Game Without Errors Keeps Enthusiasm Tense to Last Inning

"GUILTY" VERDICT OF JURY

LESS THAN AN HOUR TO DELIBERATE OVER THE EVIDENCE OF IONE ASSAULT.

The jury trusted with the hearing of the charges of felonious assault preferred against William T. Boyd, brought in a verdict of "Guilty-as charged in the information," after being out for a short hour.

After retiring it was evident that the jury was of one mind and that there would be no detention for the night in the beautiful rooms prepared by the county for stubborn jurors.

An informal canvass elicited the fact that the jury was anxious to go on record against the prisoner, whose case failed to present a single mitigating circumstance.

The jurors were of the opinion that the prosecuting witness would have been killed had it not been for the interference of the bartender. They were not in favor of any compromise verdict.

The penalty is from one to fourteen years and Judge Averill announced that he would pass sentence Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

TRADED MOTOR GOES TO SMASH IN TRIAL SPIN

BUZZ WAGON BLOWS UP AND SCARES A CROWD OF BOYS.

George Shields had a lively experience last Sunday when he sat behind a motor car that was new to him. This does not imply that the car was new in the sense of having emerged from the shops, but it looked good and George was happy.

They piled in and the machine got as far as Oddie avenue after a brisk spin from the east end, when something seemed to jar loose and the whole machine went into the air. For a few minutes the vicinity was filled with flying fragments of steel, broken rods and dislocated sections of the solar plexus of the dazed thingy until it seemed as though a foundry had been disseminated by an earthquake.

The live freight scattered around the corner and it was not until some minutes later that any of the crew mustered courage to inspect what was left of the machine. Now George wishes he had not traded his beautiful motorcycle for the four-wheeler.

HINDOO SOUGHT TO EXPLAIN A GIRL'S DEATH

GIRL WHOSE BODY WAS FOUND IN BAY, WEIGHTED DOWN, IS ROSA DOMINGO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—Rosa Domingo, 18 years old, was the young woman whose body, weighted with railroad iron and chains, was found last Saturday evening at the outer end of a 1900-foot pier at Stege, Contra Costa county.

The police are seeking a Hindoo known as Said Ali Khan, and Musa Khan, roommate of Said Ali Khan, is in custody upon suspicion of having a guilty knowledge of the girl's death.

Said Ali Khan quit his employment last Thursday and has not since been seen at Stege. He told several of his fellow workmen that he intended to visit a sick friend at San Jose.

Evidence now in possession of the police tends to show that as late as last Sunday Khan visited Rosa Domingo at her room in a lodging-house at 82 Perry street, this city, and pleaded with her to go to Stege and live with him. After Khan had left the house the Domingo girl approached the landlord of the lodging-house, William A. Behne, and tearfully told him that she feared Khan would kill her if she did not do as he wanted.

Rosa was last seen at the Perry street house in this city on Wednesday morning. When she left her room she did not take any of her clothing or other personal belongings.

In the visit of Khan to Rosa in this city last Sunday the receipt of the letter from Rosa by her sister Mary on Tuesday, the departure of Rosa from her lodgings on Wednesday morning, and Khan's quitting his employment at Stege on Thursday, is said by the police to accord with the evidence discovered at the scene of the murder.

The girl's body was weighted down with chains, with a twenty-five-foot length of light railroad iron, and with a metal tube used in testing dynamite caps. Examination of the surface of the pier has shown that the iron rail probably was dragged from land to the outer end of the pier.

On a bench at the outer end of the pier the police found blood stains. The tops of two piles at the outer end of the pier were found to bear marks indicating that the railroad iron had first been rested on them and then shoved over into the bay.

It was disclosed by the autopsy made by Coroner C. L. Abbott, Dr. L. A. Martin and Deputy Coroner E. B. Smallwood at Richmond that the Domingo girl had been beaten to death with a heavy, jagged instrument. Her face and lips were gashed, one eye was all but gouged out and her breast bore several ragged wounds.

Dr. Martin said that the immediate cause of the girl's death was strangulation. There was plain evidence, he said, that in addition to the terrible beating she received, the girl had been choked into unconsciousness and death.

RICH STRIKE REPORTED ON COPPER LOCATION

It is reported that a very rich strike of gold ore has been made in the vicinity of the Bigot Brothers' copper location in Jacks Valley. The ground is under lease by E. B. Yerington, who has been prosecuting prospecting work for some time.

It is stated that there is a well defined ledge and assays taken ten feet apart each give values better than $200 to the ton. Development work will be carried on with vigor and from indications something good has been uncovered in this mineralized zone, which it is hoped will hold out and prove better as work is extended.

If it's of exceptional value at the price, it's sure to be advertised in the Bonanza, else the merchant would be hopelessly unprogressive.

GEDDES GETS DIVORCE FOR DESERTION

TELLS COURT WIFE REFUSED TO LEAVE NEW YORK AND LIVE IN CAMPS.

