NEV.-CAL. POWER CO. INSURES EMPLOYEES

GENEROUS GIFT SUPPLEMENTED BY ARRANGEMENTS FOR A BENEFIT FUND

A most acceptable holiday gift has been made by the Nevada-California Power company in the form of a life insurance policy upon the life of each of its several hundred employees—each policy being for the sum of $1000. These policies are issued by one of the oldest and strongest of the eastern companies (the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States), and the premium upon each policy will be paid and the policies kept in force at the sole expense of the power company and without cost to the employee.

Coincident with the announcement of this generous gift, the Nevada-California Power company and its associate companies operating in Nevada and California, have established a plan by which the employees of these companies will, from the beginning of the new year, maintain a hospital or sick benefit fund for the care and treatment of employees, who from time to time, shall suffer illness or personal injury not sustained by accident arising out of and in the course of their employment. This means that the benefits to be had by employees from the use to be had by employees separate from the benefits conferred by the Nevada industrial insurance act and by the workman's insurance and safety act of California. To maintain this fund a nominal monthly contribution is made by each employee, (depending upon the amount of monthly salary and in no case exceeding $1), and this contribution entitles each regular employee to receive medical and surgical treatment, and hospital care if necessary, including medicines (other than patent or proprietary), in case of sickness or injury; the amount in each case being limited to $250. The creation of this fund is for the sole use and benefit of the employees, and the custody and administration of the fund will be entirely separate from the business of the company, but the company will co-operate by supplying its facilities and the services of its officers to look after the general details of administration.

CRACKER JACK TO BE REORGANIZED

COMPANY THOUGHT TO HAVE GOOD CHANCES FOR OPENING PAY ORE

A reorganization of the Cracker Jack Mining company is now being effected, with the object of bringing about the thorough development of the property, situated in the northern part of the district. The company has been inactive for several years, owing to the lack of funds with which to carry on development work, and in order that funds may be obtained to make the stock assessable, says the Tribune.

The new company will be known as the Reorganized Cracker Jack Mining company and the number of shares will remain the same as before, 1,500,000, but their par value will be 10 cents, instead of $1 as formerly. This reduction in par value has been made in order to cut down the heavy expense imposed under the emergency revenue tax.

BASKETBALL CONTEST AT AIRDOME TONIGHT

Tonight the basketball fans of Tonopah will be treated to another good contest when the fast quintet from Goldfield meets the local squad in their third contest of the season at the Airdome court. So far Tonopah has won one game and Goldfield has been equally fortunate, therefore the game this evening should determine which of the two teams is the best.

Goldfield will have several new men in her lineup that have never appeared in southern Nevada before and while the local boys are confident, Goldfield may spring a "black horse" or two who will be able to turn the table on Tonopah. Goldfield has never won a game of basketball on a Tonopah floor and Tonopah has not defeated Goldfield in her home town for seven years, when in the year of 1908 Tonopah slugged her way to victory in a game which resembled a "battle royal" more than a scientific sport. The lineup which appeared in yesterday's paper will be used this evening with no changes.

The preliminary game will start promptly at 8:30 p.m., snow or hail. The admission will be 25 cents to all, and a dance will be tendered the visiting team after the game. We cordially invite all to come and root for the Tonopah team, thus helping them to score another victory over her old rival, Goldfield.

ROGERS PLANS MATRIMONY

Thomas Rogers, the undertaker at Manhattan, today obtained a marriage license to marry Hannah C. Harrell, whom he met at the depot this morning upon her arrival from San Francisco. Even with the license in his pocket, he solemnly denied that he had any intention to commit matrimony, making the assertion so solemnly that he almost believed it himself, but by this time he has probably gone and done it.

NEVADA'S SILVER SERVICE

County Clerk Robert Pohl today received a communication from Governor Boyle to the effect that arrangements were being made for the itinerary of the silver service to be presented to the Battleship Nevada, and that as soon as the program was arranged, Tonopah would receive notice of the date, at least a week in advance, so that preparations can be made to receive it with fitting ceremonies.

A CHRISTMAS REMINDER

The Bonanza is in receipt of one of the menus of the Riverside hotel at Reno on Christmas day. It is probably the most elaborate work of printer's art ever turned out for such a purpose, and if ever a better Christmas dinner was ever served in the state, Captain Gosse should be told who did it.

