

TARIFF BOARD BEGINS WORK

COTTON SCHEDULE PAYNE-ALDRICH LAW FIRST TO BE TAKEN UP.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The tariff board has begun its investigation of the cotton schedule of the Payne-Aldrich law and will conduct the work so far as is practical simultaneously with the investigation of the woolen schedule now under way.

Agents of the board are gathering preliminary data at the office of the so-called cotton trust in New York and probably will transfer their work to the cotton mills of New England and the south within a few weeks.

The status of the work on the wool schedule indicates that a report may be ready when congress assembles in regular session in December.

HALLEY'S COMET GAVE RIGHT OF WAY TO MOTHER EARTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 8.—Halley's comet showed almost human consideration for old mother earth when it passed this way, according to the latest deductions of scientists. The astral visitor really put itself out considerably in order not to disturb this planet, declared Maynard Shipley of Oakland, a scientific lecturer, in an address here recently at the Fairmont hotel. The lecture was the first of a series of six on the subject of the "Origin of Man."

It has been discovered, said the speaker, that the earth has a repellent force for matter such as was contained in the tail of the big comet, and that instead of passing through this tail, as was expected, the earth escaped it entirely, because the tail of the comet divided, giving the earth right of way. That is why, he said, the comet's tail was seen in both the east and west at the same time when it was passing.

The lecturer explained the modern theories of the formation of solar systems, illustrating his remarks with lantern slides. The next lecture will show the development of the earth to the point of inhabitation.

ONE OUT OF EVERY 275 INSANE, SAYS DR. FERRIS

NEW YORK, April 8.—One out of every 275 persons in New York City is insane, according to Dr. Albert W. Ferris, president of the State Lunacy commission, who is delivering a course of lectures before the New York School of Philanthropy. The state hospitals for the insane now house 32,000 patients, the lecturer continued, and private institutions care for 11,000 more. New cases admitted to the state asylums average about 150 a week. The cost of caring for an insane patient is approximately $200 a year.

LOVESICK SIOUX INDIAN ENDS LIFE WITH POISON

CHICAGO, April 8.—Frank Little Buffalo, a Sioux Indian, committed suicide in Gary, Ind., yesterday by drinking carbolic acid. Buffalo, it is said, fell in love with a white girl in Gary, and because she did not return his love, took the poison. He had been employed as night janitor of the city hall of the Indiana town since last summer, when he arrived in Gary with a Wild West show, was recognized by Mayor "Tom" Knotts as an old friend and was offered a place on the municipal payroll.

STANDARD OIL DENIES FINANCING THE REVOLT

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Standard Oil company issues a formal statement denying reports that it is and has been financing the revolt in Mexico. The statement says:

"All these and similar reports are absolutely untrue. The Standard Oil company, in its character as a citizen of the United States, has strictly held itself apart from all interference in the affairs of the Mexican republic, with which it has no connection, moral or material."

A BAD LAW BADLY HANDLED IN NEW JERSEY

A certain girl who was little more than a child, worked in a corporation's factory in New Jersey. In the course of her labor her arm was caught in the machinery and torn from her at the shoulder. Being thus handicapped in the race of life, she brought an action for damages, and the trial court awarded her $17,500. Then the corporation, acting upon the glorious and never-forgotten corporation principle that is best to wear a poor claimant out in the courts, appealed the case to the supreme court, and that learned and profound body reversed the decision of the lower court on the ground that—but let the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph make the grounds clear, in the following:

"A photograph had been introduced at the trial. The photograph was the picture of the plaintiff in her confirmation dress, and the learned judges decided that it was irrelevant; being irrelevant, it should not have been admitted, and being admitted, it nullified all the proceedings of the court bearing upon the negligence and responsibility of the company."

So, the wrong picture having been admitted in evidence, the girl might go through life maimed, unfitted for the struggle, with starvation forever as a next door neighbor. Unfortunate, of course, but the wrong picture should have been kept out of the record.

We suppose that this is law, for who are we to oppose the decision of a supreme court? Yes, it is law, but depest hell might have chuckled when it first was recorded in statute books or decisions. If law has no recompense for those who are crippled in the service of capital, then it were better if the poor waged their unequal battle without law. One need but think of that forlorn and maimed child left to go her crippled way, and one must realize that this is so.

Verily the New Jersey supreme court announced the law, and we do not dispute it, but—damn such a law!—S. F. Star.

ELECTION FIGURES.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 8.—Complete figures on Tuesday's judicial and school board election show that in the main contest, that for circuit judgeship, the socialist candidate, John C. Kiest, was beaten by the sitting judge, L. W. Halsey, non-partisan, by a majority of 14,011 votes. Kiest's total vote was 11,953. The socialists were defeated by nearly 2 to 1 in the contest for places on the school board. Mrs. S. M. Cantrovitz, the only woman candidate elected to the school board, ran about 10,000 behind the highest successful candidate.

LUNATIC ATTACKS VATICAN OFFICERS

ROME, April 8.—The attempt of a man, believed to be insane, to shoot some of the canons at the service in St. Peter's a few days ago, caused alarm, particularly as it became known that he originally had designs against the Pope. After he had been arrested, the man, subsequently identified as Pietro Pesanti, said he hated the Pope and the priests, who had been his ruin.

Pesanti told a rambling story. He said he had a rich uncle and aunt, whose heir he would have been if the priests had not induced them to leave their property to religious institutions. This exasperated him, he continued excitedly, and he killed them both, and for years he was in prison, but finally being released, came to Rome to obtain his last revenge by killing the Pope.

Since last August, Pesanti said, he had been trying to enter the Vatican, but had not been able to do so. Therefore he had decided to kill some of the ecclesiastics holding office under the Pope.

After the ceremony the bride went her way and the groom went back to his cell.—Elko Independent.

Next Week at the Nevada Theatre

MISS MAE SIMMONS, AT THE NEVADA THEATRE NEXT WEEK.

On Monday night next, the most highly-spoken-of company in high-class repertoire, headed by Miss May Roberts, will open its engagement of a full week in Henrie Bernstein's famous play, "The Thief." Many have perhaps seen this play, for it had a tremendous run in Paris, where it first came out. It was afterwards transferred to London and there made a great hit, with Irene Bamberger and Karl Bawer starring jointly as Marie Welloby and Richard Welloby, two parts that are considered as the master conceptions of modern play writing. These characters call for an actress and an actor of much more than the ordinary ability, for the entire second act is portrayed by these two in their bedrooms, and, outside of perhaps the part of Hamlet, the part of Marie Welloby is the longest part ever written, and it taxes the nerves of every actress more than any other. "The Thief" is no child's play, for it is too intensely emotional; neither is it a play for he who only loves to laugh, as it is not comedy. Those who appreciate intensely and finished artistic acting cannot afford to miss Miss May Roberts, supported by L. Victor Gillard in the celebrated play, "The Thief."

During the engagement of Miss May Roberts and her company, the program will be alternated so that every one can be pleased, for it will be emotional one night and comedy the next.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 8.—Lying in waiting for a "gentleman burglar," seen on several occasions when operating in stylishly cut clothes and kid gloves, officers early yesterday arrested Corporal Parker Hall of the local army recruiting office, alleged to have been caught in the act of opening a safe in a Main street cigar store. Hall is a veteran of the Spanish-American war. He is a native of New York.

Why Send Out of Town for Your Printing
When you can have first-class work done right here, by first-class union printers.
The business man who sends out of town for his printing injures his own business as well as that of others. While on the other hand the man who patronizes home institutions increases the town's pay roll, and thereby builds up his business.
The printers and book binders in the cities of surrounding states do not come here to spend their money.
