Pure Drinking Water.

The geologic resource of greatest value to the health of communities is a supply of pure drinking water. It is generally recognized that a number of diseases, prominent among which are typhoid fever and amoebic dysentery—a disease more common in tropical climates, but found also in the United States—are contracted through contaminated water or contaminated food.

RUSTLERS DRIVE OFF A BAND OF SHEEP

FLOCK OWNED IN HUMBOLDT COUNTY FOUND HIDDEN IN HILLS

WINNEMUCCA, May 23.—Word was telephoned to the sheriff's office that a bunch of sheep had been stolen from a corral at Miller & Lux's Big Creek ranch, near Quinn River Crossing.

The message stated that the trail of the sheep had been followed several miles by employees and located at a place in the mountains where the thieves had left them, probably to await a favorable chance to drive them out of the county.

There were 140 head of sheep in the stolen band and they were recovered by Sheriff Lamb. The thieves were not apprehended. The sheep were taken about a week ago.

Goodbye coffee grinder

THE right way to protect good coffee—in vacuum sealed tins—has made grinding at home or at the grocer's unsatisfactory.

Right after Schilling's Best is roasted, it is carefully ground into even bits, the objectionable chaff taken-out, and the coffee hurriedly packed in vacuum-sealed tins.

Neither you nor the the grocer can grind as uniformly as we do. And uniform grinding is one of the important reasons for the smooth, rich strength of Schilling's Best. A pound goes further.

Sold only through grocers.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

"The Chorus Lady," James Forbes' amusing and dramatic play, which has been a sensation of the American stage for years, and has been presented in practically every country in the civilized world, has been pictured with an all-star cast by the Jesse L. Lasky company.

The noted actress, Cleo Ridgeley, appears as Patricia O'Brien in the leading role of "The Chorus Lady." Her headstrong, stage struck younger sister, Nora, is played by Marjorie Daw, the clever little fourteen-year-old protégé of Geraldine Farrar. A telegram was sent to the leading modiste of New York to prepare thirty gowns of the latest Parisienne design to be worn in this five-part feature.

The picture tells the story of the struggles of Patricia O'Brien, one of the quick-witted, sharp-tongued members of the "Merry-Merry" to keep her little country stage struck sister from falling under the influences of a theatrical Johnnie.

The headstrong younger girl is confident that she is honestly loved by the man of the world. How Pat, with her cleverness, show the little sister that she is but a passing fancy and one of the many is depicted in a series of the most unusual scenes ever presented in a photo-drama.

"The Chorus Lady" has been given a wonderful setting and is presented in the usual Lasky thorough and artistic manner. Burton Holmes' travel pictures will also be with us this evening. "With Fire Fighting Forest Rangers in Arizona." The best yet. Show how fires are located and fought in Arizona. Remember tomorrow that animal comedy, bring the little folks, they will enjoy it. Also "The Fruits of Desire," featuring Robert Warwick.
