A DISGUSTING SIGHT.

There is a time in every community when the newspapers chronicle the misdeeds of a youth, brought about by becoming intoxicated. Up to date Tonopah has had little complaint along this line, owing to the refusal of the saloons to sell liquor to minors. Yet there are a few saloon men who will dispense drinks to boys, knowing that they are under age, and that they are breaking the law by doing so.

Not long ago three boys whose parents are well known in this city and who are prominently identified with the business life, walked past this office at a late hour. That they were intoxicated could be told by their maudlin conversation and uncertain footsteps. The next day they bragged to the other boys of their acquaintance, of the fact that they had been drunk the night before.

An investigation as to the identity of the saloons that make it a practice to sell liquor to minors would not come amiss and a conviction or two, would greatly tend to eradicate the evil that now exists. Furthermore something should be done with boys that aid in the violation of the law.

SLOW WORK TO GET IN SHAPE SAYS THOS. LOCKHART

NYE & ORMSBY BANK OUTLOOK IS GROWING BRIGHTER DAILY.

T. G. Lockhart and E. S. Van Dyck returned yesterday from Carson City and Reno, where they have been on business connected with the settlement of the affairs of the defunct Nye & Ormsby county bank, of which Mr. Lockhart is receiver. Mr. Van Dyck says that they are gradually getting the tangled affairs straightened out, but it is slow work, considering the assets that were left after three of the principal creditors of the bank took their pick of the securities on hand at the time of the failure. There is still some chance, however, of realizing something on the present assets in the hands of the receiver, as several of the debtors of the bank who were practically bankrupt when the crash came are getting into good shape financially and will be able to pay off most of their indebtedness. The final settlement is nevertheless a slow process, but results are being attained.—Goldfield Tribune.

MRS. MACKAY COMING WEST IN SEPTEMBER

Word has been received in Reno to the effect that Mrs. Clarence Mackay, wife of the college benefactor, is coming west in September, and after a brief visit in Reno will continue to Los Angeles. There she will join Mrs. LaReine Baker, and the two will enter upon a definite equal suffrage campaign. The suffrage campaign will extend particularly to the states of Washington and South Dakota, where equal suffrage constitutional amendments will be voted on.

GILT SEALS FIVE DOLLARS EACH ON BONDS

The secretary of state was surely making money in a way for the state yesterday as one of the clerks was putting the gilt seal on a large number of bonds that had just been issued and every gilt seal that was stamped on the paper meant $5 for the state.

There were 105 thousand dollar bonds that the state has borrowed from the school fund to be used in the prison building fund. They are four per cent bonds and are redeemable at any time not to extend over a period of twenty years.—Carson News.

DICKERSON AT ELY.

Governor Dickerson is at Ely on business connected with his paper, the Ely Expositor. He intends to return to Carson the latter part of this week.

LITTLE ACTORS AT THE BUTLER MAKE A HIT

LOCAL EAGLES PRODUCE GOOD SHOW WITH SPLENDID TALENT.

The little amateur actors at the Butler theater took the house by storm last evening and every act was greeted with applause. That something out of the ordinary was in store for theatergoers was announced by the noise of the barkers in front of the playhouse. The Eagles who had charge of last night's performance, relieved the various employees of their duties and between times took turns at beating a big gass drum.

In addition to the moving pictures, little Beatrice Parker and Tommy Lydon amused the audience first in single turns and then in a double act. Lena Bohn and Marjorie Macy also deserve credit for the manner in which they carried out their lines. The best part of the performance was when Beatrice Parker, Marjorie Macy and Tommy Lydon appeared in a blackface stunt. That is Tommy represented Darkest Africa and the girls dressed as Dutch maidens. The act was a good one and the juvenile actors were deserving of every bit of applause received. The music throughout the evening was furnished by Mrs. James Hayward. Tonight the regular performance will be given and Manager Jake Goodfriend has secured an attractive program.

