PRISONERS' WELFARE IS GIVEN ATTENTION

PRESENT WINTER BRINGING SUFFERING AND HARDSHIP TO THOUSANDS

(By Associated Press.) GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 4.—A movement has been started in Geneva to make more adequate provision for the welfare of prisoners in detention camps of the various belligerent countries. The present winter is bringing with it increased suffering and hardship to countless thousands of men, and these it is proposed to endeavor to alleviate. It is a well known fact that there were insufficient preparations in the beginning for dealing with such large numbers of interned men, both soldiers and civilians, as rapidly as became necessary to care for, and as a result living conditions in many detention camps today entail suffering and sickness to a degree realized only by actual observers.

The International Red Cross committee of Geneva is behind this movement, and headquarters for the conduct of the work have been established at La Petite Pierriere, Chambsy, near Geneva. The main object is to succor suffering prisoners of war. It is believed that the admission into each civil and military camp of special delegates belonging to neutral countries would be of great assistance in bringing about an improvement of existing conditions, without in any way interfering with the necessary local organization and discipline. These neutral delegates are to be chosen from the professions, such as doctors, lawyers, etc. They are to make themselves useful in many ways at the camps where they are to have the privilege of free access and sojourning for a specified length of time.

It is felt by the promoters of this idea that, inasmuch as each belligerent country has an equal interest in establishing and maintaining a wise and just method of meeting detention requirements, and at the same time to mitigate the suffering of the captives and the anxieties of their relatives, that the governments concerned will meet with them on the common ground of humanity and help. The actual negotiations with the states in question, looking to the carrying of this project into effect, will be undertaken by the international committee.

INTEREST TAKEN IN SOLDIERS' CANTEENS

QUEEN MOTHER HERSELF TAKES CHARGE OF THE URN OF COFFEE

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Jan. 4.—Queen Alexandra, mother of King George V, has taken a particular interest in the work of the soldiers' canteens which furnish coffee and sandwiches free to all men in uniform at the principal London railway stations. On several occasions the queen mother has insisted on taking a turn at the coffee urn, serving the customary hour-and-a-half trick with the other voluntary workers at one or another of the stations. The soldiers seldom recognize her highness for some time, and she takes especial delight in serving them incognito and receiving their "Thank you, missus," just as it is given to the other workers in the canteen.

Perhaps the best of the queen's customers was a Kentish farmer, who looked in at the London Bridge station canteen one foggy night. He was evidently neither a soldier nor sailor and was distinctly not in uniform. But somebody whispered to him that the queen mother was serving coffee. He approached one of the other waitresses and asked if, supposing he gave a little money to the cause, the queen would give him a cup of coffee with her own hand. Queen Alexandra readily concurred. So the farmer from Kent had his coffee and then, coming inside the counter, he wrote out a check for $25.

Soon after he took his train for Kent and the next thing heard from him was in the form of a check for $250, being money which he had raised in subscriptions among his neighbors. A fortnight later he appeared in person with $125 more, and declared that he was not going to rest until he had brought his total contribution up to $1000.

Self Sacrifice.
No man has ever sacrificed himself in the common meaning of that phrase, which is self sacrifice for another alone. Men make daily sacrifice for others, but it is for their own sake first. They must content their own spirit first. A man must feel better for doing a duty than he would for shirking it.

Take the case of the Berkeley Castle, a British troopship crowded with soldiers and their wives and children. There was room in the boats for the women and children only. The colonel lined up his regiment on the deck and said, "It is our duty to die that they may be saved." There was no murmur, no protest. The boats carried away the women and children. When the death moment was come the colonel and his officers took their several posts, the men stood at "present," and so, as on dress parade, with their flag flying and the drums beating, they went down, a sacrifice to duty for duty's sake. They were soldiers with a soldier's pride—a soldier's self respect. They had to content a soldier's spirit.—Mark Twain.

Brush Your Tongue.
Brush your teeth. By all means brush your teeth religiously and well, but for pity's sake brush your tongue too. Wield your brush backward and forward, under and over, to the north, to the south, to the east and west, scour it with fervor, for it is in truth a tiny forest of dense foliage wherein lurks the unseen enemy.

Every time you open your mouth a whole regiment of little microbes charge through the aperture and take up quarters somewhere in the confines of your chewing apparatus. Seek them out and annihilate them before sleep enfolds you, for, fortified with an enormous capacity for work, they rest not, neither do they weary, and you may awaken in the morning to find whole companies firmly entrenched in the middle of your tongue. If you can't conceive of your own particular organ being so invaded take a microscope and mirror and get busy.—Philadelphia Ledger.
