

BIG FOUR MILL AT MANHATTAN WILL BE PLACED IN OPERATION WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS

Special to the Bonanza MANHATTAN, March 1.—The Big Four mill will be put into operation within a few days. The big electric motors which had been on route from the east since January 6 arrived last Monday and are now being put in place and wired up. Practically every detail of preparing the mill for operation has been completed, and the power will be turned on some time during the coming week. There will be but little ceremony attending the starting of this new plant on the work of turning Big Four ore into bullion. L. K. Koontz, president of the company, will be here from Goldfield with a party of friends from that city, and a few prominent mining men from Tonopah will also probably be present, in addition to a number of Manhattan people who will witness the initiation of the mill.

The plant is a model one in every respect for handling the ore of this property, which is absolutely free-milling. The plant has a capacity of from 100 to 125 tons per day, the process consisting of crushing with a gyratory crusher, then the ore goes to a battery of ten stamps, three to two tube mills and two Atlas classifiers, and finally over two amalgamating tables, each 36 feet long. No cyanide will be used. When the mill is started, the working force in the mine will be increased to meet the demands of the mill for a large output of ore. During the past three months development work has been extended on various levels to block out ore, and a large tonnage has been broken and stored in stopes ready to be drawn out when needed. A raise has recently been completed from the 160-foot level to the surface to tap the big dump of ore that lies between the shaft and the mill, and this material will be drawn down through this raise and into a big stope between the 100 and 200-foot levels, and will be hoisted from the 200 and tumbled directly into the mill.

Another raise has been made from the 100 level west of the shaft to connect with an old incline shaft about 150 feet from the main shaft. This raise went up in a fine body of good ore, which will run from $20 to $50 per ton. A raise from the Joker tunnel has connected with some of the work on the 100 level, this also going up in a nice body of ore about 100 feet from the shaft.

General conditions throughout the mine are entirely satisfactory, and the mine is in shape to respond to the demands of the mill for a long time. It is estimated that the mill should turn out from $30,000 to $40,000 worth of bullion per month, basing the general break of the ore at about $10 per ton. Much of the ore will of course go considerably higher than this figure, but the average of the product will be a large tonnage of lower grade material than that mined and mixed with the higher grade.

Union No. 9 The Brady lease on the south half of the Union No. 9 of the Manhattan Dexter company is responding with a substantial output of good ore, and it has recently been making an improved showing. Development is being extended in various places to open additional ore, and good results are being attained. When a good pile of ore accumulates on the dumps it is sent to the Manhattan Milling & Ore Co.'s plant, which is owned by the same interests that control the so-called "Brady" leases on the Union No. 9, the Jumping Jack and the Manhattan Earl. With its own mill this syndicate is enabled to handle at a profit ore of a lower grade than the average lessee, and its three mining interests in connection with the mill make an excellent combination, together with the custom ore which the mill handles.

48 HOURS TO LEAVE TOWN IS FINAL EDICT

ARMY OF UNDESIRABLES ARRESTED THURSDAY NIGHT TOLD TO FLOAT

The population of Tonopah will take a decided drop today when six of our most conspicuous residents will take their departure for new fields. The sudden departures were occasioned by the action of Justice of the Peace Harry Dunsenath, who decreed that the city would be better off with the temporary reduction in population.

The six defendants arrested Thursday night by Chief of Police Evans on vagrancy charges, came up before Judge Dunsenath yesterday afternoon to face the charge. The defendants were charged with having lived off the earnings of women in the restricted district. The trials were not contested and at the end the court pronounced the defendants guilty and sentenced them to serve 90 days in the county jail. The execution of the sentence was suspended for 48 hours that the defendants be allowed an opportunity to leave town, and it is safe to predict that every one will be conspicuous by his absence when the time limit expires tomorrow afternoon.

THREE PERSONS INJURED

ANOTHER REALISTIC SCENE ADDED TO MOVING PICTURES OF TONOPAH DISTRICT

The life of a moving picture actor, especially the talent that is participating in the four-reel production that is being taken in Tonopah and which will show the industries of this region, is anything but easy, as was demonstrated yesterday. The accidents sustained by Arthur Bigelow, better known as Frank Ennow, and Mrs. Maurice Sullivan, were chronicled in yesterday's issue of the Bonanza, but a third accident occurred during the afternoon that made another realistic scene for the drama that runs through the entire length of the reels, in which Ambrose Murphy, who is backing the picture project, was the unwilling principal.

According to the scenario the heroine, Mrs. Maurice Sullivan, mounted on horseback, was carrying the mining locations of a valuable Tonopah property and was accosted by Murphy, also on horseback, who demanded "them papers." The heroine was to strike Murphy with the butt end of a heavy riding whip and he was to fall from the horse.

The scene was carried out in an excellent manner. Mrs. Sullivan came riding along and directly in front of the camera was accosted by Murphy. The demand was made for the papers. The refusal followed. Murphy attempted to secure the documents by force. Mrs. Sullivan struck him with the whip. And then a scene not rehearsed was recorded by the camera.

In falling from his mount, Murphy landed square beneath the horse's feet. The animal was startled by the sudden descent of the rider and started prancing about. One hoof fell on Murphy's forehead and opened a gash several inches in length and cut clear to the bone. With the blood streaming from the wound Murphy staggered to his feet. He retained his presence of mind and made an attempt to attack the woman. She gave him the merry "ha-ha" and fled in the direction of the recorder's office. The other members of the cast, who were onlookers in this scene cheered Murphy as long as he remained in the scene.

As soon as the scene was closed the acting was called off for the day and Murphy hastened to a physician's office where six stitches were taken in the wound. In the remaining part of the pictures he will appear decorated with a neat blood-stained bandage.

