

REBEL ARMY PREPARES TO MARCH ON PEKING MICHIGAN GOVERNOR HANDS LA FOLLETTE A WARM PACKAGE

New President Has Taken Official Oath--Empress Dowager Advances $2,000,000 to Be Used In Prolonging Hostilities.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—A news agency dispatch from Tien Tsin says that Wang Wie Tze, who was sent to Lanchow as the delegate of Premier Yuan Shi Kai, has joined the republicans and has been elected a leader of the troops here. He declares his intention to begin a march with the army on Peking tomorrow.

The army now under Wang Wie Tze's orders comprises a large body of the best of the Imperial troops. Wang telegraphed yesterday to the foreign ministers at Peking and to the foreign consuls in many of the cities requesting them to enjoin their governments to maintain the strictest neutrality.

PEKING, Jan. 3.—The empress dowager, who is desirous of carrying out a campaign against the revolutionaries, yesterday advanced about $2,000,000 to Premier Yuan Shi Kai for that purpose. There are many indications that the northern troops are anxious to resume hostilities.

NANKING, Jan. 3.—The first official act of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the president of the new Chinese republic, was to change the Chinese calendar. He made New Year's day the first day of his presidency, thus marking the commencement of a new era and making the Chinese year begin henceforth on the same day as the year begins in most other countries of the world.

Accompanied by a large suite and protected by a strong bodyguard, Dr. Sun Yat Sen left Shanghai in a special train for Nanking. The trip was made without incident, except for the enthusiasm of the greeting accorded to the new president at all the principal stations. Dr. Sun Yat Sen reached the new Chinese capital at 5:30 in the evening and was greeted by loud cheering throngs. The president-elect proceeded to the central platform and there took the oath of office.

Delivers Address.
Afterwards he delivered an address in which he promised to dethrone the Manchus, to re-establish peace, to promote trade and to devote his entire energy to the Chinese nation and to aid the Chinese people to realize their aspirations. When the Manchus had finally abdicated and peace was restored to the nation he would, he said, resign his provisional office.

The chairman of the delegates from the provinces then handed the new president the seal of office.

President Sun Yat Sen then delivered a lengthy address in the form of a proclamation. In this he announced that a new central government would be organized, the entire administrative system remodelled and modeled and a parliament representative of the people be elected. The president, he said, would be automatically selected as regards local affairs and would select his own governor. The army and navy would be made national institutions and be under the control of the central parliament, which would also deal with the finances of the country. The whole fiscal system would be re-adjusted, but he was sure the income of the country was sufficient to discharge its liabilities and to defray ordinary expenses.

New Constitution.

The constitution of the republican cabinet will be announced tomorrow. There is every probability that Li Yuen Heng, the republican commander-in-chief, will become vice-president, while General Huang Sing will be selected premier, and Dr. Wu Ting Fang will retain the portfolio of foreign affairs, which was handed to him at the time of the formation of the provisional cabinet.

President Sun yesterday morning held a reception for the principal generals in command of the revolutionary troops in Nanking, which will remain the seat of the provisional government for the present. It is possible that the capital will be afterwards changed to Wu Chang, but it is certain that Peking will not be selected.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—A message from Kalgan, in the Chinese province of Chi Li, says that the princes of Southern Mongolia who are loyal to the Laching dynasty, have resolved unanimously to support the Imperial government in fighting the Chinese revolutionaries. They say they will declare their independence in the event of the establishment of a Chinese republic.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—A news agency dispatch from Tien Tsin says that a strong movement exists among the Imperial government troops garrisoning Lanchow, in the province of Chi Li in favor of a republic. These troops form a very important portion of the Imperial army and were under the command of General Chang Shao Tsen, who was dismissed owing to the suspicions of his republican sympathies. The movement dovetails into a widespread conspiracy in Northern China to assist the Southern revolutionaries.

DEATH COMES TO OLD PROSPECTOR

LARGE SUM APPROPRIATED BY END IN HIS HOME NEAR PARKER, ARIZ.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 3.—John S. Jennings, for forty years a well-known desert prospector, perished in a fire that destroyed his little home near Parker Station yesterday. His charred remains were found when the fire burned itself out. He was 72 years of age, and is believed to have been the oldest miner and prospector on the desert.

I. W. W. TRY TO ESCAPE FROM IMPERIAL COUNTY JAIL

EL CENTRO, Jan. 3.—Fifteen I. W. W. men, held in Imperial county jail on charges of horse stealing, cattle rustling and robbing stores, tried to break jail here last night but the attempt was frustrated.

POSTMASTER CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

LARGE SUM APPROPRIATED BY MAN NOW UNDER ARREST IN IDAHO.

