AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater

At the Butler this evening the management has provided an excellent program of pictures. Four full reels will be shown as follows: "The Old Chess Players," a Lubin comedy drama; "The Shotgun Ranchman," an Essanay western drama; "A Motorcycle Adventure," a Selig drama, and a Vitagraph comedy entitled "An Elephant on Their Hands." Imbibing too freely, old Goodsport buys an elephant, takes it home and it takes possession. When he wakes up he tries to get rid of the thick-skinned brute and then the trouble and fun begin. The management of the Butler will have "an elephant on their hands" today. It will keep the house in an uproar of laughter, and we hope they will never get rid of it.

Next Wednesday, "Death Valley Scotty's Mine," with Walter Scott in the title role. Thursday, "Monte Cristo," a three-reel Selig drama.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT IS DATE FOR MUSICIANS' ANNUAL BALL

On Wednesday night the Musicians' union of Tonopah will give its seventh annual ball at the new Miners' Exchange hall. From reports received the advance sale of tickets has been heavy, which indicates that a record breaking crowd will be in attendance.

Certificates of location on sale at the Bonanza office.

TWO HORSES ARE TAKEN FROM BARN SATURDAY NIGHT

DAVID DONAHUE LOSES ANIMALS AFTER A BRIEF OWNERSHIP

David Donahue, who recently purchased a team of horses, awoke yesterday morning to find that someone had entered his barn and borrowed the two animals sometime Saturday night. The barn door was open as was the gate at the corral when Donahue visited the premises early Sunday morning, although both had been carefully shut and locked the previous evening.

The tracks of the horses were followed by the late owner as far as the Jim Butler dump but after reaching that point Donahue was forced to give up the search as the trail was obliterated. The matter was reported to Chief of Police Smith who is now on the lookout for the horses and also for the party or parties who are responsible for the theft.