EXAMINING VENIREMEN

Slow progress is being made in securing a jury for the trial of W. W. Booth on the charge of criminal libel. Examination of veniremen is going on before Judge Walsh in the district court. Thus far ten veniremen have been temporarily passed.

MANY LEASERS SHIPPING FROM BULLION DISTRICT

The Bullion mining district is one of the most active camps in Eastern Nevada. Seven different leasers on the Nevada-Bunker Hill property are shipping ore. Among these are the Grant lease, the Key lease, the Burke lease, the Sky Blue lease, the Dunn lease, the Storm King lease and the Elk lease. Over nine carloads of ore are on the dumps waiting to be hauled to the railroad and we are informed that a couple more of big teams could secure contracts—Elko Independent.

JURY DRAWN FOR ZEB KENDALL CASE

In the district court Monday morning the hearing of the report of the receiver for the Nye and Ormsby bank was continued until January 6, 1916.

An order was made confirming the sale of realty of the Robert Logan estate, says the Appeal.

A venire of jurymen was drawn to try the case of Kendall versus the State of Nevada.

The Chinaman's Wardrobe.

In "Home Life in China" Isaac Taylor Headland tells the following story to illustrate the conveniences of the Chinese costume:

A Chinese government representative who was new to American ways came to the home of an eminent New York banker for a week's visit. It was winter, but he came without luggage, and yet every day he appeared at dinner with a change of garments. At first his hostess wondered how he managed it, but soon she discovered that his body was his trunk and that instead of putting his clothes into his trunk he put his trunk into his clothes. His garments were like the layers of an onion, except that any layer might be worn on the outside, and as some of his gowns—for such they might be called—were of silk, lined with fur, or fur, lined with silk, he could wear them either side out at will.

A Rare Bird.

The lowest form of bird life which exists is believed to be the kiwi, or Apteryx mantelli, of New Zealand. It is so scarce, however, that scientists consider themselves lucky to get a specimen in any condition. It is without wings or tail; its legs are short, but very strong, and are used for digging. The chief food of the bird is earthworms. The body covering is a cross between hair and feathers. The kiwis develop great speed and make a desperate fight when attacked. A peculiar characteristic is that during the day they conceal themselves under rocks or roots of trees and when at rest resemble to some extent a hedgehog when it is curled up. Efforts to breed them in captivity have utterly failed, and only a few museums can boast of specimens.

Explained.

When he came in late he said to his waiting wife, "See the nice present I brought you."
"Where is it?"
"Here it is. A point lace handkerchief."
"Oh, ain't it beautiful!"
"Yes, it cost a dollar, marked down to 50 cents."
"My, what a horrible odor!"
"Oh, that's the scent off the dollar!"

Chesterfield on Dress.

"When you are once well dressed for the day," wrote Chesterfield, "think no more of it. Always and without any stiffness or fear of discomposing that dress let all your actions be as easy and natural as if you had no clothes on at all."

Long and Short of it.

"Mr. Blinks," said she, "do you think that anticipation is greater than realization?"
"Well," replied Mr. Blinks, "anticipation is broader and higher, but realization is longer and flatter."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ART FRAZIER DIES IN A RENO HOSPITAL

POPULAR YOUNG MAN OF TONOPAH SUCCUMBS TO STOMACH TROUBLE

J. A. Frazier, known to his friends as "Art," died yesterday in a hospital in Reno. He was taken ill some time ago with stomach trouble and was taken to the mine operators' hospital. About ten days ago he was removed to Reno for treatment by a specialist.

The deceased was a resident of Tonopah for several years and worked for both the Extension and West End companies. He was a mine carpenter and millwright by profession. The deceased was aged about 30 years. He was a member of Tonopah lodge, No. 28, F. & A. M., and of the Reno shrine and consistory of Masons. He will probably be buried in Reno, with services held by the Masons.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

James Pike, the general superintendent of the Jim Butler Tonopah, returned this morning from Winnemucca, where he accompanied Mrs. Pike for Christmas. Her sister, Mrs. Stevens, went with them as far as Hazen and then continued on to the coast for the holidays. Mr. Pike brought back with him some photographs taken along the thirty mile earth slip at Kennedy, which caused the earthquake. He says that the earth is still trembling at Winnemucca, but no damage has been occasioned since the great shock of several months ago.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION PLANNED

The Christmas tree and relief committee have decided, now that the community fiesta has been given and temporary relief distributed, to continue the organization throughout the winter. A meeting will be held Sunday a week in the clubroom at the Mizpah, at which time the accounts connected with the Christmas tree will be audited and permanent organization of the relief committee formed.

