REAL GLASSY SUBJECTS SHOWN AT THE BUTLER

SPLendid FILMS WILL MAKE UP THE ATTRACTIONS FOR TODAY.

Today at the Butler Theater there will be another entire change of program at which time four new pictures and illustrated songs will be shown. The following is the program: "Convict's Heroism," drama; "Set of Teeth," comedy; "Florella, the Bandit's Daughter," drama; "From the Fighting Top of a Battleship in Action," scenic, and a great big feature film entitled, "The Legion of Honor." This subject has created much favorable comment wherever it has been shown, and it is really the classiest subject ever shown at the Butler theater. No one should fail to attend this change of pictures as they will be shown today only, and to miss them will be missing a treat. The usual matinee today at 2 o'clock.

DECISIONS ARE HANDED DOWN IN DISTRICT COURT

WRIT OF CERTIORARI ISSUED AGAINST ROUND MOUNTAIN JUSTICE.

Yesterday morning in the district court, prior to the calling of the Skinner trial, Judge Averill handed down several decisions on cases that have been under consideration for some time.

The motion for a new trial in the case of the Robert, Rand, Johnson Shoe company versus H. A. McKim, was denied.

The demurrer entered by Frank Golden and C. H. Phillips, co-defendants in the case of the Southern Nevada Banking corporation versus the Gold Center Ice and Brewing company, was overruled and the case placed on the calendar.

A motion to amend the answer to the complaint in the case of John Clendennin versus W. J. Douglas, was denied.

A writ of certiorari was directed against George Foley, justice of the peace at Round Mountain. This was issued after the demand was made in the case of James A. Hayes versus the Alkinate Mining company and calls for records of the case which was first tried in the Round Mountain justice court.

LOOK OUT FOR TITLES.

The items from Idaho about the townsites in the Jarbidge cause Forester Tremewan to smile. No doubt there will be something doing when Mr. Tremewan reaches that camp. It is not always healthy to sell options to land that no one has title to, let alone have no control over.—Elko Independent.

Swell show at the Butler today.

YOUNG COUPLE SPRING SURPRISE ON FRIENDS

F. B. HILL AND MISS NELLIE POMEROY WEDDED LAST EVENING.

Last evening at 6:30 o'clock Frank B. Hill and Miss Nellie Pomeroy were married at the residence of T. H. Lynch, with Judge H. H. Atkinson officiating. The news of the wedding came as quite a surprise to the many friends of the young couple in this city and the arrangements were kept somewhat quiet and only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride is one of the most popular members of the younger set in this city and has resided here for a number of years. The groom is employed at the Tonopah and Goldfield meat market and during his short residence in Tonopah has made many friends. The young couple will continue to reside here which is gratifying news to their acquaintances.

PICTURE AND AFFINITY FAILED TO AGREE

Salt Lake Herald-Republican: Dressed in his suit of best clothes, patent leather shoes and with a bright carnation in his button hole, Philip R. Henderson visited the Rio Grande station yesterday for the purpose of meeting his bride to be, from Chicago. Acquaintance had been had through letters, and it was agreed among the two people that they should meet in Salt Lake, get married here, and proceed to Los Angeles. Although he had not seen his intended, Henderson was to know her by a red ribbon to be tied on the handle of her suit case.

"I saw her all right," he said, "but she didn't see me and never will. She sent me her picture some time ago. No wedding bells for me after this."

Henderson lives in Portland and through a matrimonial agency became acquainted with the maiden from Chicago. He arrived in the city Monday night and had purchased transportation for two to California. He claims he is engaged in business in Portland. Becoming lonely and not knowing any girls, he tried one of the Chicago matrimonial bureaus. Through the agency he became acquainted with a Milwaukee woman. In letters to him she said her assets were $10,000. Correspondence was continued for six months, with the final agreement to meet in Salt Lake, where the couple were to be married.

At the station yesterday Henderson waited patiently until the train bearing his affinity arrived. Then, he says, he decided he had made a mistake and did not speak to the woman.

Henderson will remain in the city for a few days, when he will return to Portland, to live a life of single blessedness.

WANTS NEWS OF FRANK WHITE

Mrs. H. M. Bruel of Chico, Cal., is anxious to find her grandson, Frank White, who was last heard of in Reno two years ago, when he wrote that he thought of going to some other place, but has not since communicated with his people. His grandmother would be very grateful to anyone who would notify her of his whereabouts, if known.

OIL SCORES ON COAL.

On the run between Winnemucca, Nevada, and San Francisco, the Western Pacific has announced that California oil will be burned by all passenger engines. Contracts have been made with the Standard Oil company for the supply and tanks will be built along the route.

J. W. Berg and L. Morin of Round Mountain are in town.

RETURN GAME OF BASKETBALL WEDNESDAY EVE

GOLDFIELD TEAM WILL INVADE THIS CITY AFTER SCALPS.

Wednesday evening at the Miner's Exchange hall the team of the Tonopah Basketball club will play a return game with the Winged V aggregation from Goldfield. At the game between these two teams about two weeks ago, which was played at Goldfield, the local boys went down to defeat by a small score, but promise to even things up at the coming contest. At the conclusion of the game dancing will be indulged in. The price of admission to both the game and the dance has been placed at 50 cents per ticket. The contest will start at 8:30 sharp. The following will be the line-up of the local team: Stotsbury, center; Boggs, Davidson, forwards; McNeil, Bowler, guards; Girton, substitute.

THE LIVING ROOM.

The living room should be the best room in the house. It is in this room that the members of the family congregate and enjoy each other's society, and the comfort and taste of the different members should be considered in the furnishings of the room. It is best to have a bare floor with a large rug that can be taken up frequently to be cleaned. Plain curtains that are easily laundered are best. They need not be white, as in a room of this kind a figured curtain with figures harmonizing with the color of the room would look better.

A few appropriate pictures are all that is necessary and these should be dignified and in keeping with the uses of the room. One large, substantial library table, with plenty of comfortable chairs, and a couch are necessary. Light should be generously provided, so that the children may have light for their studies and their games, and other members of their family for their reading or their sewing or their fancy work. A drop light for the table and side lights at convenient places will be the most satisfactory arrangement. If the children are well provided for at home, as a rule, they will prefer staying there to looking elsewhere for pleasure.
