COMISFORD IS ON TRIAL FOR THE KILLING OF E. W. RILEY

Charles Comisford is on trial for his life in the fifth judicial district court, charged with the murder of E. W. Riley on the night of August 12, last. The killing took place at the opening of a saloon by the deceased. Comisford is said to have behaved in unseemly fashion and to have been escorted out of the place by Riley, who staggered back into the saloon bleeding from two knife wounds which caused his death less than an hour later.

Interest in the case is intense and the courtroom was packed when the trial began this morning. The first twelve men in the jury box were Chas. McLeod, Wm. Davis, Chas. A. Leager, Bart Cigall, Thos. H. Warburton, L. D. Warner, Fred. R. Remming, Vail Pittman, James A. Timmin, Chris. D. Zeigler, E. A. Harmer and Frederick Young. McLeod was challenged because he had a fixed and unqualified opinion and could give the defendant the benefit of the doubt.

GOETHALS SAYS CANAL IS O. K.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Sharp language is employed by Major General George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama canal zone, in replying to published criticisms of the big waterway, which he charges have seriously affected its commercial rating. In his annual report, made public by the war department, the governor declares that the earth movements which have frequently interrupted traffic through the canal will finally be overcome for all time.

IRRIGATION LAW STANDS A TEST

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The supreme court sustained Colorado's irrigation law of 1881 limiting the time for appeals from court decrees fixing water rights.

SCHOOLS CLOSED BY HOLDING INSTITUTE

All public schools from Virginia City to the southern borders of the state are closed this week owing to the assembling of teachers in the annual institute at Goldfield. The exercises will occupy the better part of four days, when only one day intervenes before the arrival of another Saturday, so the week will be lost. Superintendent Dilworth of Tonopah will make the leading address today. Every teacher in Tonopah with the exception of those who attended summer school left this morning for the institute. The only ones made happy are the children who are left free to wander the streets.

FUEL FAMINE NOW FELT IN TONOPAH

Householders and coal consumers are urged to the most rigid economy in the use of fuel, since there is not a ton of good coal in Tonopah, and Goldfield has been without a supply for the past three days. Wood is at low ebb also. If the present cold spell continues, a great hardship will be worked on those who have not laid in a supply. The 26 cars of the T. & G. railroad sent to Utah are being traced from division to division by Agent Pett, who expects to bring back a small supply before the end of the week.

PLANS OF SUFFRAGISTS FOR A GREAT CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press.) SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 20.—The three persons injured Saturday by the racing automobile driven by Lewis Jackson, one of the entrants in the grand prize road race, are reported recovering. Coroner Calvin Hartwell said he probably would conduct an official investigation of the fatal accident, but no date for the inquest has been set.

ERROR IN OFFICIAL COUNT IN FAVOR OF MRS. CURIEUX

The publication of the official returns in the Bonanza Saturday disclosed an important error in the totals, which, however, does not affect the result. The total vote for Mrs. Curieux was announced as 1343, when it should have been 1543, or 200 more.

SIERRAS CLOSED TO TRAVEL

G. S. Hoag, state consul of the Lincoln highway for Nevada, has received information that the road through the Sierras has been closed to travel by the recent snows for the present season. Tourists are therefore routed via Tonopah and Goldfield and on to Big Pine, from which point they can take their choice of routes to either northern or southern California.—Ely Record.

ROUTING TOURIST CARS THIS WAY

SCOUT CARS IN NEVADA LOOKING FOR ROUTE OPEN ALL YEAR

The arrival of a Los Angeles "scout" car in Reno a few days ago has set automobile dealers and Lincoln highway boosters to thinking pretty hard.

The car, which bore the number "32" on its doors and a Los Angeles license, only stopped in Reno for a few moments and then left for Gardnerville. It appears that this car and two other machines were sent out from Los Angeles to investigate all road conditions in this state with a view to finding some route from Ely to Los Angeles that will be open all year. If such a route can be found and can be placed in good condition at a nominal cost, the Los Angeles boosters are going to make an effort to have the route of the Lincoln highway or a branch of the Lincoln highway follow this route. They are also planning to make a fight to have the money appropriated by the federal government for road building spent on this route.