Frank Ennow, who was caught beneath his mount, when the animal turned a double somersault after stepping into a prospect hole filled with snow, did not suffer a fracture of the nose, as was first thought. However, he has a highly decorated optic as a result of the accident, but was not injured to such an extent that prevented his appearance in the scenes recorded today.

Charles A. Pryor, president and general manager of the Yale Feature Film company, who is directing the taking of the pictures, declares the scenes already produced are of an exceptional character and will create a sensation when shown to the public.

ORE SHIPMENTS RAPIDLY NEARING 12,000 TON MARK

OUTPUT OF TONOPAH MINES FOR THE PAST WEEK IS HIGHEST IN HISTORY

Ore shipments from the Tonopah mines are rapidly reaching the 12,000 ton mark weekly. Last week a total of 11,497 tons, with an estimated value of $241,352 was shipped. This week the mark is considerably higher, the total tonnage being 11,677 tons with an estimated value of $245,802.

The shipments for the week were divided as follows: The Tonopah Mining company sent to the mill 3300 tons, the Belmont 3789 tons, the Montana Tonopah 1038 tons, the Tonopah Extension 1110 tons, the West End 1955 tons, the MacNamara 550 tons, the Jim Butler 459 tons, the Tonopah Merger 225 tons and the Midway 150 tons.

PICTURES SHOW FULL TREATMENT TONOPAH ORES

FILMS ARE TAKEN THIS AFTERNOON SHOWING THE POURING OF SILVER BULLION

Moving pictures of the manner in which the silver bullion is handled, after being extracted from the ores of the Tonopah Mining company, were taken this afternoon at the huge 100-stamp plant of the Desert Power & Milling Co. The films, taken in connection with the pictures showing the industries of Tonopah, will show the molten metal as it is poured from the furnaces into moulds and will be followed by a scene showing huge stacks of silver bars ready for shipment to the mint.

The course of the ore, from the time it is extracted in stopes and drifts, until it emerges from the melting furnace, and assumes the shape of bullion bars, will be faithfully recorded in the films. Every detail of mining and milling will be secured, thus adding to the educational value of the pictures. To many, in the eastern states, who are unacquainted with the methods of up-to-date mining and milling, the films are expected to prove a revelation. Practically 10 miles of mining operations, together with the hoisting plants and mills, will be included in the four reels of pictures.

ATTEMPT TO REPEAL PUBLICITY BUREAU FAILS

MEASURE ORIGINATING IN THE SENATE MEETS DEATH AT HANDS OF ASSEMBLY

CARSON CITY, March 1.—When the Coryell bill came up for reconsideration in the assembly yesterday morning the bitterness engendered during the session of the preceding afternoon was still apparent. The debate waged fast and furious for nearly an hour before the final vote was ordered. The poll showed 25 yeas and 24 nays. Lacking a constitutional majority Assemblyman Gardiner of Washoe county changed his vote from yea to nay and gave notice of a reconsideration of the bill today. This action virtually disposes of the effort to repeal the publicity bureau act this session. Friends of the administration, no matter what the result of today's vote may be, claim they have enlisted sufficient support to prevent the passage of a repealing measure over the governor's veto in case a veto should become necessary.

CHARACTERISTICS OF POPULATION IN NEVADA IS SHOWN IN REPORT MADE PUBLIC BY GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The composition and characteristics of the population of Nevada, as reported at the 13th decennial census, are given in an advance bulletin soon to be issued by Director Durand of the bureau of the census, department of commerce and labor. It was prepared under the supervision of Wm. C. Hunt, chief statistician for population. Statistics of color, nativity, parentage, sex, citizenship, age, illiteracy, school attendance, marital condition, and dwellings and families are presented. They are grouped as follows: For the state and counties; for Reno, the only city of more than 10,000 inhabitants; and for Sparks, a city of 2500 inhabitants. A previous population bulletin for Nevada gave a number of inhabitants by counties and minor civil divisions, decennial increase and density of population, and the proportions urban and rural. That and the forthcoming bulletin cover all the principal topics of the population census except occupations and ownership of homes.

Color and Nativity The white population is divided into four groups: (1) Native, native parentage—that is, having both parents born in the United States; (2) native, foreign parentage—having both parents born abroad; (3) native, mixed parentage—having one parent native and the other foreign born; (4) foreign born.

Of the total population of Nevada, 35,326, or 43.1 per cent, are native whites of native parentage; 29,951, or 25.5 per cent, are native whites of foreign or mixed parentage; 17,799, or 22 per cent, are foreign-born whites; and 5,240, or 6.4 per cent, are Indians. The corresponding percentages in 1900 were 35.7, 27.7, 20.3 and 12.3, the proportion of native whites of native parentage having increased during the decade. In 1910 Chinese and Japanese each constituted 1.1 per cent of the population and negroes 0.6 per cent. By counties the percentage of foreign-born whites ranges from 12.9 in Churchill to 30.1 in White Pine, and the percentage of native whites of foreign or mixed parentage from 18.4 in Churchill to 41.3 in Storey.

Of the urban population, 49.8 per cent, approximately one-half, are native whites of native parentage; of the rural population, a smaller proportion, 41.8 per cent. The percentage of native whites of foreign or mixed parentage is 26 in the urban population and 25.4 in the rural; of foreign-born whites, 19.3 in the urban and 22.5 in the rural; all other classes combined, comprising negroes, Indians, Chinese, and Japanese, 7.8 in the urban and 10.2 in the rural.

Sex In the total population of the state there are 52,551 males and 29,324 females.
