ROOSEVELT WILL SUPPORT BEVERIDGE

United States Senator From Indiana for Reelection

Beveridge is Seeking to be Returned to Senate as an Insurgent and Will Make Fight on Tariff Measure.

Ex-President Admits That He Will go to Indiana and Make a Speech in Favor of Senator Beveridge.

By Associated Press.
OYSTER BAY, July 7.—Albert Beveridge, United States senator from Indiana, one of the most prominent consistent of the "progressive" republicans came down from Sagamore Hill this afternoon with the promise from Roosevelt to deliver a campaign speech in his favor in his fight for re-election to the senate. After Beveridge had departed the colonel made the announcement that he intended to speak in the senator's behalf. Beveridge is making a fight for re-election as an insurgent. He is opposed by John Kern, who ran with Bryan in the last campaign. In his fight for senator, he is placing himself squarely against Taft on the tariff measure. The law which the president defended as the best tariff measure ever enacted is denounced without equivocation by Beveridge and the same republican state convention that endorsed Beveridge for another term has virtually repudiated this law. In the senate, Beveridge fought the bill to the last and then voted against it. It is pointed out, however, with this exception, Taft and the senator from Indiana have been pulling together on administration policies.

Sagamore Hill was fairly swarming all day with men of various political persuasions. They talked politics all day long, but as they left town they were unanimously reticent to tell what they knew. Consequently Oyster Bay was enveloped in an atmosphere of deep mystery. There were three Indians among the visitors. Besides Beveridge there were William Foulke and Lucian Swift. From New Hampshire came Winston Churchhill, the novelist, John Bass, the war correspondent and his brother, Robert Bass, a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. New York state was represented by Representative Hamilton Fish and James Sheffield. From Montana there was United States Senator Thomas Carter.