WESTERN PACIFIC TO ENTER RENO

That the Western Pacific railroad company is going to soon have a road into Reno is the conclusion that has been reached within the last few days. Farmers and land owners west of Reno and along the south side of the Truckee river have deeded a right of way for the company, and they have every reason to believe the Western Pacific is going to enter Reno by this way, thence running by way of Boca and Layalton through to their main line. They seem sanguine of soon seeing either an electric railway line owned and operated by the Western Pacific passing through their places, or else a standard gauge railroad operated by the same company.

The fact that men supposed to be surveyors or civil engineers have recently been taking measurements as though for bridge building, just above the electric light bridge, indicates that some important movement is on foot there.—Reno Journal.

Principals in the "Gingerbread Man,"

Do you believe in Santa Claus? This question may be a little out of season, but whether you do or you don't you will probably be convinced when "The Gingerbread Man" comes to town, and he is due here Sunday afternoon at the Nevada theater when he and his cohorts will introduce Santa Claus for your favorite inspection. Flanked by a lot of pretty girls, a lot of good music, and some excellent comedians, they will present Sloane and Ranken's pretty musical play for your delectation in a way that should excite your admiration. The production from a scenic standpoint is said to be all that can be desired, and many novel features have been added to bring the piece right up to date, and make it an entertainment as unusual as it is attractive. Rose Snow and William Cameron, the two principal comedians, are still with the organization, and a young American prima donna, with a very high soprano voice, and very pleasing to look upon, is playing the leading feminine role. The rest of the cast is said to be entirely up to the standard, and judging from the favorable criticisms received in the cities that they have played recently, the company is in for a record breaking engagement. No doubt many remember Sloane's pretty music with which the piece abounds, as it appeals to all classes of music lovers, and has sound melodic virtues. Mr. Sloane has given us, from time to time, many musical gems, but never so many in one opera as are found in "The Gingerbread Man."

NEVADA CENTRAL ROAD IS TO BE REBUILT

According to the Austin Revelle the Nevada Central railroad will be rebuilt as rapidly as possible. Delivery of freight was commenced last Wednesday at a station called Bridges, half way between Austin and Battle Mountain. This brings the freight-haul into Austin down below fifty miles.

Tuesday the motor car was put in commission for mail and passengers to the same point, connecting with stages for Austin. Within a few days arrangements will be made for the resumption of express business.

The reconstruction work is being carried on with a force of sixty men, divided into two gangs. The men are in charge of Superintendent Hiskey and Messrs. Treat and Ross.

A rough estimate of the damage to the railroad places the figure at $50,000.

YOUTHS ENGAGE IN FIRST-CLASS GO

Two boys entertained quite a crowd last night about 11 o'clock in the rear of the Tonopah club by indulging in a good old-fashioned scrap. Both boys fought clean and the go was interesting as long as it lasted. Finally when both were tired out it was agreed to quit and settle the difference at some future date.

The cause of the mixup is unknown.

WOLTER MAKES PROMISE TO CONFESS HIS CRIME

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 30.—Although Albert Wolter, the youth accused of killing Ruth Wheeler in his room and burning her body, begged the detectives to give him until Wednesday when, he declared, "I'll tell you the whole truth," the police are still at work to discover a definite motive for the crime.

SAN DIEGO MAY YET ACT ON COMPROMISE

Thus far San Diego fair promoters have not accepted or rejected the new compromise offered in the Panama-California exposition controversy, according to Max Meyberg, vice chairman of the mediation committee appointed at the Santa Barbara conference, says the Los Angeles Express.

The latest solution to the difficulty is endorsed by the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, Merchants and Manufacturers' association and the Los Angeles Realty board.

It is recommended that San Diego accept and San Francisco concede to San Diego 50 per cent of the state appropriation. San Diego's proportion, however, in no event to exceed $1,000,000 and provided that San Diego shall raise $2,000,000 from other sources.

Under this arrangement, San Diego is expected to waive all right to a federal appropriation. In event the compromise is accepted, both cities will advertise the two expositions.

Mr. Meyberg says he expects a representative of the San Diego people will come to Los Angeles to confer with him in regard to the compromise.
