THEY ALL PLAYED TO BEAT THE BAND

Nobody who is band shy should have ventured on Main street last evening. At intervals of a block apart three bands were playing merrily, musically and simultaneously, with the sidewalk throngs circulating between, or rather, among them, while nearly every auto in the city squirmed in and out of the near-blockade. In front of the Elks' home the Tonopah Military band gave its usual Sunday evening concert, the hour being advanced in order that church services might be attended later. At the intersection of Brounger avenue with Main the Dixie minstrels gave a number of selections, while further down the street a concert was given by the Big Casino band.

MEXICANS DEFEATED BY YAQUI INDIANS

(By Associated Press.) NOGALES, June 21.—The Mexican soldiers sent to protect the foreigners in the Yaqui valley were defeated by the Indians. One report of the battle is that the Mexicans lost 25 men, and another 40.

BRATTON WILLING TO FIGHT MOORE

LOCAL BANTAM WEIGHT ISSUES DEFI

SHOWS BY RECORD THAT HE IS NOT A PICKER OF LEMONS

Editor Bonanza, Sir:—Jack Bratton, the local featherweight, expresses himself as greatly displeased over the way the sporting editor of the Goldfield Daily Tribune has treated him since his fight with Moore. Jack can't understand why his ability should be judged on that one fight. One article in the Tribune stated that Bratton had been "picking lemons." "If they accuse me of picking lemons," said Jack, "they should refer to my dog's book. Then they will admit that there are very few lemons among the boys I have met and they will soon admit that I have fought some of the best in the game. Is Ralph Guinan a lemon? He beat boys like Solly Salvatore, Johnny O'Leary and many stars in California. I knocked Guinan out in one round and then I simply did what I had often done before. "I have stopped many men bigger than myself. Fitzsimmons was another boy I beat and the record book will tell you that he held Kid Williams, our present bantam champion of the world, to a draw. Then some boys like Charles Givney, Dunning Thomas, Joe Conley, George Hall and many others who had never been stopped until they met me. This boy Dick that I stopped so easily here two months ago, had always been called a tough nut. He met Roy Moore several times and held the latter to as good as even every time. He also defeated Eddie Campie, who is considered in the east as the cleverest bantam of them all. I stopped him with out even as much as getting started. Out of the big crowd that attended my fight with Moore, there is not a level-headed sport who will not admit that I was not badly fouled, not in one round, but all through those ten long rounds. I did not want to win on a foul and that is why I refused to take the fight when it was offered to me in the fourth round. "I am anxious to fight Moore again. My challenge issued the day after the other fight shows this. I hope we are matched in the near future and that Moore will fight clean. If he does I can assure the public that I will meet him every inch of the way. I am ready and have been to put up my money. This is no bluff talk."

NEARLY HUNDRED MINERS TRIBUTING

TWO HUNDRED TONS A WEEK EXTRACTED

GETTING NEW MIDWAY SHAFT READY TO RESUME SINKING

The old workings of the Midway Consolidated Mining company may well be likened to an ant's nest for activity and manner in which operations are carried on. Ninety-three leasers were at work yesterday on and above the fifth level. Some were doing dead work and others had faces of ore, but the majority were following small but enriched stringers, saving carefully every particle that showed the black sulphides and hoping that every round would bring an enlarged body. This work is very skillfully done and is affording better results than it would if done on company account. The leasers are taking out an average of 200 tons of ore a week and the grade is excellent, being above the milling average for the camp. At the new shaft the compressor was put in position several days ago, but it was deemed expedient to make the foundation more substantial, because the heavy machinery is not on permanent ground, but is located on the dump. Considerable more concrete work must be done before the plant will be ready to begin operations.

Al Thackery—Two certificates of location, Lulu and Big Casino lode claims, Volcano mining district. M. L. AMUSEMENTS

AIRDOME The program for today consists of a two-reel Keystone comedy, "The Home-Breakers," dealing with the experiences of some men and their vacuum cleaner. It's a scream, don't miss it. "The Highbinders" is a two-reel Majestic drama of oriental life. "How Jim Won His Girl," a single reel comedy, completes the program. Tomorrow, "The Castle Ranch" in two reels. On next Saturday evening the Airdome holds its first costume dance, when prizes will be given for the best ladies and best gent's costumes, also for the most comic dress, so prepare ye for that night of fun, June 26th, when the Airdome will ring with music and laughter and you can't help but laugh, so prepare ye.—Adv.

PASTIME THEATER

A great Paramount picture, "The Country Mouse," will be shown at the Pastime today, with Adele Farrington in the title role. It is a rippling comedy, replete with stirring social and political scenes, a typical drama of love, politics and the home-making of a statesman—the awakening of a woman. A country wife whose husband has been elected to the legislature, feels "out of tune" in her new surroundings at the capital, while her husband takes very naturally a capital society. She calls to her aid a modiste who helps her to get the right clothes and make herself fashionable. The result is, she becomes one of the leaders of the fashionable set, and her husband, instead of feeling ashamed of her, is immensely proud of his beautiful and cultured wife. Tomorrow "The Love Liar," being the fourth in the "Who Pays" series of dramas, featuring Ruth Roland and Henry King. Each of these intensely interesting dramas is complete in itself. Also a three-part special feature.—Adv.

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight at the Butler a six-reel feature program will be shown consisting of Pathe Weekly of current events, with interesting scenes from all over the world, and one of the best five-reel features that has ever been shown in this theater. It is a stirring production of Robert W. Service's great poem classic, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," with the powerful dramatic star, Edmund Breece, in the leading role. Edmund Breece has written more than sixty poems of the northland, all of which are in book form and have received wide publication. Service is known as the American Kipling. In "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," by far the most gripping traces

PERSONAL

HARRY R. GRIER, wife and son, departed today for San Francisco. Mrs. Grier and the boy will remain there for a couple of months. D. ASPLAND, general agent for the Tonopah and Tidewater railroad, arrived on today's train and will remain here a week on company business. CHAUNCEY SMITH, former superintendent of the Tonopah public schools, was a passenger this morning for Berkeley, Cal., where he will attend the summer school of the University of California.

MEDICOS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION

(Continued from Page 1) during the last generation for the prevention of disease and the prolongation of human life. He reported that Dr. Charles V. Chaplin, commissioner of health of Providence, R. I., had, as the special representative of the council, visited and inspected the boards of health in all of the states and had prepared a report as a basis of standardizing and classifying their work. He said a similar study of federal and municipal health activities was being planned. The secretary of the association, Dr. Alexander R. Craig of Chicago, reported that the membership had increased from 72,235 in 1914 to 76,020 this year.

GALLERIES RECEIVE BEQUESTS

(By Associated Press.) DUBLIN, June 21.—It is announced that the bulk of the state of Sir Hugh Lane, the wealthy Irish art expert who was lost on the Lusitania, is bequeathed to galleries in Dublin and London. The principal items in the estate are the collections of paintings. From this great writer's pen, Mr. Service tells a story, weaves a romance, pleads a cause, and lastly, as a denouement, constructs the most powerful document in his career. The final paragraph in which Dan McGrew is killed affords Edmund Breece a magnificent opportunity for his dramatic ability. To make the picture more interesting, this poem will be recited from the stage just before the picture appears on the screen. It will be something new, and adds greatly to the strength and interest of the picture. Tomorrow, "Exploits of Elaine," Wednesday, Andrew Mack in "The Ragged Earl"—five reels.—Adv.
