A PERFECT NEVADAN.

The Carson News, in commenting upon Mr. Oddie's candidacy, says:

It is no idle boast to state that Tasker L. Oddie is to be Nevada's next governor, for every sign that is dear to the hearts of those who have made political battles point to his selection.

The personality of the man is such that those who have ever had the pleasure of a few words with him have been won and are thereafter his strong adherents.

Senator Oddie is a republican first, last and all the time. One who has ideas of his own and ideas worthy of support and will find that the people of the state are with him.

The name of Oddie has been a household word in the state of Nevada for many years, and whenever it has been mentioned has been spoken with respect for he is a man worthy of the highest commendation and deserving of the trust of all.

There are many in the state today who look back into the past; remember the day when the wolf was howling at the door; when sickness was racking them with its pains and darkness was falling over them; they can see in the picture one face that is illuminated with love; they can see outstretched the hands containing that which drove the wolf away, eased the pains and turned darkness into dawn. It was the face of Oddie and his hand of encouragement and help.

These are the people who are singing the praises of Oddie today, and the words they use carry with them the strength that brings others into his fold to be his supporters and assistants.

Senator Oddie is the man who could rightfully stand as a model for the perfect Nevadan—honest, upright, straightforward, courageous, affable—a man of the people.

The action of the democracy of the state, in their platform, in charging to the republicans railroad domination in state politics, is of a part with the honesty of the pickpocket who, fearing detection, shifts the stolen watch into an innocent bystander's pocket. He can't then be caught with the stolen goods on him. So with our democratic friends. Whatever railroad domination there may be must be credited to the democrats by every man of common sense, since for sixteen years they have controlled politics in this state. But a little matter like the facts is not greatly worrying the other side. It looks like, during this campaign at least, they are ignoring them altogether.

PASTE THIS IN YOUR HAT.

On the 8th day of November the voters will be called upon to decide upon their choice for United States senator. Will they choose a man who is interested in the welfare of Nevada, who has large interests here, who has spent years in the upbuilding of the state; or will they select one who is barely able to say that he is a taxpayer; who is groveling in the dust seeking the votes of the workmen and who, if elected, will serve simply as an ornament in the United States senate?

George S. Nixon is a man who can do things and who stands on his past record. His opponent—the less said the better.

This is the season for business houses in the large cities to send out catalogues by the wholesale. The shipment to Tonopah is just as large as ever and it would be well for those intending to send away for articles to remember that we have business houses of our own that are deserving of patronage. Every cent that goes to an outside firm injures the business of this town. By patronizing the local houses, the money is kept at home and the purchaser receives the benefit.

"Nixon has done all he could to ruin Nevada; he has voted for every bill that would harm this state; if he is returned to the senate he will proceed along the same lines and heaven knows what will become of us. Elect Pittman and save Nevada; Pittman owns 150 acres of land on top of Charleston mountain, 10,000 feet high, and accordingly he must, for his own salvation, do what he can to further the state's prosperity. Nixon has only several millions of dollars invested in various enterprises throughout the state and consequently he doesn't care if Nevada does go to perdition. Vote against Nixon, the state wrecker; vote for Pittman, the only man who can keep us off the rocks." That is a sample of democratic talk. How do you like it?—Reno Gazette.

One of the first steps toward restoring the confidence of eastern capital in Nevada—a confidence that was badly shattered by the work of Graham Rice and his followers—will be the election of T. L. Oddie as governor. Every man who votes for Oddie is aiding just that much in bringing better times to the state.

As Bill Booth says—well, he has said so much that it is hard to remember, but there was something remarked about his credentials in the matter of superintendent of state printing. Just give him the ink and he will see that it is evenly distributed upon the type.

SCHOOLMASTER OF MARIPOSA

—A LOVE STORY

The program of the Butler theatre for today is an exceptionally good one. "The Cowpuncher's Sweetheart" is a western story, the principal feature of which is some daredevil riding performed by real cowboys and real Indians. "Whist" is a comedy which will make you first sit up and next indulge in a moderate degree of laughter, to be followed later by an immoderate crescendo of mirth. "He Met the Champion" is another comedy that you will heartily enjoy.

"The Schoolmaster of the Mariposa" is a love story of the west, centering around a schoolmaster. Of course there is jealousy and the schoolmaster is badly beaten, but he succeeds in winning the girl, and afterwards becomes a successful artist. Every one of these pictures is a feature and are all of American make, so do not fail to witness this performance for it is certainly a treat.

Tom Kendall and Billy Douglass after a two weeks' duck hunting expedition, returned today. They were hunting near Laws, Cal., and came near capturing several tame ducks.

Fred Corkill, the former superintendent of the West End, arrived this morning from the south end of the state. Mr. Corkill is now located at Berkeley.
