GOOD VALUES ARE OBTAINED ON LITIGATION HILL

PROPERTY AT MANHATTAN ON LITIGATION HILL HAS STRONG LEDGE

Special to the Bonanza
MANHATTAN, Aug. 17.—A strike of the first importance, though with values of a milling grade only, was made during the past few days in the lease of Dan Voidovi and "Dry Wash" Wilson on the Litigation Hill Merger. They have opened up four feet of ore from which pannings indicate a general value of $30 per ton, more or less.

For a long time Voidovi has been working there with a small force and a whim prospecting a ledge on a lime and schist contact 230 feet east of his shaft. This was reached by a cross-cut on the 150 foot level. East and west drifts have been driven and the ledge matter prospected diligently. A winze followed a stringer of ore that panned better than the rest down for several yards, revealing the present larger and better body of quartz.

Pannings indicate a coarser run of colors than from most Manhattan mines and they are strangely burnished to a reddish hue. Under a glass they sparkle like the stars. The extent of the shoot is wholly unknown as yet, though in length it has been opened for fourteen feet and its average width is as stated.

This is one of the very few quartz operations Mr. Wilson has tackled and his famous luck seems to be staying with him here.

The lease is the first one west of the Bath lease on the same property which is in a very high grade milling rock. The Voidovi and Wilson ledge is so far south as to be almost out of Litigation hill proper and under a gulch adjoining. It probably is an extension of the Earl ledge upon which sinking is about to be begun by S. H. Brady.

BLIND BILLY RETURNS TO HIS FORMER HOME

FORMER WELL KNOWN CHARACTER IN TONOPAH IS NOW VISITING RENO

Blind Billy Brooks, who was a familiar sight in Tonopah during the early days of this camp, and who has since been residing at Yerington, is in Reno, according to the Gazette, which has the following to say:

"Blind Billy," one of the well-known characters of the gambling days in Nevada, is in Reno again. No one knows him by any other name than that of "Blind Billy," but by that name he is well known from one end of the state to the other. During the days when gambling was carried on in this city and the tinkle of the piano could be heard in nearly every place on Commercial Row, "Blind Billy" always had a job, and a good one at that. He is blind and always has been, but he is an excellent musician. He can sit down at a piano and play anything from the music of Chopin to the modern ragtime and wherever Billy played he had an audience. This was what was needed in the gambling days—a man who could draw an audience about him and hold it. Then the crowd he entertained would gamble and the clink of the coin would mingle with the notes of the music.

In the gambling days Blind Billy was prosperous. He wore fine clothes and diamonds sparkled on his fingers and glowed from his necktie. But those days are gone.

Now Blind Billy is without a job. He can play as well as ever, but his clothes are old and worn and his diamonds are gone. His time of prosperity has declined, but he is the same old Blind Billy with a cheery hello for all of his acquaintances, and in Reno they are numerous.

He can wander along the street and recognize his friends by their voices, by their footsteps and by

MIZPAH HOTEL WILL OPEN UP FOURTH FLOOR

ENTIRE FIRST FLOOR OF BUILDING HAS BEEN REPAIRED DURING WEEK

The interior of the office and bar of the Mizpah hotel has been subjected to a complete renovating during the past week. The walls and ceiling have received fresh coats of kalsomine and the entire office interior is now spick and span, with the appearance of the hostelry greatly improved.

Manager Bob Goyan is now contemplating furnishing an additional story of the hotel, owing to the increase in business. The hotel has been filled to its capacity during the last two months and with the travel increasing daily the present accommodations are taxed to the limit.

RESIGNS AS CASHIER FIRST NATIONAL BANK

R. T. Harris, vice president and cashier of the First National bank of Tonopah, has tendered his resignation to the board of directors to take effect on January 1, 1913. Mr. Harris has been connected with the bank for the last five years and as soon as his resignation becomes effective he will move with his family to California, where he will make his future home.

O. J. Owey left for San Jose this morning where he will reside in the future.

their laughter. In the former days he had a large black dog to guard him on the streets and to keep him from wandering into danger and to be his friend and companion, but some rogue poisoned the dog and since then Billy has drifted around alone.

He says he is here looking for a job and that he intends to get one, even if there is no longer gambling and many places where a pianist is needed.

MANY NEW JERSEYITES VISIT WILSON HOME

SEA GIRT, N. J., August 17.—Today was New Jersey day and hundreds visited the Wilson home, where a reception was held on the lawn. Visitors of all kinds sold wares on the lawn. The women visitors were asked to join the women's Wilson and Marshall league of New Jersey.

---how much Is A "Regular Customer" Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who, for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your line at YOUR STORE?

What would each of these 100 customers be WORTH to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUSTOMERS through an advertising campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people ACQUAINTED with your store!
