

BULGARIAN ARMY MOVES INTO CENTRAL ALBANIA

United States Only Power that will be Able to Make an Effective Protest

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Jan. 26.—The Bulgarians are reported to have advanced into central Albania, where they clashed with Albanians under Essad Pasha, the provisional president of Albania, who is co-operating with the entente powers. Dispatches said that the Bulgarians were defeated near Elbassan by Pasha's forces.

The position of the British government on two questions of prime importance in the conduct of the war is to be determined by proceedings under way. The attitude of labor toward compulsory military service will be decided by a conference at Bristol. Debate of the blockade of Germany is before the house of commons. The Bristol conference is the most important of its kind ever held in England, representing more than two million members of the unions. President Anderson opposed the bill.

GREAT BRITAIN IS IN LACK OF TONNAGE

DIFFICULT PROBLEM TO CARE FOR THE COMMERCIAL NEEDS OF THE COUNTRY

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Jan. 26.—The question of tonnage for carrying the overseas trade and particularly the growing scarcity of tonnage under the British mercantile flag is causing a good deal of anxiety. A week of two ago, an unofficial announcement was made that work might be resumed on mercantile shipbuilding in various yards of Great Britain but so far no official confirmation has been received and from the meagre reports regarding government orders in several yards it seems that there is very little likelihood of a transference of any quantity of workmen from government to private contracts in the near future.

As about one-fifth of the total mercantile tonnage of the country is commandeered for admiralty purposes, and during the four week ending December 8, forty-nine vessels were sunk, in addition to the already large losses, it will be seen that there is only a comparatively small margin of boats are left for carrying the country's trade.

INSULAR TRADE IS ON THE INCREASE

(By Associated Press.) MANILA, P. I., Jan. 26.—The cigar trade between the Philippines and the United States is growing rapidly. A comparative statement issued by the collector of internal revenue for the periods of January to November, 1914, and 1915, shows an increase in exportations to American consumers of 5,008,499 cigars. During these months of 1914 the total shipments amounted to 47,972,050 and in 1915 to 52,980,549. February was the month of largest increase when 9,120,487 cigars were shipped as against 4,087,703 in 1914. January and March showed small advances. July and September increased about a million each. August two million while October fell off over 3,500,000.

JAPAN RENEWS DEMANDS IT MADE ON CHINA LAST SPRING

British Government to Define its Position on two Important Matters

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Jan. 26.—Japan has delivered to the Chinese Minister at Tokio, for transmission to his government, a note embodying the seven demands included in the Japanese program of last spring, so the Manchester Guardian learns from far eastern sources. The Guardian expresses hope that this news will be "authoritatively contradicted" as the demands when previously presented were full of danger to China's independence. "It is the hope of the British policy," says the Guardian, "to see China strong and independent. Our duty is to help China in that direction."

It is possible that the seven demands alluded to were the original seven of group five regarding the employment by China of Japanese as advisers; construction of Japanese hospitals, churches and schools in China; employment of Japanese in police departments at large centers; China to purchase a proportion of her war munitions from Japan; Japan's right to construct certain railroads in China; concession in Kukien; the right of Japanese to propagate Buddhism in China.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Many diplomats believe that the only power is a position to make any effective protest against the renewal of Japanese demands is the United States. All the articles in group five are regarded as objectionable by the United States.

HONORS PAID TO THE BARD OF SCOTLAND

The anniversary of the birth of "Bobbie" Burns, the sweet singer of Scotland, was fittingly celebrated last evening, when sixty-five of his admirers, nearly all of whom were of Scottish birth or ancestry, assembled in the dining hall at the Mizpah and partook of a most delightful repast, the various courses being chosen with particular care to make them similar to the viands of Scotland. As an epicurean success, it cannot be too highly praised. Seated at the head of the table was Tom Lindsay, the toastmaster, and, after the last course had been served, he made a few fitting remarks and then called upon a number of those present to make responses, whether in speech, dance or song. To the ac-

FINE SAMPLES ZINC AND MOLYBDENUM

C. W. Douglas and associates have returned from the Douglas mining property in Mineral county where they found the snow was four feet deep. This property was located and worked by the late J. H. Douglas in 1906 and his sons, realizing the value of the property, have held it.

On their return the boys brought in some fine samples of ore, the gold running from $6 to $39.60 on the surface. They also brought in a fine sample of zinc ore, some valuable shipments having been made from this locality.

Samples of the gold and zinc ore left at the "Eagle" office, as well as a specimen of molybdenum ore which brings such a high price these times because of the metal being in sharp demand for hardening steel. All of the above samples were labeled and compainment of an excellent orchestra, R. B. Kanause sang a Scotch ballad.

An address was then delivered by Hon. Mark R. Averill, judge of the fifth judicial district court. His talk was largely on the history of Scotland, which gave to the poet the inspiration for many of his loftiest themes. He pointed out that from research into its geological formation, Scotland was probably the oldest part of the earth's surface. Tribute was paid by the speaker to Scott and Bruce, and other great men of that country, as well as to the poet himself. He vividly sketched the history of the scottish people from the dawn of their history and

FAIL TO CO-OPERATE

(By Associated Press.) AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Jan. 26.—Dutch socialists conceive it to be their special task to bring together their comrades of the belligerent nations for common action against the war. In this, they have so far succeeded, owing chiefly to the refusal of the French and German socialists to co-operate to this end, according to J. H. Schaper, the principal spokesman of the Social-Democratic party at its conference just held here.

THREE LEAP TO DEATH, OTHERS SUFFOCATED

BUILDING FILLED WITH HEMP IS BURNED AT SEATTLE

(By Associated Press.) SEATTLE, Jan. 26.—Three men leaped to death from the fourth floor and three others were suffocated in a fire in the Talbot-Walker building, which was filled with hemp. It is believed that it started from stoves that were used in drying hemp which had been salvaged from an incendiary fire last fall on the pier and stacked with munitions of war. Several others jumped and were caught by firemen in nets. Among the dead is Ray Winkelman, head of the Winkelman Twine company of Tacoma.

GERMAN CAPITAL IN ITALIAN ENTERPRISES

(By Associated Press.) AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Jan. 26.—Germany has not made such a thorough "pacific penetration" of Italy's financial and industrial markets as is generally reported, according to Francesco Nitti, the former Italian minister of agriculture, who has contributed an article on the subject to the current number of the Dutch journal for economics and geography. Germany, he says, has only placed capital amounting in the aggregate to $8,000,000 into Italian enterprises. There are but few purely German companies of importance in Italy, he says, but, on the other hand, numerous Germans have actively participated in the working of Italian companies without putting any money into them.

HOLLAND PREPARING FOR EVENTUALITIES

THOUGH NOT EXPECTING WAR, LITTLE KINGDOM GETS READY

(By Associated Press.) THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Jan. 26.—The fears, early in the war, that Holland would be drawn into it sooner or later have been gradually allayed, and now practically nothing is heard of such a probability, but preparedness for any eventuality continues to be a popular policy. The Dutch Red Cross is to be completely reorganized, under the superintendence of high officials of the army and navy medical corps, and some of the most prominent civilian medical authorities. The headquarters of the society, which have been in an inadequate building near the United States legation here, are to be moved to a large mansion on Prinsessegracht, the former home of an old Dutch aristocratic family which is a gift to the Red Cross from four wealthy residents.

There has also been formed recently a committee of wealthy Hollanders who are to present to the government a number of splendidly equipped ambulance trains.
