

WEDDING OF LOCAL COUPLE QUIET AFFAIR

KIND HEARTED FRIENDS SPOIL ALL ATTEMPTS AT SECRECY

It isn't every day in the year that a person is granted the privilege of writing for publication, the news of his own wedding, but that is neither here nor there; it is simply a fact—and as facts are stranger than fiction in accordance with the belief of Socrates or some other of the old Roman and Grecian heroes, it is up to the general public to be lenient.

Naturally the first thing will be to announce that last evening at 8 o'clock in the offices of Judge H. H. Atkinson, Kenneth J. Booth, of the Bonanza, and Miss Kathryn I. Boyd were pronounced man and wife in accordance with the rites as performed by the aforesaid judge. The entire affair was a secret—that is up to several hours before the nuptial obligations were sealed, and then it appeared as if every one in town was cognizant of the fact, and then the multitude got real busy.

Of course we could go on and write for hours on the virtues of the bridegroom, but that would not be right. The bride has been a resident of Tonopah for the last eight months, having been employed in the postoffice, where she has made many friends. We could also use up an equal amount of space in dwelling upon her courteous manner and beauty, but having told her all about that prior to the wedding, we can see no use in a repetition of the fact.

Let it be sufficient to say that the couple will continue to make their residence in Tonopah.

BOLD ROBBERS ROB HOTEL AND THEN ESCAPE

Lea, the night clerk, into insensibility, rifled the cash drawer of $70 and escaped. Lea was discovered an hour later, still unconscious.

MAY NOT ACT ON THE REPORTS OF COMMITTEE

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Ballinger-Pinchot commission's reports will not be acted upon by a house committee, to which they have been referred, until after the holidays, and perhaps not at all. The members of the committee protest that the reports, having been made by a special joint commission of congress, should have been laid on the table of the speaker. The minority committee will try to get the matter before the house as soon as possible under the rules.

GIBSON JURY FAILS TO REACH VERDICT

The jury in the George Gibson case, at Goldfield, failing to agree after deliberating for 22 hours, was discharged by Judge Somers at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Almost from the first ballot the jury stood 10 to 2, the majority voting for a verdict of assault with a deadly weapon and the minority for simple assault, the one crime being a felony, punishable with imprisonment in the state prison for not more than two years and a fine of not to exceed $5000; the other by a county jail sentence of not more than six months.

Before the discharge of the jury both Judge Somers and District Attorney Springmeyer took occasion to express surprise at the inability of the jury to agree in a case so simple, the latter hinting at a prosecution for perjury. "This is indeed a remarkable state of affairs," declared the assistant prosecutor, "a sad commentary upon the judgment, and I might say honesty, of at least one juror. I have received, since this trial was concluded, certain information as to the remarks made by one of the jurors prior to his examination and contrary to sworn statements on his voir dire, and, at the proper time, I will take up this matter."

Assistant District Attorney Springmeyer insisted that the case be set for re-trial on next Monday, and an order was so made by Judge Somers. A special venire of fifty talemens was drawn yesterday afternoon by Judge Somers and County Clerk Hamilton for service on the second trial.

HAVE NEW PLAN FOR THE CONSERVATION OF WATER SITES

National Conservation Association Is Discussing Measure That Will Aid Development of Industries.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A plan is being considered by the National Conservation association, of which Gifford Pinchot is president, to bring together the advocates of federal regulation of water power sites and those who stand for state control. The basis of the plan is the development without delay of water power without the sacrifice of the other uses of flowing water. For this it is declared that private capital must be aided by state or federal governments through corporate franchises, the condemnation of private property, and licenses to use public lands to obstruct public waters. It is proposed to give the power companies a certainty of tenure for a reasonable length of time, and to insure good service at fair prices.

JURY HAS BEEN SECURED IN TRIAL OF DOCTOR BURKE

Indictment Read at Morning Session of Court and the Opening Statement Made By District Attorney.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 8.—The indictment charging Dr. Willard P. Burke with dynamiting the tent of Lou Etta Smith was read to the jury this morning, after which the district attorney, Lea, made his opening statement. He said that the state would show that Burke not only tried to kill Miss Smith with dynamite, but tried to poison her later. Letters from the doctor to Miss Smith, justifying free love, will be produced at the trial.

