EDITORIAL COMMENT.

ELECTING SENATORS BY POPULAR VOTE.

Letting the popular vote determine the choice of senators has become the rule in several states, although the practice is not recognized by the federal constitution, says the Oakland Tribune. In Wisconsin the Republican electors have decided that Senator Stephenson shall succeed himself, and in Washington Senator Ankeny has been rejected at primary for Congressman Wesley L. Jones. In Nevada, the electorate will decide between Senator Newlands, Democrat, and P. L. Flanigan, Republican, an agreement having been made by which the legislative nominees of both parties bind themselves to vote for the candidate receiving the highest number of votes at the general election. Similarly Governor George E. Chamberlain has been made the popular choice in Oregon. The verdict of the polls retired Senator Long in Kansas in favor of former Assistant Postmaster General Bristow. In Iowa and Illinois the senatorial succession, so far as the Republicans are concerned, was decided at the primaries, Senator Allison in Iowa winning over Governor Cummings and Senator Hopkins beating Congressman Foss in Illinois. In Missouri the Democratic voters gave their preference to Senator Stone over Governor Folk. Thus by voluntary action or local legislation permitting the electors to signify their choice, the popular vote is becoming, in many states, the controlling factor in selecting United States senators. In Tennessee, Texas and South Carolina, the senatorial succession was settled by popular vote as expressed in the Democratic primaries. So without changing the constitution, the people are settling a vexed question and bring the senate in closer accord with public sentiment.

Col. H. B. Maxson, Republican nominee for congress, has just returned from the east, and will at once take up the work of campaigning for the Republican ticket. As a vote getter there is no better man in the state than Colonel Maxson. He has always been a staunch Republican and as such has kept in constant touch with the policies of his party. No man is better fortified or equipped to present the needs of the state than he in the halls of congress. With a person of the personality of Colonel Maxson in the house it must be obvious to all that he will be in close connection with the next administration, which is bound to be Republican, and he can accomplish much for the good of the state.

MUSTAIN AND WOODS MATCHED

MEN WILL MEET FOR TWENTY ROUNDS ON THE SECOND OF OCTOBER.

Terry Mustain and Billy Woods have been matched to box twenty rounds on the second of October at the big arena for the Casino Athletic club. This match should be the best that has taken place in Tonopah in the past year and should equal the Hart-Schreck fight of May 30, 1907. It is a well known fact that when Terry climbs through the ropes that he is going in for a finish if it is in him to terminate a fight anytime before the limit. He is always anxious to bring a climax as soon as possible. In his fights with Morgan Williams, Bob Ward and Jack (Twin) Sullivan he has been returned the winner long before the limit. That Terry made a hit in California is proven by the letter which reached Tonopah yesterday, stating that Charles Harvey, manager of Owen Moran, is desirous of taking Mustain to New York, as he thinks he has a sure winner in Terry against any man in a six-round contest, which is the only kind of bout allowed under the laws of the state of New York. Harvey wished Mustain to meet him in Reno and accompany him to Gotham.

C. W. Miller, having matched Terry to box Billy Woods here on the second of October, wired Harvey that he had other engagements and would be unable at this time to accept his offer.

Negotiations in the matter of the Attell-Weeks' contest are progressing very favorably, in fact, they have reached a stage where it can be promised the fight fans that the fight is almost absolutely assured. It is the intention of the promoters to stage this bout Thanksgiving day.

THEIR ADVENTURES ARE MOST AMUSING

Autumn is arriving with a golden hue, the direction of feathered game is southerly. Winds blow a thought of snow, and a dream of sleigh rides, and some of us kids just go to pieces, cuss school, and wonder why parents discuss and encourage arithmetic and such things.

Most features of the abused are labeled with an imperative "Why is it?"

Not to be abused—and to think unkind things of the neighbors—a certain element invites criticism through being awkward and little understood.

The adventures of Mr. Trouble, as seen at the Butler last evening, was a revelation for Beany and the goat. There are numerous other things, including: "The Enchanted King," "A Soldier's Dream," "The Velled Beauty," and "The Mesmerist," which afford a lot of amusement.

Harry Downs is singing two songs with effective results.

Nora Emmett sings those songs that mother used to sing. Miss Emmett was cordially applauded.

The Butler offers a good, bill to-night.

TURNING OUT THE BEST WORK

The bindery of the Bonanza is turning out the best work in the city, and it is giving such great satisfaction that anyone who has his work done there once, never goes anywhere else. The plant is the finest and most complete, not only in the State, but this side of San Francisco. We can turn out all kinds of work that is demanded in the offices of lawyers, brokers, promoters, mining companies, or for any other kind of business, and we guarantee satisfaction in every respect. One trial will be sufficient to establish the truth of this statement. It pays to go where only the best kind of work is done, and it pays to patronize home industry.

Tonopah Mining	10	1	9	.100

The Montanas defeated the Eagles-Elks ball team Sunday at Recreation park by the score of 6 to 4. Up to the eighth inning the score stood 2 to 1, but in the ninth both teams seemed to go up in the air and the large score resulted. There was a good attendance and the umpiring of James Kelly was as usual faultless.

A large crowd of admirers accompanied the Tonopah Mining team to Millers Sunday to witness the game there which proved to be one of the most interesting yet played this season. The Millers won the game by the close score of 2 to 1. The new pitcher of the big company can certainly deliver the goods and it is said that the work of both teams was equal to work done in the major eastern leagues. The score follows:
