

MARATHON RACE WILL BE RUN ON FEBRUARY 14TH

That the Bonanza's Marathon race will be run on Sunday, February 14, is now an assured fact, and more names are being added to the list of prospective champions. One thing must be distinctly understood by those who desire to engage in this contest, and that is no "champs" will be allowed to participate. The event is only for amateurs, and especially young men, and was gotten up for the sake of the athletic-loving people of this city. The handsome cup which will be tendered the winner, was received from the engraver's hands yesterday and is now on exhibition in the office of the Marathon Race Editor, where those who desire to call and inspect the handsome work of art are at liberty to do so.

The third entry for the contest was received early yesterday morning. In fact the entry blank was shoved under the door of the M. R. E.'s room while he slept. It was from Jim McQuillan, who signed himself the champion of Candelaria and Sodaville. Talk about conceit. We don't know what Jim's purpose is, but suppose he is trying to bluff the younger racers from taking part. It is true that Jim was the champion of Sodaville in the old days when that camp was in its prime. The long distance races then were not called Marathon races. Everything was simply a race, even if it was from 100 yards to 100 miles. The time that Jim won the championship is a part of the history of Sodaville itself. Jim had beat everything in sight and as a last resort sent a challenge to Benny Rosenthal at Hawthorne. The terms of the contest was that each was to start from his home town and finish at Luning, which is twenty-five miles distant from both places. The start was made on a morning of a Fourth of July amidst a crowd of several hundred Indians, who had gathered to witness the great feat of McQuillan's. The telegraph operators at Sodaville and Hawthorne started the racers promptly at 9 o'clock in the morning. At 9:15 a freight train left Sodaville and a few minutes later a handcar left Hawthorne. When the freight reached Luning Jim crawled from under one of the flat cars just in time to see Benny come driving up on the handcar. Of course each accused the other of cheating and as Jim was the largest he won. Hence his title, "Champion of Sodaville."

The second entry yesterday was that of County Commissioner W. T. Cuddy. Cuddy also has a reputation—that is for foot racing. He was going to run a race last summer with Judge Brissell and even ordered a pair of racing tights for the affair. But the day the race was to be run he was ill and the affair was postponed until the following Sunday. When that date arrived the county commissioner developed a pair of kidneys in his feet and couldn't even walk. He also says he used to show some class when he lived at Silver City, Nevada. In fact he says he beat every Indian in that neighborhood—that is beat them racing. Mr. Cuddy also made a good run in the last political campaign and on account of this thinks he should be allowed to participate in the Marathon race. As he enclosed a $5 check for his cartoon he will be in the start and will be designated among the bunch by a "No. 5," which will be pinned on his back.

Horrible Death of J. T. Lewis at Klondyke Wells

While engaged in oiling the gasoline engine, at the pump station at Klondyke Wells yesterday morning, J. T. Lewis received injuries which caused his death an hour later. Lewis had only been at the station a few days, and was engaged in his customary duties when his jumper caught in the friction wheel and he was revolved through the air about twenty times until his weight caused the machinery to stop. His cries attracted several men of the section gang who live there, and they immediately released him from the wheel and made him as comfortable as possible. In the meantime a dispatch was sent to A. J. Chambers, roadmaster of the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad, who was in Goldfield, and he immediately left for the scene with Dr. Dunham of that city. Lewis was placed on a freight train, but the return journey to Goldfield had hardly commenced before he passed away. An examination showed that both of his legs were broken, all the ribs on the left side fractured and besides receiving several other bruises, he was injured internally.

Lewis was well known in Tonopah and had resided here for several years. He was employed by Roadmaster Chambers as a section foreman on the railroad here before being sent to the pumping station. He was about 59 years of age, and is survived by a mother in Missouri, a son, James Lewis, who is employed at the railroad yards in this city, and another son in Seattle. The remains are at the morgue in Goldfield where they will remain until definite arrangements have been made for the burial.

Several months ago Lewis made a visit to Washington, where he purchased a ranch and it was his intention to return there within the next few years, when he had made a stake which would prove to be sufficient for improving the property, and settle down with his son.

The inquest will be held in Goldfield today before Justice Henley. Lewis was a Mason and his son is now making arrangements to have the body taken to Pueblo, Colorado, to be interred by the side of his wife, who passed away some years ago.

TONOPAH FLAG STAFF SHOULD BE RE-ERECTED

The flag staff, which has adorned the top of Mount Oddie since the early days of this camp, is no more. One of our prevailing customs has been to fly the stars and stripes from the top of this mountain on all state occasions and it has been no rare sight to see Old Glory waving in the breeze throughout the summer months, from this high point.

The last wind storm here several days ago blew down the flag staff, and now it is up to some public-spirited citizen to again erect the staff so the stars and stripes will be flying to the breezes on Lincoln's 100th anniversary.

It's NOT Too Late TO SAVE $100 Every Month

Though January has passed annual statements of foreign corporations can be published and filed in February (leaving a possible fine of $100 for January only.) Foreign corporations that fail to comply with the requirements of the statutes are subject to a fine of $100 for EACH MONTH in which they are delinquent. Those who have not published their statements are reminded that any District Attorney may claim the fine by instituting suit against the offending corporation. If the report is not advertised and filed during the month of February, the company becomes subject to a fine of another hundred dollars, and so on for every month in which it is delinquent. Here is the law on the subject, which will repay careful study:

Chapter CVIII.—An act requiring foreign corporations doing business in the state of Nevada to publish annual statements. Approved March 28, 1901.

Section 1. All foreign corporations doing business in the state of Nevada, shall, during the month of May this year, 1901, and in each succeeding year in the month of January, publish a statement of their last year's business in some daily newspaper in the state of Nevada for the period of one week.

Sec. 2. The secretary of the company publishing the statement shall file a copy with the several assessors of the state of Nevada.

Sec. 3. Any corporation coming within the provisions of this act who shall neglect or refuse to file a statement as required by section 1 of this act shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each month that the published statement remains unfiled with the several assessors of the state.

Sec. 4. Any district attorney in the state is competent to sue to recover this penalty, or the attorney general. The first county suing through its district attorney shall secure the penalty.

BULLOCK FILES A DEMURRER

REDWOOD CITY (Cal.), Feb. 5.—The case of District Attorney Bullock, accused of malfeasance in office by the late grand jury, came up for trial this morning. The defense filed a demurrer to the sufficiency of the accusation and the case was continued until February 14 for trial.

It will thus be seen that there is a stiff liability attaching to a failure to file these reports. The Bonanza furnishes forms to comply with the above law for advertising purposes and attends to filing same with the fourteen assessors of the state. Those interested are invited to correspond with this office at once.
