A GLIMPSE OF THE FUTURE

One is ceasing to be surprised at anything these days. The flying machine of this week is where the automobile was a dozen years ago—and the then stared-at, gaped "devil wagon" is now as common as taxes—and costs more. With this in mind, what man, whose life then spans the incredible marvel of the telephone, will have the temerity of the "man-birds?"

And think what a spectacular interest life will then take on! The show will be free; it can't be boarded in like baseball. One can watch sailing ships without the bother of going to the shore; it'll be just overhead and roof gardens will take on a new lease of life.

A bard of the Detroit Free Press has been singing of such a future, and one ventures to think he's not so preposterously out of the way in his guesses:

Father's in his airship,
Gone to spend the day,
Looking after loans and bonds
In Europe, o'er the way;
Mother, who likes comfort,
And does not care to roam,
Is shopping, via wireless,
In Paris, at her home.

Brother, who in deep seas
Has a coral grove,
Is going in his submarine
Among his crops to rove;
Uncle—in the navy—
Who's left his ship a span,
Is shooting through pneumatic tubes
To join her in Japan.

STATE ANANIAS LIVES IN RENO

John E. Pelton, president of the National Mining company of Nevada, is well known as a raconteur, distinguished as the author of many good stories, which he repeats in an inimitable manner. Sunday afternoon Mr. Pelton returned from Reno with a new one.

A citizen of that town was fishing in the Truckee a few days ago, regardless of the fact that this is the closed season, when he was approached by a stranger, who inquired:

"Any luck?"

"You bet!" was the response.

"How many have you caught?" was the next inquiry.

"Forty," replied the angler.

"Say, do you know who I am?" queried the stranger. "I am the fish and game warden of the state of Nevada."

"Well, say, Mr. Warden, do you know who I am?" was the quick rejoinder. "I am the biggest liar in the state of Nevada!"

There is a fortune in it for the man or woman who can invent a woman's hat that can be worn so that every time she tries it on she won't have to say: "Of course it doesn't look well just now. My hair isn't dressed the way it should be for this hat."

$250 REWARD!

For arrest of Peter Garrety, alias "Fatty," who on the night of November 30, 1909, shot and killed Hamilton Proctor, in cold blood, at Little Lake, Inyo county, California. Garrety's description is as follows: Age about 45 years; heavy set, weight about 190 or 200 pounds; height, 5 feet 8 inches; dark complexion; black moustache, recently trimmed. I think has scar on temple near eye. Wore black coat, blue shirt, blue overalls, black slouch hat. Native of Ireland and speaks with brogue. Claims to be a sailor; heavy drinker, will be found around saloons, likes to rough house; has worked around mines as a mucker; will associate with hobos. Killing was done with nickel plated revolver.

GEORGE W. NAYLOR, Sheriff Inyo County, California.

OAKLAND, Dec. 13.—John S. Delancey, a prominent attorney accused of the embezzlement of $10,000 from the estate of the late George Hite Cook, was today sentenced to serve six years at San Quentin.

IT PAYS TO PLACE YOUR AD WITH US

A certain farmer had studied long and earnestly into the goods offered by Montgomery Ward & Co., and picked out a $50 order. The next morning he read one of the Tonopah ads in the columns of the Bonanza and in the afternoon came into town and purchased $60 worth from a local merchant.

Better goods than the mail order houses handle can always be purchased from your home merchant, and this at a lower price, if you will only call on them. The fact is that the merchants are just a little bit diffident about telling the public just what they have. They forget that it pays to advertise.

The Bonanza has the most complete ruling and binding plant in the state. Give us a trial.

STOCK MARKET

With a drop in the silver quotation yesterday, there came a small decline in stocks. Tonopah Mining, after the rapid advance of the past two days, suffered a ten point drop. Belmont came in for a loss of three points. Montana and Jim Butler each lost one point. West End gained one cent, the only advance recorded.

Goldfield Consolidated dropped back 12 cents. Florence gained two and one-half cents. Pittsburg Silver Peak showed life and made an advance of five cents.

ANNUAL ASSESSMENT WORK

The time is getting short in which to do the annual assessment work on mining property for the year 1909, and those holding property should proceed to get busy at once if they wish to hold their property. Remember that re-locating your own property on the first of the year to escape doing your assessment work will not hold your property, if anyone else wants it.