Lincoln highway signs are now being placed on the roads from Ely south through Tonopah and thence to Los Angeles and an organized effort to divert all tourist traffic along this route will probably be made next summer.

Magnus, who returned recently from a tour of investigation abroad as the official representative of the joint distributing committee of funds for Jewish war sufferers.

GOLDFIELD LOSES CONVIVIAL BURRO

ANIMAL WITH A LIKING FOR BOOZE WILL SUFFER NO LONGER

"Toughie" took "Smokey" out on the desert last night and shot him, because he was a defective, in that he had a club foot. Smokey also suffered from man's inhumanity to animals and was a saloon bum and confirmed drunkard. Had Smokey been human he would have a finer obituary, but as an obituary filled with praise on the death of a man is merely customary, regardless of his worth, and seldom speaks the truth, Smokey loses nothing when the truth is told after his death. Everyone knew it.

"Toughie," a Goldfield youth, was given a dollar by Clyde Johnson to shoot Smokey, a burro, because Smokey was suffering, and the burro died on the desert he was created to inhabit in true old-time western style, with a bullet in his brain. Smokey was a black burro with a split ear. The ear had been slashed with a knife and as it hung down on one side of his head when he was in his cups it gave him the appearance of a drunken man with his hat on the side of his head. He was noted for the totally human attribute of entering the front door of a saloon, walking up to the bar, being served with a drink and free lunch, walking out again, spinning around like a top on the street and then lying down to sleep it off.

Smokey was two years of age, had no known relatives and there will be no formal obsequies.—Goldfield Tribune.

ODDIE SELLS MINE IN ARIZONA TO BOSTONIANS

A successful mining deal has just been negotiated in Boston, according to information received by the Reno Gazette, in which T. L. Oddie, former governor of Nevada, has disposed of a large copper estate near Jerome, Ariz., to Boston capitalists. The property is reported to have been sold for cash by Oddie, who handled the sale for the original owners. Oddie is reported to have netted a large commission upon the deal.

SPLENDID BRIDGE NOW SPANS WHITE RIVER

Mr. Leak, who had the contract for the building of the new steel bridge across the White river, on the Midland trail, reports that the work has been completed. The steel structure stands on cement piers, and is decidedly the best bridge ever erected in this county. The board of commissioners became weary of putting in cheap structures, which were swept away by almost every flood, hence they put one in that will last for an indefinite period.—Ely Record.

Vaudeville at the Butler tonight. This time it will be Marie Neilson, dramatic soprano, formerly of New York City, who will appear in a pianologue act which will be a distinct novelty to the Tonopah public.

Miss Neilson will make her selections from well known operas, including "Barcarolle" from "Love Tales from Hoffman," and sextette from "Lucia de Lammermoor," in the original Italian, as arranged exclusively for Miss Neilson during her several seasons' engagement as soloist with the All-American military band. The picture program will consist of a Vitaphone Blue Ribbon production entitled "Through the Wall," a master drama of a super-criminal, a detective story filled with pep and excitement. Such is the motive of Cleveland Moffet's strong action novel, "Through the Wall." Tomorrow, Miss Neilson in a change of vocal selections, and Hazel Dawn in "The Feud Girl."

BIG TURKEY SHOOT

There will be 500 of the biggest and fattest turkeys brought to Tonopah that were ever seen in this city, and they are being fed on the choicest menus just to get them toothsome and dainty. A Shelly, who conducted the big Thanksgiving shoot a year ago, is bringing them here. If Russ Williams knocks over more than 25 in one day he will be barred from further participation in the shoot. There is no limit on Doc Morgan-Owen, provided he will consent to be blindfolded. Adv. N111f