WARDNER, Idaho, Jan. 3.—W. S. Brainard, postmaster here, whose funds were reported $6762 short by the postoffice inspector last week, was arrested shortly after noon yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal William Schuldt of Lewiston, on the charge of embezzling postal funds.

FRANK D. QUILLICI SOLVES MYSTERY OF GREAT BEYOND

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Frank D. Quillici solved the Great Mystery that we must all solve when life's race shall have been run, his spirit passing to his Maker. Mr. Quillici has been an invalid for over two years, suffering from the dread disease of miner's consumption. He has been an honored resident of this state for the past 35 years, living in Eureka, Pioche, Delamar and Elko, coming to Tonopah about six years ago with his wife and two sons. At the time of his death he was in his fifth year, being born in Luca, Italy, coming to the United States when a mere boy. During his long residence in this state he was known for his honesty in all his dealings with his fellow man; he was one of those big hearted type of men that Nevada is noted for. It was a pleasure for him to do some charitable act that would gladden the heart of the needy and unfortunate. Every day in the press throughout the state death chronicles of the pioneer in this or that community is read, for they are fast passing away, one by one, and in the death of Frank Quillici another study pioneer, who did his life to build up this grand state of ours, which we all love so dearly, has passed out of existence.

Besides a brother living in Italy, the deceased leaves to mourn his demise a loving wife, two sons, Harry and Hugo, who were at his bedside when their beloved one passed away from them forever. This community has lost an estimable citizen, and in his death the populace of our city condole with the bereaved relatives in their great sorrow. The funeral will be held Friday from the residence in Bryan avenue.

ADMIRAL EVANS DIES SUDDENLY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3, 3:30 P. M.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who was commander of the battleship Iowa during the Spanish-American war, and who displayed ability as a seaman during the blockade at Cienfuegos, and after the Spanish ships had been located in Santiago bay, escorted Hobson to the point where the Merrimac was sunk in order to stop all escape of the Spanish battleships and who took such a prominent part in the battle that resulted in the undoing of the Spanish navy in Atlantic waters, and which resulted in the beginning of the ending of the war with Spain, dropped dead this afternoon just as he was entering the state capitol.

Heart disease is given as the cause of his death.

Read-Admiral Evans retired from the navy in 1908.

MEET NEXT MONDAY.

The state board of assessors are billed to meet next Monday. This meeting will undoubtedly prove of interest, as there is a long list of readjustments to be made in the assessment roll. It is likely that the assessors will be in session several days.

NEW McNAMARA MILL WILL START ON THE 10th INST.

Probably in a week hence—the 10th inst.—the stamps of the McNamara mill will begin dropping and from thence on that property will be added to the line of producers that are making history for Tonopah and making the camp one of the most famous in the world.

The last car of machinery for the new mill arrived in Goldfield yesterday; today it was landed on the sidetrack in Tonopah, and tomorrow it will be hauled to the McNamara ground, where a force of builders is waiting to put the various parts of the machinery in position.

It is estimated that four days will be necessary to accomplish the work, when a test run will be made. Probably two more days will be required to make adjustments and readjustments and then the plant will settle down to steady work.

It is the intention of the management to first put the surface dumps through the mill and these contain large quantities of high-class ore, and while this is going on the work of developing and blocking out will be carried on in the mine.

LABOR LEADERS SAY CLANCY HAS NO CONFESSION TO MAKE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Although expecting to be arraigned in the United States court here on a charge of complicity in an alleged national dynamiting conspiracy, three of the four labor leaders indicted Saturday apparently enjoyed their New Year's holiday.

Olaf A. Tveitmore of San Francisco, secretary-treasurer of the State Building Trades Council, left his hotel early and passed the day in a trolley trip to Mount Lowe. He was accompanied by several labor leaders of this city. Anton Johannsen, organizer of the same organization, and J. E. Munsey, secretary of the Iron Workers' Union of Salt Lake City, conferred briefly with Attorney Job Harriman.

With them at the conference were I. W. Cowles, an official of the Los Angeles County Carpenters' association, and E. J. Hendricks, president of the Los Angeles Building Trades Council. Johannsen sent several telegrams. One was to his wife at Corte Madera, stating he expected to return to his home there the latter part of the week. Others were said to be fellow union officials.

Munsey, after a talk with Job Harriman, spent most of the day with his wife and stepson, who came with him from Salt Lake City in response to grand jury subpoenas. Hendricks, who is expected to be called to testify when the grand jury resumes its sessions today, designated as lies the assertions that Clancy had confessed.

"Clancy has not confessed and will not confess," asserted Hendricks. "He has nothing to confess. Some people are starting the story hoping to have an effect on the others. They think the others will be scared and tell something, but they can't, for there is nothing to tell."

