PREPARE FOR THE BIG DAY

CINCINNATI NOW IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE FOR TAFT'S NOTIFICATION.

(By Associated Press.)
CINCINNATI, July 25.—Notifica- tion day seemed suddenly to become a realization in this city upon the arrival today of William Howard Taft. The work of planning a gen- eral preparation for this event has been going steadily forward for some time, but it took the presence of the candidate to exhilarate the unfurling of flags, the draping of bunting and a general breeziness of holiday at- mosphere, all of which is to culmi- nate the few and unoffical festivities for the few and unoffical festivities for many. The reception of Taft as he stepped from the train which brought him from New York could not have been more simple. During a drive from the station to Charles Taft's residence a glimpse of the holiday attire of the city was had. When the old colonial house was reached there was a decided evidence of the com- ing event, temporary porches being built on either side of the entrance to the house. On the south lawn a new flag pole on which was mounted a gilded eagle, erected to bear a flag which Taft's enthusiastic Filipino friends sent to be raised daily during the campaign. The flag raising be- gins the ceremony for the day and will be the occasion for a brief ad- dress of welcome by C. P. Taft.
