SPLENDID OUTLOOK FOR MINERAL

MINERAL county, particularly the region tributary to Mina and Sodaville, is enjoying a mining revival which is destined to place that county in such a light before the world that it will be conceded that its name was happily chosen.

There are few places in the world where, within such a limited area, there are so many different minerals to be found, each in liberally paying quantities. Beginning with the noble metals, Rawhide, Rand and Goldsmith are reported to be plentifully supplied with gold bearing veins. In fact, the former camp has a record of production in the past several years of hundreds of thousands of dollars, with new bodies being opened and steady work in progress. Gold Pen is one of the latest gold strikes that have both anticipation and realization, while Bovard has produced and will continue to output bullion. The Albermarle and Pamlico were heavy producers in the early days and now it has been found that the waste by erosion from the ledges has enriched a large acreage of gravel. Nearly all the mines of base metals also have gold for a by-product.

Silver is found abundantly, particularly in the Lucky Boy district near Hawthorne, where it exists in conjunction with gold in the galena ores. Copper is to be found in Mineral county in quantities sufficient to supply a smelter of great tonnage capacity, but at present it must be shipped long distances, so only the higher grades of ore are now taken out.

There are mountains of gypsum in Mineral county of such high grade that calcination would be a cheap process. But, owing to the fact that the trust still has immense quantities owned outright or under option, the Mineral county deposits must bide their time until demand outreaches the supply.

Of the useful metals the ores of tungsten are coming into prominence in Mineral county. They occur in the form of tungsten, wolframite, scheelite and in conjunction with other metals.

One of the coming sources of wealth in the Mina district is the cinabar formation, which may yet be discovered to include a large territory. At present there are but two properties under development, each within easy distance of Mina, at a place where wood and water are abundant and access is not difficult. The extent of the deposits and the high average of the veins ensure that the operations of these properties will prove extremely profitable, particularly now that mercury has attained such a high price, which bids fair to continue.

All in all, Mineral county need have no fear for the future, nor is there any assurance that Mina will not in the future become one of the greatest mining centers in the State of Nevada.

NEVADA WOMEN TO THE FORE

A YEAR or two from now the service of women in political positions, in jury duty and even in the holding of office will be such a common spectacle that it will cease to excite interest, but Nevada is just now attempting to adapt itself to the new order of things and any preferment extended to the new voters, or any duty imposed upon them naturally causes comment.

The Bonanza congratulates the Republican party in taking the initiative by appointing as an alternate to the Republican national convention, a woman, Mrs. T. F. Moran of Reno, wife of Judge T. F. (Barney) Moran.

It is whispered about Reno that the rapid rise of Judge Moran in the law, from being a practitioner to district attorney and from district attorney to district judge, with a possibility of another advancement this fall, is to a great extent due to the inspiration of the good woman who is his helpmate and who is desirous of his rising to the level to which his talents entitle him to go.

Mrs. Moran will serve the party faithfully if she goes to Chicago in case of the creating of a vacancy in the delegation. She is a student of political economy, a woman of high ideals and as firmly a Republican as though she had voted the ticket all her life.

Tonopah has also taken the initiative in the selection of women for jury duty, unless a case that was recently tried in a justice court in Clark county may be taken as a real precedent, but in the case of Tonopah, or rather of Nye county, it will be the district instead of the lower court in which service will be rendered. Miss Gibbons, a young attaché in the Nevada National bank, whom nobody thought had attained to her majority, but which she willingly confesses, was the first to be named for jury work. The trial, which will be before a mixed jury, will be of great interest, and the mental processes that are utilized in arriving at a verdict will be a rare psychological study.

AFTER THE WAR

THE London Morning Post said in an editorial recently: "Military victory is still far away; but even military victory will not save this nation if it is won by others and not by ourselves, and if it is accomplished by commercial defeat. We understand that those German industries which rely on the export trade are at present producing, not so much for export, as for dumping after the war. The state is at present subsidizing these German industries for the express purpose of accumulating reserves which will be used for deluging our markets with cheap goods when the war is over. How are we going to meet this menace?"

"This country must have a national protective tariff if it is to survive the fierce commercial conflict which is sure to follow this war. We may be told that even to mention this subject is what is called a 'breach of the party truce.' If it has come to this, that the party truce is to prevent this country from adopting in time a policy necessary to its salvation, then the party truce would be rather a source of peril than of safety. But we prefer to believe that this war has raised the question of imperial union and trade protection out of the realm of party politics and placed it among the questions of national urgency which are to be settled without reference to party."

"NOTHING IN FREE TRADE"

PRESIDENT WILSON says there is nothing in either the doctrine of free trade or that of protection. We are willing he should speak for the doctrine of free trade, but there are others vastly more competent to speak for the doctrine of protection. We shall entirely agree that there is nothing in free trade. We have proven it by sad experience. But as for protection—there is much in it. There is in it, for instance, a full dinner pail for the laborer, busy factories for industrial investors, plenty of business for retail merchants, wide-spread prosperity in the United States, a full federal treasury and no need for stamp taxes. Nothing in it? We should worry.

NEVADA SHEEP AND WOOL RUNS INTO MILLIONS

The value of the sheep, lambs and wool marketed in Nevada runs into the millions. With negligible exceptions, these are range-grown sheep, the flocks being herded on the public domain and forest reserves during most, and in some instances, all of the year. Farmers, however, find a large demand for their forage crops in fattening such flocks, as well as range-grown cattle, for the stock yards. Until recently the Nevada farmer could rely upon this demand to consume all the forage crops he could produce. At the present time, due to the constantly increasing acreage of reclaimed lands, the production of alfalfa, grass hay and pasture is in excess of the range-livestock demand. Instead, however, of this being a misfortune, it is the making of agricultural Nevada. It means the beginning of an era of dairying, hog breeding, and cattle and sheep breeding on the farms; of subdivided ranches and multiplied agricultural production.—Nevada News Letter.