"I'll make a statement for you some day that will make people sit up and take notice. We are not asleep by any means. Attorney Harriman stated that counsel to aid

Says Wisconsin Man Could Not Be Elected--Also Says He is Not So Bad As Enemies Say He Is, Or As Good As He Says He Is.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 3.—Governor Chase S. Osborn, in a statement here yesterday, proposed that President Taft and Senator Robert M. La Follette both withdraw as presidential candidates in favor of Theodore Roosevelt or ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge. The governor had prepared a speech to this effect to be delivered in introducing Senator La Follette here. In view of the fact that the senator missed his train, Governor Osborn authorized the use of the speech as a statement of his views. Governor Osborn added:

"As between Taft and La Follette, I am for Taft."

Governor Osborn criticized Senator La Follette as having "taken up those things which might be termed popular that contained the least danger to himself," and frankly said that he did not believe Senator La Follette can be nominated for the presidency or elected if he were nominated.

Governor Osborn further said: "The Senator La Follette style of campaign tends to arouse the passions and make for a condition of public intolerance, which is always worse than personal or individual intolerance because it has so much more force."

"Senator La Follette's speeches and writings—and in this connection let me say that I have taken and enjoyed 'La Follette's Weekly' and I am a subscriber to it now—I do not think he distinguishes between honest men in big business and dishonest men."

"We have got to have big business in this country if we are to compete in the manufactures and transactions of the world. But big business should not be permitted to oppress the people."

him in the defense of Tveitmore, Johannsen and Munsey, and in all probability Clancy, had been determined upon, but he was not prepared to make public announcement of their names. His use of the word "they," speaking of additional counsel, gave strength to the rumor, however, that Le Compte Davis and Clarence S. Darrow, both of whom defended the McNamaras, will take part in the case.

MONTANA HAS NEW ORE BODY ON LOWEST LEVEL

During the past few days another strike of considerable magnitude has been made in the Montana mine; this time on the lower levels, on what is supposed to be the downward extension of the Macdonald ledge.

Where the crosscut passed through the ore body the latter showed a width of more than five feet, and none of the assays taken, report has it, show a value of less than $25 to the ton.

This is the second strike of importance that has occurred in the Montana within the last ten days, and both have tended to demonstrate the fact that as depth is attained in this property the ledges show increased strength and the ores are richer than in the upper levels.

LAUNDRY WORKERS STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Over two thousand laundry workers went on strike yesterday for increased wages and a nine-hour day.

Careful of His Own Interests.

"I have noticed also that while Senator La Follette did great work in ridding Wisconsin of corrupt railroad domination, he has never said anything against brewery domination in that state."

"What I wish to make clear about this statement is that the senator has taken up those things which might be termed popular and that contained the least danger to himself. Now this may be entirely unfair, but I have thought it and do think it still, and I wish to say it to you and to him face to face."

"I have known Senator La Follette and of him for 30 years and have followed his career always with interest and with varying degrees of admiration and approval."

"Right here let me state, so that there can be no misunderstanding about it, that if he is nominated (which at this moment I hope he will not be) I will give him my earnest and active support and will request my friends everywhere to support him with earnestness and devotion."

Governor Osborn then referred to suits brought some years ago in Wisconsin by the democratic administration against previous republican treasurers for interest on state deposits that had not been turned over to the state. "Senator Philatus Sawyer," said Governor Osborn, "had signed the bonds of one delinquent treasurer or more. The statement is made that he stood to lose several hundred thousand dollars if the state won. The story is that he offered to retain Senator La Follette as an attorney in the cases. Senator La Follette's story is that Senator Sawyer tried to bribe him. But Senator Sawyer was never prosecuted for bribery or cited in contempt and nothing was ever done."

EARLY MARRIAGE RUNS IN FAMILY

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 3.—Early marriage seems to run in the feminine ancestry and progeny of Mrs. Hazen Conklin of this city, who, at the age of 47 years, finds herself a great grandmother.

The fourth generation of the family, of which she is the maternal head, was born to her granddaughter, Mrs. Lydia Rauch, early yesterday.

Mrs. Conklin was married at Memphis, Tenn., when 14 years old, and in opposition to the wishes of her mother who, herself was no older when she married.

Mrs. Conklin's first daughter, Mrs. Mildred F. Ferguson, married at the age of 16, and now is a grandmother at 34. Her daughter, Lydia Rauch, married at 15.

JACK JOHNSON MAKES MATCH WITH FLYNN

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Terms are practically agreed upon for Jack Johnson to fight Jim Flynn for a $20,000 purse, training expenses, and a one-third interest in the moving pictures, but Johnson's manager says staging of the bout, scheduled for June or July in Nevada, near the Utah line, is somewhat contingent upon other contests Flynn has on hand.

FRENCH CHAMPION LOSES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Jack Denning, middleweight pugilist of this city, defeated Marcel Marceau, the French champion middleweight, in ten rounds.
