M. HOWELL IS HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

T. M. Howell appeared in the justice court yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by Paul DeLaney, publisher of the Death Valley Magazine, charging him with embezzlement. Some time ago DeLaney employed Howell to solicit advertisements for the magazine from the local candidates in this city. DeLaney alleges that Howell also collected the money for the ads, and led to make a proper accounting of the same.

G. R. BRADLEY IS IMPROVING

F. Dean Bradley returned yesterday from Beatty, where he had taken his father, G. R. Bradley, who was suffering from a severe attack of asthma. Mr. Bradley reports his father's condition much improved and says that he will return to this city in about a week. This report comes as gratifying news to the captain's many friends in Tonopah, and it is hoped that his return will be accompanied by a complete recovery.

BURDICK-WILLIAMS CASE IS DISMISSED

The case of E. E. Burdick against M. A. Williams came up in Judge Brissell's court yesterday morning. Williams was charged with making threats against the life of Burdick. Judge Brissell after hearing the testimony dismissed the case, as there was not sufficient evidence shown to hold Williams.
