BODIES OF AUTOMOBILE VICTIMS TAKEN TO LAST RESTING PLACES

hearts of the families, friends and relatives of the departed are wrung with sorrow and souls are heavy with the great loss; I say, in hours of this kind consolation can be brought to those who are left behind, the great multitude assembled in reverence and sorrow on this occasion must bring consolation to the bereaved. I know of nothing greater or better that can be said of the departed than to use that great and comprehensive expression of the west—"In life they were all squares."

Charles S. Sprague, past exalted ruler of Goldfield lodge No. 1072, B. P. O. E., after paying a tribute to the personal qualities of Dr. Wheeler and Cyrus Rice, closed as follows:

"I have in my hand a sprig of amaranth and ivy; the amaranth, because of its unfading nature, symbolical of immortality; the ivy, the floral token of friendship, with us, of brotherly love. As an evidence of our faith in the immortality of the soul and our love for our brothers, in behalf of our lodge, I place them upon their caskets. Departed brothers, may you spend an eternity of bliss in the presence of the Exalted Ruler of All. And as the great heart of Elkdom is broader than the confines of our order, I also place the amaranth and ivy upon the caskets of these our other friends. May peace be with you. Hail and farewell!"

Judge J. A. Sanders, of Tonopah, in voicing the sentiment of the sister camp, touched a responsive chord and brought tears to many eyes with a few pathetic references that differed from the expressions of the preceding speakers to a degree that spoke of spontaneity and deep personal sympathy. He said:

"You are a patient people; a long suffering people; brave and courageous, and there are none better able to withstand the grief of so terrible a shock as you, the friends and brothers of the deceased. We, of Tonopah, come not here to praise your honored dead or offer tribute to their high standing as men and fraternal brothers, but we come bearing a message of sympathy to you from all the people of your sister camp in this the sad hour of your bereavement. As fathers spoke in words of praise and love of the life and character of your departed citizens a thought occurred to me that the point of the fatal accident on the road between here and Tonopah would serve to the people of these communities as a new sign board on the desert, pointing the way to a new and different camp. Some of us have walked and others thought they were flying while passing over this well beaten road, but never again can any of us pass without noticing this sign and stop, look and listen. Stop to mingle higher and nobler aspirations with the material thoughts; look to see the dangers along the road and listen for the voices that are stilling of our deceased brothers.

"They had been especially equipped just a few hours before in the Knights of Pythias castle hall for their journey to this new and undiscovered camp, and as we of Tonopah are now passing over the road we stop to drink with you from your cup of sorrow and join with you in the blessed assurance that these brothers are on the way wrapped and clothed in the spirit of true fraternalism.

"God bless you all."

The pallbearers were chosen from among the members of the various fraternal orders with which the deceased men were affiliated. They followed:

Body of Dr. Wheeler—A. S. Olds, Mason; Joseph Hamilton, Mason; A. Mills, Woodman; Mike Cabalan, Elk; L. L. Dillinger, K. of P.; William Hatheral, K. of P.

Body of Cyrus Rice—G. R. Church, Mason; Harry Mason, Elk; William Nelson, Odd Fellow; Walter Drabnick, Elk; Frank Hammill, Moose; Harry Ernest, K. of P.

Body of Herman Krieger—J. A. Cody, Eagle; Emory Arnold, Eagle; William Book, Moose; Roy F. Gard, Moose; J. Carmichael, K. of P.; J. F. Vardaman, K. of P.

Body of Daniel Falvey—Oscar Steinman, Eagle; Neil Bertrandis, Eagle; Thomas Maroney, Eagle; George A. Coffey, K. of P.; E. P. Cooke, K. of P.; Louis Bannister, K. of P.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the four men met their death through an automobile accident. The witnesses were: A. H. Howe, Munro Brown, Ernest Weyle, Walter Norris, Dr. J. L. McCarthy, Milton Detch, Louis Bannister and William Houck. The jurors who presided were: Tom D. Murphy, Charles Roberson, John F. Vardaman, Jake Goodfriend, I. M. Healy, John Hagel.

MINER SUSPENDED BY A BELL ROPE FOR ONE HOUR

GRASS VALLEY, June 12.—His hand caught between the pulley and the bell rope, William Harvey, a miner, lay alongside the track in the shaft of the Golden Center mine for more than an hour yesterday afternoon, in a vain attempt to attract someone to extricate him from his painful position.

Harvey was riding the truck alone. As he reached out to grab the bell rope his hand caught in the pulley and he was jerked from the car. Unable to release himself he threw his handkerchief with his free hand on an up-going truck. This failed to bring help and on the next truck going up he sent his hat, but the hat came down again and no help was forthcoming. Finally someone discovered something wrong with the bell rope and Harvey's father, foreman at the mine, discovered him in his distressing posture, his hand cut and bruised and almost twisted out of shape.

CHANCE FOR AN HONEST MAN TO DO A KINDNESS

A young miner came to the office of the Bonanza this morning with a story told in a few words that represented an entire month's wages thrown away in the dust. After cashing his paycheck yesterday he tied the roll with a piece of string and thrust the wad containing $125 in his trousers pocket. Last night on returning home he discovered the money was gone. The wad had slipped through a hole which he did not know existed. He is willing to pay $15 reward, as he realizes that if the money comes into the hands of an honest man the finder will be perfectly willing to return it to the owner without expecting any compensation. If the money is picked up by a dishonest man the owner feels that he will not receive it under any circumstances.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Fraternal Order of Eagles. His virtues we will ever treasure; his faults we have forgotten. In memory of BROTHER B. E. KEANE, Who died June 6th, 1914.

Once again the Supreme Ruler of the Universe has summoned through death a Brother Eagle from the labors of the aerial to the joys of the beautiful aerial beyond. He has completed his labors in helping his brethren to relieve the cries of the distressed, and to minister at the bedside of the sick. As a recompense for his service he has received the plaudit "well done" from the Great Father.

And whereas, The all-wise and merciful Father hath called our beloved and respected brother home;

And whereas, He having been a true and faithful brother of our order, therefore, be it

Resolved, That Round Mountain Aerie No. 1799, F. O. E., of Round Mountain, Nev., in testimony of our loss tender to the family of the deceased brother our sincere condolence in this deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

W. J. CURRIE, W. R. SOUTHWELL, T. M. BYRNE, Committee.
