CUNNING CROOK RUN TO EARTH

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The mystery of the theft of $175,000 from the United States subtreasury a year and a half ago, one of the largest losses the government has ever suffered in this manner, is believed to have been solved by the arrest at an early hour today of George W. Fitzgerald. Others are believed to have been implicated in the crime which for months completely baffled the government secret service men. Fitzgerald was an assorting teller under Assistant United States Treasurer William Boldenweck. Suspicion at the time of the theft, February 20, 1907, rested on him, but so plausible was his story, and so intent his apparent interest in discovering the culprit that he was not arrested. Much work was done on the theory that the crime had been done by a colored man. Meanwhile Fitzgerald was discharged from the government employ for culpable negligence in allowing such a theft to be consummated under his very eyes. The money stolen had been used, and was tied in packages, some of which having been marked for destruction at Washington. Any of them would readily have passed anywhere except for their large denominations. None of the bills was under $500 and some were $1000 and $5000 denominations, these $1000 ones predominating.

The theft created a sensation throughout the country, and congress at the last session was asked, and refused to release Assistant Treasurer Boldenweck from liability, although it was promised that congress would again consider the matter at its next session.

Meanwhile, Herbert F. Young, a former Chicago newspaper man, and now head of the Young Secret Service agency, became interested in the case, at first without official connection, but later as the agent of Mr. Boldenweck. Mr. Young's attention was directed to Fitzgerald. The latter upon his discharge from the subtreasury, stated that his whole fortune consisted of $600 and a stock certificate for $1000. His wife had a $700 interest in the estate of her mother, which was valued at about $4000 and was in litigation.

SCOTTY'S FACE IS IN A SLING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Walter Scott, who divides his time between mining gold in Death valley and spending silver in San Francisco, is carrying his face in a sling as the result of a general melee that took place in the Cutter saloon on Market street last night, where he and a few friends dropped in to talk the bartender to death.

When the roll was called, Harry Milling, Frank Martin, George Birdsall and Scotty answered, "Present." No one seems to know just how the row started, but all accounts agree that Scotty was acting the part of peacemaker when his lights went out.

In any event, there had been a good deal of talk about heavy artillery, but no one heard any firearms discharged. Neither had the bartender heard anything click on the mahogany. Someone made a remark that that last trunkful of ore Scotty brought north must have been very low grade.

Suddenly several fists shot out. Scotty stepped valiantly in to separate the combatants, when somebody tapped his nose. He stepped back to reach for a bar cloth and some one else presented him with a black eye.

By this time Scotty began to feel aggrieved and he walked right into the fray. It lasted but a minute, and when it was over the bartender sopped Scotty up with a sponge and squeezed him out on the sidewalk. He's now looking for the man who blacked his eyes.

EARLE BEATS UP HIS "AFFINITY"

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Ferdinand P. Earle, who less than a year ago discharged his wife and son that he might marry Miss Julia Kuttner, his "soul mate," was separated from her today when, on a charge of grievous assault upon her, he was committed to the Orange county jail here to wait action by the October grand jury. With her month-old child the woman left Monroe about the time he was arrested to go to her mother's home in New York. Later, steps looking toward legal separation and a division of his property will be taken. Tonight Earle is under special guard in the jail. Sheriff J. Albert and his assistants being fearful he would destroy himself.

Earle's arrest today was on a warrant sworn to by Inez T. Berry, a graduate nurse who has been in attendance upon Mrs. Earle since before the birth of her child last month. It follows a series of assaults that date prior to the baby's arrival, which practically have been continuous. According to Mrs. Earle, when her baby was less than a fortnight old, she was compelled to leave her bed and stand for nearly two hours while Earle lectured her on her general unworthiness. On other occasions she was beaten about the head, face and body until the services of a physician were necessary.

WILL HANG FOR MURDER.

SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 27.—Delfin Albitie, who was convicted for the murder of his wife at Monrovia in August, 1906, and was sentenced to death, will be hanged at this place tomorrow, August 28, at 10 a. m. The crime for which Albitie is to pay the penalty was one of the most cold blooded ever recorded in Los Angeles county. Arriving at his home late in the evening, apparently sober, he said nothing to his wife, who was lying in bed, but just pulled a revolver from his pocket and killed her.

MAYBE YES, MAYBE NO.

According to reports Carl Young, one of the leaders of the radical element at Rawhide and known here, has been appointed a colonel and acting paymaster of Governor Dickerson's staff to succeed Frank L. Wildes, resigned. The governor is at Ely at the present time and is expected home the latter part of the week.—Carson News.

"I have written a book that everybody ought to read," said the author. "I'm afraid it won't do," answered the publisher. "What the public seems to want now is a book that nobody ought to read."—Exchange.

HE DID HIS PART.

"So you once lived in Africa, Sam?"
"Yes, sah."
"Ever do any missionary work out there, Sam?"
"Oh, yes, sah. I was cook for a cannibal chief, sah."—Pick-Me-Up.