COUNTY DADS HAVE ADJOURNED UNTIL JANUARY

LAST DAY IS SPENT IN ATTENDING TO MATTERS OF LITTLE IMPORTANCE

After spending the day attending to matters of little importance, the board of county commissioners adjourned this afternoon. This is the last session of the present board for at the January meeting T. O'Connell will take the place of S. F. Lindsay, who now officiates as chairman. Charles G. Humphrey was re-elected as short term commissioner, while the term of W. T. Cuddy does not expire until two years hence. At the coming session it is believed that the chairman will be Mr. Humphrey. This is a natural conclusion as the board will be democratic and Mr. Humphrey is the oldest member.

Yesterday and today were spent in cleaning up the different matters brought to the attention of the commissioners, such as bills of momentary importance. The Pinkerton Detective agency, which presented a bill some months ago in connection with the arson case, again had a communication to the board, but no action was taken as in the first instance the bill was rejected.

MISS HARNED MEETING WITH FINE SUCCESS

ARTHUR AYLESWORTH PROVES HIMSELF TO BE AN EXCELLENT MANAGER

A resident of southern Nevada, just home from a trip east, bumped into Arthur J. Aylesworth a few nights ago at Billings, Mont. Mr. Aylesworth, as Tonopah people well know, is manager for Virginia Harned, now starring in "The Woman He Married." He is with his advance man, Mr. Davis, for a few days, between Montana points and St. Paul. Mr. Aylesworth reports a splendid business all along the line. The attraction is calling out packed houses everywhere, and the harvest of golden shekels is coming Arthur's way, as usual. Much of this success is due to Mr. Aylesworth's splendid advance advertising. A firm believer in printers' ink is Mr. Aylesworth, and his success should be an inspiration to theatrical managers who are afraid to shake down a few of the useful dollars to the papers. It is not likely that Mr. Aylesworth will take the show to New York this season, but will probably open in Gotham next season in one of the Schubert playhouses.

INTERESTING FILMS AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT

The Butler theater has an excellent program for this afternoon and evening. "Silver Cloud's Sacrifice" is an Indian drama in which a white man is in love with an Indian maiden. The girl's father objects and it is here that Silver Cloud makes her sacrifice. "The Little Station Agent" is a stirring railroad story with a love story to insure interest. "In the Mountains of Kentucky" is a moonshining story with some jealousy and good acting included. The two scenes that will attract with especial force is where the man is led away to prison and the woman who has been taking his attention away from his wife is so indifferent to his fate. Tom Hurley, the popular comedian, will be on hand to dispense some original wit and will also render some clever vocal selections.

FORMER TONOPAH RESIDENT AT THE POINT OF DEATH

Advices received from Reno last evening state that Mrs. Grace Mann, who several weeks ago packed a millinery store in this city, is lying at the point of death in that place as the result of an operation recently performed. Since that date Mrs. Mann has been in a precarious condition and although the best of medical attention has been in attendance, her recovery is somewhat doubtful.

ASSAULTED BY MINER IN SEARCH OF EMPLOYMENT

FOREMAN AT BELMONT MINE MEETS WITH INJURY LAST EVENING

T. F. M. Fitzgerald, mine foreman at the Belmont mine, was assaulted yesterday afternoon by George Tomanovich, a miner, after the latter had asked for a situation in the mine. Fitzgerald was walking from the Belmont shaft to the Desert Queen shaft, a distance of about half a mile, when he was accosted by Tomanovich, who asked for a position in the underground workings. Fitzgerald replied that he had no place open at the present time and stated that if Tomanovich would apply again he might be able to give him work.

Tomanovich replied that Fitzgerald did not intend to give him a job, and at that swung a pick handle that he carried, and landed the missile on Fitzgerald's head. The mine foreman then grabbed the weapon and wrested it from his opponent, who, picking up a rock, hurled it at Fitzgerald and then beat a hasty retreat.

The incident happened about 4 o'clock and shortly afterward Fitzgerald swore to a complain asking for the arrest of his assailant, on the charge of assault and battery. The warrant was placed in the hands of the officials but up to date it has been impossible to secure a trace of the wanted person. It is believed that Tomanovich is being kept in hiding by some of his countrymen, but there is no doubt that he will be arrested before long as a search is being made for him.

The casket, made of bronze, remained closed. There were no services at the vault.

COUNTY DIVISION IS CAUSE OF CONFUSION

The division of Lincoln county, forming Clark county, has resulted in considerable confusion and some amusing conditions. One of these is the fact that Lincoln is left without a state senator residing within its borders, although it will have representation in the upper branch of the legislature.

Senator Syphus was corralled by Clark county when the division line was run. He could not very well move across the boundary and continue residence in the county, he represents, but he received legal advice to the effect that he is still eligible to fill his position.
