NO LAW CAN STOP FIGHT IN SAN FRANCISCO

By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The attitude of the law officers of this city toward the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight was definitely settled this afternoon when District Attorney Fickert declared there were no legal grounds for interference. "If the contestants comply with the provisions and code of the ordinance," he said, "it is not within my power, the police department or the sheriff to prevent the fight. I have read the articles of agreement between Jeffries and Johnson and they are in all respects within the statutes. It is impossible for me to predetermine whether there will be a violation of the statutes or not. If, during the fight, the principals or representatives violate the law they will be punished. If the majority of the people of the state of California are against professional sparring exhibitions their remedy lies with the legislature to prohibit the same."

Roosevelt the Only Representative Not in Uniform—Royal Guests Again Dined by King and Queen.

By Associated Press. LONDON, May 20.—Sovereigns and representatives of all the powers of the world, paid a last tribute today to England's great monarch, Edward VII, whose body now rests in St. George's chapel at Windsor castle, where the bones of Edward V, VII and VIII, Henry and Charles I and III, George IV and William IV are entombed. A bright sunshine followed the night of the thunderstorms that swept the city last night. London millions filled the streets and open places as they never before had been filled at funeral or festival. The pageantry that marked the burial of Victoria was as naught compared to the magnificence of today's ceremony. The procession included nine sovereigns and a former president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, who alone was not in uniform, and heirs of several thrones, members of royal families, field marshals, generals, admirals, detachments of troops of all British armies and representatives of foreign armies and navies in variegated uniforms. The funeral services were conducted by the archbishops of Canterbury and York, assisted by other prelates. Several royal mourners, including the Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand of Austria and Prince Charles of Sweden, left London tonight, but all the reigning monarchs will remain. The king and queen had another notable dinner party at Buckingham palace this evening. The departure of the sovereigns will begin tomorrow, but the German emperor is expected to stay until Monday night. A local ambulance society, that had men posted along the route of the procession, reports treating 6,014 cases. In most instances the cases were from heat prostration.

Yerkes Observatory Finds the Celestial Wanderer—Will be Visible Tonight Between 8 and 9 o'clock.

By Associated Press. WILLIAMS BAY, Wis., May 20.—Halley's comet was under observation early this evening at the Yerkes observatory. For a while it was visible to the naked eye. "The comet appeared as of the brightness of a star of the second magnitude," said Professor Edwin Frost. "No tail was observed. The exposures of the spectrum show principally continuous spectrum which means it is chiefly due to the reflected sunlight. Gaseous constituents are less conspicuous than when the comet was in the morning sky, and appeared faint. The comet will be visible to the naked eye tomorrow night from 8 to 9 o'clock in spite of the bright moon."

EDICT ISSUED THAT PEONS MUST WEAR PANTS

MEXICO CITY, May 20.—The Mexican peon will have to wear pants during the great centennial celebration here next September. The governor of the federal district has issued instructions that breeches must be worn by even the humblest of the race.

A plan for providing the peons with pants to replace the loose fitting white cotton garments generally in evidence has been devised. If a man is too poor to buy a pair of pants he will be given employment a sufficient length of time to enable him to accumulate the required amount.

The government is anxious that everything look spick and span during the celebration month, and with that end in view is leaving nothing undone. Hence the interest in pants for peons.

In this tropical climate peons wear white pantaloons, loose fitting. They are far from being neat in appearance. Some of them wear their white garments rolled up to their knees. To the tourist they appear typical, and to some perhaps picturesque. At any rate they have to go, at least during September.
