evening by Constable Wolf, of Lovelock, who attempted to take Webster into custody. The attempt ended in a fusillade of gun shots in which one man was shot twice.

When Wolf entered the saloon Webster, apprehending his purpose, instantly covered the constable with his gun. Wolf withdrew, declaring that he would take the train and return to Lovelock. He boarded the train as he agreed, but as the train pulled out stepped from the platform to the other side of the track, and soon afterward reappeared at the saloon, intent upon placing Webster under arrest.

Without giving the desperate man any opportunity to again cover him with his gun, Wolfe immediately fired at Webster, two shots entering his back and one his arm. Webster returned the fire immediately, but without effect, five shots in all being fired. Day Bartender York was sent for and appeared to the assistance of Webster. The constable then left the saloon and wired to Winnemucca for Sheriff Lamb, who, with a posse of men left as quickly as possible for the scene of the difficulties.

HEEL-AND-TOE.

Upton (whose office is on twenty-ninth floor)—Great Scott! Uncle, you don't mean to say you walked all the way up here and the elevators running?

Uncle Rube—Wa-h, thirty years ago I could a' run, too, but I ain't a' racin' with no elevators these days!

—Puck.

HER NICE QUALITY.

"She seems like a very nice girl."

"One whom it would be safe to marry?"

"Oh, no; no girl is safe enough for that. But she's nice enough to think about marrying, if you only know when to stop."—Life.

BANKER STOLE BIG SUM IN CASH

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 1.—In the Federal Court this morning United States Judge John Marshall received from the Federal Grand Jury a report containing an indictment against A. W. Nelson in connection with the alleged looting of the Jordan State Bank, and was formerly employed in the Utah National, where his uncle, Joseph S. Nelson, was formerly cashier.

The elder Nelson tendered his resignation when President W. S. McCormick, after receiving the report of experts, issued a signed statement acknowledging the loss of $100,250 from the reserve chests of the Utah National Bank.

Following the report of the Grand Jury, United States Marshal William Spry, bearing a warrant for the arrest of the indicted banker, left the city in an automobile for Bingham Junction. Nelson was at his office in the Jordan State Bank when the officer arrived, and upon learning of the action against him he volunteered to return with the Marshal to the latter's office. Arriving here this afternoon, Nelson was met by a number of his attorneys who were on hand to offer their services in arranging for sufficient bonds.
