WILL ATTEND ANNUAL MEETING STATE MEDICOS

DR. C. J. RICHARDS DEPARTS THIS MORNING TO BE PRESENT AT RENO SESSION
Dr. C. J. Richards departed for Reno this morning to be present at the annual meeting of the Nevada State Medical Association which convenes in that city tomorrow morning. The association will remain in session during the 8th, 9th and 10th.
Dr. Richards occupies the office of one of the councilors and is also scheduled to take part in several discussions. Dr. Masterson of this city is also scheduled to participate in the discussions, but as he is absent in the east taking a post graduate course, it is not known if he will return in time for the session.
After the session concludes its labors Dr. Richards will continue on to the coast for a brief visit with his family.

BOBBIE BOWERS MARRIED SATURDAY TO RENO GIRL
FORMER TONOPAH DRUGGIST FORSAKES THE LIFE OF A BACHELOR

Robert E. Bowers, a former Tonopah resident and well known in this city, was wedded in Reno several days ago to Miss Mabel B. Barker. During his residence in Tonopah Mr. Bowers was employed at Prouty's Union drug store. The Reno Journal in speaking of the wedding has the following:
The marriage of Robert E. Bowers, a popular clerk with the Cann Drug company, and Miss Mabel B. Barker of this city, was performed last evening by the Rev. W. D. Trout of the Congregational church at the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Otis in the Colonial.
The rooms were profusely decorated with white chrysanthemums and wild asparagus and a merry party helped celebrate the event. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bender, Mrs. G. Howard and Jas. Glynn Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Bowers will make their future home in Reno at 420 Thoma street.
As only news of real value-giving makes good store advertising, it follows that a store must be able to print such news, in abundance, if its advertising is to accomplish anything.

AMUSEMENTS
Butler Theater

The Butler theater has for its program this afternoon and evening the following program of pictures: "The Church Organ," an Essany drama of great interest; "Buster in Nodland," another of Lubin's great juvenile comedy pictures—a treat for the children; "The Arrow Maker's Daughter," a Pathe Indian picture; "A Double Courtship," a Lubin comedy, and an Edison feature drama entitled "In His Father's Steps," by Bannister Mervin. This is a dramatic story of the heart to pay rather than shatter the dreams of his loving father to whom he was indebted for his education. It is a simple story that touches. Tomorrow—Pathe Weekly of Current Events.
Next Thursday a special two-reel Kalem drama featuring the great base ball pitcher, Rube Marquard, throwing his great curves.
