BOXING CONTEST OF VOLUNTEERS THIS EVENING

NEPHEW OF AD WOLGAST WILL MAKE HIS DEBUT IN THE FISTIC ARENA TONIGHT

The Nevada theater will be the scene this evening of one of the best series of bouts staged in the camp. The volunteer fire department has charge and the entire proceeds will go to their funds which can send some enrichment. The boys have always been ready and willing to help others and now that they come to the front after a long interval it is only just that the public should respond with old-time cheerfulness.

The bill provides for the appearance of some of the best known boys in Tonopah in addition to the star event between Leonard Willis and George W. Braun, a well known and popular physical instructor, who will go ten rounds.

For the preliminaries Guy Ewing and Emil Feltman will appear in the welterweight class at 145 pounds. Frank Needer and George Lonus will score for the lightweight while Young Wolgast and Jim O'Connell, lads of 16, will be lively exponents of the manly art in the boys' class. It is not generally known that Young Wolgast is a real nephew of the famous Ad Wolgast, and is said to possess some of the family's pugilistic traits to a remarkable degree. This is his first appearance and Prof. Braun says he has a surprise for those who have followed the fistic dope as the little fellows are prepared to put up an exhibition that will bring down the house with applause.

Aside from the merits of the program the worthy cause should bring forth a large attendance at the scale of prices which have been arranged by the management. All ground floor seats will be held for $1 and gallery seats will go at 50 cents.

PERSONALS

Comings and Goings of Local People and Others.

ED ELFPORD, assayer of the Extension mill, after spending the last month on the coast, returned to Tonopah this morning.

DR. NESMITH of Round Mountain, who attended the meeting of the Nevada State Medical association at Reno, returned this morning and continued on to the northern camp.

ED F. LUNSFORD, city attorney of Reno, arrived from the north this morning and continued on to Manhattan where he will address the republican meeting to be held in that camp this evening.

A. S. WATSON, after spending several days in Tonopah, returned to Goldfield this morning.

A. M. PETERSON was a passenger aboard the Consolidated Auto company car for Manhattan this morning.

GEORGE B. THATCHER was a passenger for Goldfield this morning.

MRS. O. E. NORDAHL, and children have returned from Walley springs where they spent the last two weeks on a very pleasant vacation.

DR. GEORGE P. DEVINE, optometrist, motored over from Goldfield this morning with Matt Reddington at the wheel. He will remain here for several days and has taken rooms at the Mizpah.

E. A. McMURRAY of the Western Bridge company, Milwaukee, and Judge Houlahan of Goldfield came in this morning. Mr. McMurray is one of the heaviest investors in Tonopah mines, outside of the Philadelphia interests, and is likely to add to his holdings before he leaves for home. During the Merger excitement last summer he took an active part in buying stock all the way from $7 1/2 to $1.60 and something sensational is expected from his coming at this particular time.

FATHER FLYNN went over to Manhattan this morning and will celebrate mass there Sunday. He will return Monday.

SUPV. GUY MURPHY of the Gipsy Queen still suffers from the burns recently inflicted, the tendons in his hands are quickly as expected.

BOSTON WINS THIRD GAME

accept the discomforts of a long, cold and tedious waiting. When the teams appeared after a slight delay the crowd cheered itself hoarse.

The batteries were Marquard and Devore, Tesreau and Meyers. Speaker, the clever fielder for Boston, showed up in a limping condition but took his place with alacrity.

The lineup was unchanged except the batteries and the game began with a promptness which suggested fear of interruption by the impending storm. Game was called at 2 o'clock sharp, and it was a terrific pitchers' battle from the word go. The pitching was phenomenal. Attendance 35,000.

The game by innings: First inning—Both teams retired without scoring.

Second inning—The Red Sox came to bat with blood in their eyes eager to make up for the defeat of the previous day and retired with one run to their credit. This was made by Gardner.

Third inning—Sox none; Giants none. This tells the tale in a nutshell.

Fourth inning—The beansters scored one through a long slide by Stahl and the Giants failed to tally. The cheering grew intense and the Boston contingent began to be heard along the grand stand where it was fondly hoped the game would be another tally for the visitors.

Fifth inning—Neither side scored, Wood of Boston fanning out six to the dismay of the Giants.

Sixth inning—Neither side was advanced in this inning.

Seventh inning—The Giants made a valiant effort to avert defeat. The Sox passed the buck and Herzog scored on a double by Fletcher.

Eighth inning—Ames replaced Tesreau and the Sox blanked again and the Giants followed suit.

Ninth inning—Gardner scored on Wood and the Giants put up another balloon mark.