C. W. Geddes, a mining engineer with an international reputation, whose work has carried him to remote parts of Mexico, Central America and Canada, as well as to all the big mining districts of the United States, was granted a divorce in the Reno district court by Judge Harwood on grounds of desertion. His wife, Agnes Geddes, did not appear, but was represented by counsel.

Geddes said his wife has refused to accompany him to mining districts and has remained in New York since their marriage. She visited him for six weeks while he was in Mexico and lived for a short time at Goldfield. The plaintiff said that for the last 29 years he has engaged in mining engineering work. In the spring of 1907 he came to Goldfield to make a report on the Goldfield Consolidated property. He remained 18 months, and spent the next three years in Mexico and Central America. In 1911, Geddes said, he went to Canada and worked at Porcupine, Cobalt and Toronto. Returning to New York, he remained until the middle of May, 1912, when he left for Nevada, after telling Mrs. Geddes that he could not make a living in New York.

Mrs. Geddes always refused to accompany him, saying that she would not leave New York. Geddes said that his wife never made any complaint about his treatment of her and was satisfied with the way he provided for her. She is living in New York, alone, now, he said. Geddes said he pleaded with his wife and wrote to her very often asking her to accompany him on his trips to mining districts. Last August, he said, he wrote to her and asked her to come to Nevada. They were married at Baltimore in 1893.

BLUE BULL HAS A GOOD STREAK OF PAY ORE

ASSAYS SHOW SIX TO FOURTEEN INCHES AVERAGING $15 TO $45.

Rumors to the effect that pay ore had been found on the Blue Bull property are substantiated by an official statement of the company. The reports of assay values have been grossly exaggerated. Mr. A. H. Howe has given out the following statement:

"For the past two weeks we have had a pretty good streak of ore in the Blue Bull in a cross-cut on the 500 level, running from 6 to 14 inches in width and giving assays from $15 to $45 per ton. The values have been principally in gold, although the ore carries some silver and copper. This showing is being systematically and vigorously developed by drifts and raises.

"The cross-cut on the 700-foot level has entered a vein, which may be the Victor vein, which was the original objective of our operations. The cross-cut has not yet passed through the vein and it is not possible to make any statement of conditions on this level until much more development has been performed.

"The indebtedness of the company has been reduced from $18,000 to $5,000, and we have in the treasury approximately $15,000. At the present rate of our development expenses it will probably not be necessary to levy another call for five or six months."

TAKE A LEASE ON GROUND IN AURORA CAMP

HEAD OF THE STATE POLICE TO BEGIN WORK NEXT SPRING.

Captain Donnelly and associates of this city have taken a lease on a promising block of mining ground at the old camp of Aurora, which is now being revived with great promise for a bright future, says the Carson News.

Captain Donnelly and his associates will not begin work on their holdings until spring, at which time the new mill now under course of construction will be ready for the ores.

The ground that has been leased is in good location, has been opened for a considerable extent and the lessees know just about what they have to work on, as considerable ore is already blocked out and the project is not like prospecting for a new discovery, therefore not attendant with the uncertainties of entirely new ground.

Aside from work and further developing what they now have, a plan for prospecting will also be carried out. Old Aurora promises to be one of the live camps next season and many Carsonites are interested in mining properties and other ventures out that way.

HOSPITAL SOLD BY MINERS

MINERS VOTE TO ACCEPT PROPOSITION OF THE TONOPAH MINE OPERATORS.

By a referendum vote of 177 for and 105 against, the Tonopah Miners' union decided to accept the offer of the Mine Operators' association to buy the union hospital for the sum of $7500. Polls were open from noon yesterday and until the last member had voted, and, as the vote shows, the sentiment was generally in favor of releasing the buildings to the new ownership.

The result of the vote will be reported to the trustees of the hospital at their next meeting and then these gentlemen will notify the operators and a date set for the formal transfer of the property. Until the transfer is effected all plans for improvements are held in abeyance.

STORM DAMAGE NOT SO GREAT AS ANTICIPATED

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS SUFFICIENT TO MAKE ALL NECESSARY IMPROVEMENTS.

The county commissioners enjoyed a short session this month in spite of the number of road bills that were expected to occupy most of the time. It developed that the storm damage was not nearly as bad as apprehended and that the total loss will be easily covered by $1000.

The worst section is around Cloverdale, where the cloudburst from Peavine creek left the trails in bad shape. Fortunately there is not much travel in this direction and the county will make temporary repairs. In the Willow Creek district, where it was expected the damage was serious, the roads have been brought back to condition with a relatively small outlay.

As proof of the fact that no further work is needed in this quarter, Chairman Davis cites the case of Wittenberg's teams having brought in 32,000 pounds of ore from Willow Creek, or a ton to the animal, which is regarded as pretty good hauling.

Residents of the Duckwater country petitioned for the appointment of Owen Czarria as road supervisor. The appointment will be made.
