TONOPAH DELIVERS THE GOODS

It has become a trite saying that Tonopah is the best mining camp in the country today, with better prospects of permanency than nine tenths of its rivals. There seems no end to the riches that may be garnered from the ground in this vicinity, providing the tilling is done under business like auspices. The camp ranks as one of the few without a single "skunk" to its shame, and the older the district grows the more science and engineers concede that the true estimate of the wealth of this section has not been grasped. From the day Jim Butler lifted the first specimen from Mizpah hill to the present there has not been a single disappointment. The few defectives are companies which could not gather the funds for a suitable campaign and others that believed they could pick up fortunes from the surface without sinking to depths. Even these are few, for, soon after the first excitement, when leasers working under the bond of Jim Butler were shipping out more ore than the smelters could take care of, Tonopah was recognized as a deep mining camp, where it was necessary to go to depth by sinking between 1000 and 1500 feet before expecting to pick the plums of prosperity. Since diffusion of this knowledge there has not been a case where local investors have not been repaid for their confidence in the district as the home of remunerative mining. The current year has had more than its share of surprises, and those whose judgment has not been blighted by the selfish preachments of brokers and capitalists interested in distant camps have been rewarded right here at home with profits running into the hundreds of thousands dollars. The appreciation of junior stocks has been phenomenal. Profits ranging from 300 to over 1000 per cent have repaid those who preferred to keep their money right here at home, where they could watch the operations of the market and at the same time do their share in helping in the development of local properties. Ever since silver began coming back there has been nothing but a quick succession of strikes and stock enhancement that has placed hundreds of small investors on Easy street. Beginning with the development of Rescue-Eula from a prospect to a mine last March, when the stock was selling around seven cents and then advanced to a high record of 55 cents, the movement has been consistent and constant. White Caps, a gold stock that went begging for buyers last January around three cents, sold last week for 37 cents on the strength of physical improvements that merited even a better advance than the one recorded. Among the sedate old reliable dividend paying companies the old Tonopah Mining has found that the Sand Grass claim is showing up better than was ever expected by the most enthusiastic advocates of the company. The West End in the last sixty days has been taking out of virgin ground as good ore as ever was lifted from the disputed territory. Halifax is credited with opening one of the richest ledges in the district that is now under active development, and the Belmont is reported to have opened a high grade gold ledge that runs into fancy figures. There is no gainsaying the extent of the resources of the Tonopah Extension, which have been the subject of development within the past year, so it is idle to dwell on that feature.

The latest candidates for attention are two companies which have been doing quiet and systematic work without attracting much more than passing attention. They are both of the assessment class and the fact that they are now in the spotlight as the harbingers of dividends for their stockholders is due to the fact that they are owned by companies that can call on their stockholders for the sinews of war whenever their treasuries run low. These companies are the Gypsy Queen and the North Star, both of which speak for the conduct of their management and the legitimacy of their operations through the records of the San Francisco Stock Exchange and the New York Curb. Small fortunes have been made by those who had faith in the ultimate arrival of these mines and their reward will be accepted as a sufficient incentive to others not to lose faith in the eventualities of Tonopah.

GRAND STAND FALLS AND HUNDRED INJURED

(By Associated Press.)
 COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 5.—The collapse of a portion of the bleacher seats at the Welsh-White lightweight championship fight yesterday afternoon precipitated two hundred spectators to the ground and injured at least 100, several seriously. At various hospitals here last night it was stated that all of the 60 persons taken to them immediately after the accident would recover. Many later were released after having their injuries dressed. The crash came before the larger part of the crowd had arrived. Policemen aided by members of the fire department and special officers quickly placed the injured in automobiles and comparatively little confusion resulted and the boxing program was not delayed.

Announcement was made from the ringside that the stands had been carefully inspected before the crowd was admitted and that no reason could be ascribed for the collapse of the seats. D. G. Johnson, commissioner of public safety here, said that so far as he knew no inspection had been made by the city engineer's office and he added that a thorough investigation would be made as an effort to fix the responsibility.

WHITE-WELSH FIZZLE EXCITES INDIGNATION

(By Associated Press.)
 COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 5.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion lightweight pugilist of the world yesterday after going the full scheduled 20 rounds with Charlie White, challenger, of Chicago. Referee Billy Roche, of New York, awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the 20th round Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out both hands toward the boxers and many of the spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand and it was raised aloft, while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring.

When Referee Roche announced his decision in favor of Welsh, the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of hundreds of cushions which were hurled from all directions at the referee. He was rushed through the crowd by friends to a waiting automobile. Guarded by a policeman the vehicle was speeded up an unfrequented road to the hotel, while hundreds of men and boys rushed after it until distanced.

From a spectacular standpoint, the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight division. For fully two thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches and pushing each other back and forth about the ring. For this Welsh was largely to blame. Throughout the entire 21 rounds scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage. Of the blows exchanged White's carried the greater punitive power, while Welsh frequently was on the aggressive and did his share of the leading. It was noticed that many of his blows fell short and failed to reach their mark. Roche stated after the fight that he awarded Welsh the decision for the reason that he did most of the leading. With consummate generalship, Welsh, throughout practically all the first, worked with his back to the sun, forcing White to face the hot glare. Neither man drew blood from his opponent and neither showed any particular evidence of having been in a championship battle. Welsh fought carefully and took no chances with his opponent's famous left hand. On several occasions, when it appeared likely that it might land, the champion was backing away, so that the force of the blows were spent when they reached him. As a rule he clinched in order to avoid punishment.

KILBANE SILENCES CHANEY IN 8 MINUTES

(By Associated Press.)
 CEDAR POINT, Ohio, Sept. 5.—In less than eight minutes of actual fighting Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, spoiled the hopes of George Chaney, of Baltimore, for the world's featherweight championship. A terrific right smash to Chaney's jaw settled the battle near the end of the third round.

The champion's longer reach and greater defensive skill offset the superior fight Chaney began with the sound of the first gong. The leads of the Baltimore lad were broken easily for the most part by Kilbane and the champion earned an even break in the first two rounds by his clever defensive tactics. It was not until the third that Kilbane cut loose and then he did so with a vengeance. He rushed the challenger to the ropes with the opening of the round and drew blood with a left to Chaney's face. Four time the men clinched in the third and Chaney tried a vicious attack on the kidneys to weaken the champion. But Kilbane ran out easily from this attack and biding his time swung over to the point of the challenger's chin a wallop that spelled knockout and victory.
