

"That's the Reason They Feel So Fine"

Look at them! Those young men of America! Every limb and muscle pulsing with strength and vigor—the red sap of life bounding through their veins in a flood of surging health and power. Are not these the type of the coming time—the men who shall rule the future—are not these also the type who know the charm and cheer and social and dietetic value of

What Wife Wrote to Her Hubby

One of the miners in the Valley View stope, on opening his lunch bucket the other day, found in it the following note, written evidently by his wife:

"Will you please 'stope' work long enough to try my lunch and take heed to the following suggestions?"

"Do not let your conversation 'drift' onto unpleasant topics, as it will retard digestion. Keep out of the draft so the 'winze' will not blow through your whiskers. Be sure to keep your 'collar' clean, so that 'sump' people will not 'charge' you with being untidy. Do not allow yourself to 'slide' into the habit of 'lagging'; it is a sure sign of indolence. Always try to keep on the 'upper' side of good fortune and a 'breast' of the time. Do not 'shift' your responsibilities onto the shoulders of your 'partners.' Remember a true 'friend' is worth his weight in 'gold.' Keep 'stull' while your ears are conversing, but when you do speak, let your discourse flow through a 'vein' of good humor and never 'chute' a 'giant' to 'screen' a 'waste' (d) life.

"Keep your hands out of other people's 'pockets,' 'ore' you might be compelled to leave town to the accompaniment of a 'drum.' Be careful of the 'hanging wall.' Remember you have no 'lease' of life. Bear in mind two 'quartz' of prevention is worth a 'ton' of cure. Let your expenditures be less than your income, or you will soon find a 'hole' in your fortune. Do not 'ship' your wife because she does not 'run' at your beck and call. Do not 'steel' a 'single jack,' I would prefer a good 'horse,' and it is no 'fault' of 'mine' that I haven't one at the present 'time.' Choose carefully your companions, remember that 'royalty' is not always the best 'company.' Let your life be a 'sample' that needs not be 'assayed' to find its true 'value.'

"And now, dear, hoping that you will not soon kick the 'bucket,' but that when your 'light' does go out, you will hear the 'signal' from 'above,' and 'ascend' to the very top round of the 'ladder,' where God grant we may all meet you, and bid adieu to tin palls and cold tea, and where we can live on pie forever more. Affectionately,

FAMOUS ACTRESS IS NOW A RESIDENT OF RENO

RENO, June 9.—Margaret Frohman, the famous actress and wife of Daniel Frohman, the prominent theatrical manager and promoter, who is in the city and has been residing here incognito since the 10th of last November, refuses to make any statements regarding her presence here or the matter of prospective divorce proceedings which have been the object of her making a residence in this state.

Complying with her firmly expressed desire no interview with her

can be reported. That the beautiful brunette is a resident of this city, with her mother and a companion, and has been such since the tenth of last November, almost continually, is a fact. That such a famous personage should be able to walk the streets of Reno frequently alone or in company with her mother or lady companion, during the past two months, in such disguise and with such a degree of secrecy by the few who knew of her presence here, is as remarkable as it is unusual.