CASE DISMISSED

The trial of John Blake on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon or similar offense, was to have taken place before Justice Dunseath this morning, but Paddy Conway, the complaining witness, admitted that the altercation was his own fault. He said he was drunk, for the first time in his life, and said that he did not know what he was doing and that he probably was the aggressor.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. J. E. Fleming wishes to thank all, who, in many ways, extended sympathy to the bereaved family and paid their last tribute of respect to her late husband, J. E. Fleming.

Respectfully,
MRS. J. E. FLEMING.

THANKS RETURNED

We desire to thank all who assisted in making the community Christmas tree a success, particularly the members of the electrical workers' union and the members of the musicians' union, who donated their services. To all who made donations of time, labor and material, we are very grateful.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The feature at the Butler tonight will be a Lasky production in which Blanche Sweet, House Peters and Theodore Roberts appear upon the screen; the name of the picture is "Stolen Goods," and is rich in startling incidents, so rich in fact that the action becomes at times kaleidoscopic in its variety. Part, indeed a considerable part of the play, occurs in the French-German war zone, while the rest takes place in California. The complications of the story arise from the fact that the heroine is falsely arrested on a charge of having stolen some lace, which was really stolen by a rich kleptomaniac, who by her put into Margaret's bag when detection seemed imminent. The heroine afterwards becomes a trained nurse, but her prison record hampers her and she goes to Belgium, where she meets and recognizes Helen, the kleptomaniac. Helen is apparently killed, and Margaret argues to herself that she will be doing no more than getting even if she impersonates the dead girl. She takes the dead girl's clothes and tickets and reaches America, with a letter of introduction to a wealthy woman in California who had known the kleptomaniac's father. You are kept guessing constantly as to what is going to happen next, and makes it very interesting from the beginning to end. The acting of Blanche Sweet, who is a great favorite, is of a kind very peculiar to herself; her sweet and attractive personality makes one forget the limited register of emotions. This is the second time recently we have had the pleasure of seeing Miss Sweet.

The preliminary reel will be Paramount travel pictures. Tomorrow "The Buzzard's Shadow," a Mutual masterpiece, featuring Harold Lloyd and May Allison.

CALL AGAIN, PLEASE

While the fire was in progress Sunday, someone entered Mrs. Harry M. Namara's kitchen and made away with a fine fat turkey, ready roasted. She says that if the unannounced caller will visit the Golden Eagle on New Year's day there will be another turkey awaiting him, with cranberry sauce on the side.

WILL REMAIN IN TONOPAH

G. S. Bosch, the tailor, who recently returned from a visit to Ontario, where he was called on mining business, says that he was greatly impressed with the new camp, but that he is not tempted to locate there, as he will remain in Tonopah.

LATE SPORTING NEWS

The smaller colleges are discovering that there is a decided drawback to having a football team, the strength of which is out of proportion to its former position in the gridiron world. While all the larger universities of the east and west are desirous of playing hard practice games before meeting their real rivals of either championship or dual series honors, they object most strenuously to being defeated by teams which heretofore have furnished fair practice, without the element of defeat lurking in the immediate vicinity.

As a result of the changed conditions several colleges have been quietly tipped off that there is, unfortunately, no room on the 1916 schedule of the big varsity eleven for their powerful scoring machines. Going into what used to be termed "championship contests" with two or three defeats marring their records does not make a hit with the big university alumni or undergraduate.

Herbert Jones, King George's leading jockey, has deserted the saddle for the trenches. He recently enrolled at an English recruiting station with the remark: "I rode the king's first winner and now I have ridden his last winner to date. Now I am going to enlist and fight for him as hard as ever I rode for my king."

Indications point to the invasion of the east by at least one Pacific coast football team during the 1916 gridiron season. The Oregon Agricultural team is slated to play a return game against Syracuse university next fall, and the contest is expected to be held at Syracuse on October 21. Syracuse defeated the Oregon Argies 28 to 0 on the recent far-western trip and the westerners are anxious for another chance at the heavy Orange eleven.

Carefully compiled statistics at Cornell university show that the members of the varsity baseball team were granted more leaves of absence for competition than any other sport team at Ithaca. The average days, per man, were: Baseball, 2.6; football, 4.3; tennis and basketball, 3.4; wrestling, 3.2; track, 2.9; rowing, 1.5.
