AMUSEMENTS

PASTIME THEATER

Resplendent with atmosphere, replete with stage settings, the story of "His Neighbor's Wife" last night set forth a beautiful compliment to the talent and art of Lillie Langtry. Attention to detail is an asset to a very splendid ceremony in which the situations are truly appealing. "David Garrick" in a three-part story has a message of human character and common sense.

The story is of historical note, and breathes the mistake of moral weakness. Tonight the program will be repeated. Ray McGuirk will be heard in special music features. Tomorrow a program of a better than best sort.

BUTLER THEATER

At the Butler this evening an exceptionally strong program will be shown. The pictures are as follows: "The Sentimental Sater," a Biograph drama; a Vitagraph split reel showing "The Perplexed Bridegroom," a comedy with Maurice Costello, and "Decoration Day at the Old Soldiers' Home," and a two-reel Edison, "Rorke's Drift." Richard Ridgely produces this two-reel story of the Zulu war in which Richard Tucker has the lead. The production was made in the South, as is evident from the backgrounds. Many men are engaged in the battle scenes, to the photographing of which much film is devoted. The pictures will appeal to those with a fondness for the spectacular.

Tomorrow, "Through the Storm," Essany two-reel; "Thor, Lord of the Jungles," a three-reel Selig animal picture. Satterlee, the pedestrian who is walking from coast to coast, will arrive here in time to fill an engagement at the Butler theater tomorrow evening. He does a contortionist stunt, improvises a monologue and delivers a lecture.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB

The University of Nevada Glee Club has been in existence now for three years. The club was organized with but eight members who could sing. Since then more and more men have been found over the state who have pleasing voices and they have been attracted to the university by the singing organizations there.

Some of the live members of the university thought that the university would not be a real university without all the organizations that belong to a university. So they have been keeping at the singing organizations until now there is a men's glee club of 17 members. They can all sing, too, as has been proven by the enthusiasm with which they have been received at the various towns where they have already shown. It is true that it is difficult to choose 17 men out of as small student body as there is at the Nevada University who can sing. But this matter has been done. Dr. Haseman, the club's
