arrested when twenty armed citizens rushed from the lobby of the post-office and surrounded.

Four squadrons of citizens coming from different parts of the city reached the center of town at the same time. Each band was marching with several hundred prisoners. As each man was detained he was ordered to put his hands in the air and deputies quickly searched him for weapons. As the prisoners marched along the streets hundreds of rifles were leveled at their heads from all sides.

After an hour's wait, captors and captured marched to the depot, where another squad on duty had taken charge of several hundred more men. At 8:30 o'clock the prisoners were lined up two abreast. Flanked by two thousand heavily armed citizens the captors were ordered to march down the railroad tracks towards Warren. At Lowell, a suburb, about 300 more alleged I. W. W.'s were merged into the procession.

The baseball park at Warren was chosen for the place of assembling the men to be deported. Word of the "clean up" had preceded the sheriff and his men and when the prisoners reached the park the hundreds of spectators on the scene set up jeers and shouts.

When the prisoners were all inside the enclosure, half of the armed bands formed a guard around the park, while the other half started a systematic search of the entire district for men who were identified with the I. W. W., or who could not account for their presence in a satisfactory manner. Armed men went through rooming houses and restaurants questioning every one. Those who did not answer satisfactorily were marched between long lines of citizens to the park.

For two hours leaders of the I. W. W. attempted to make themselves heard above the hoots and jeers of the crowd. When it seemed as if the park would hold no more six additional squads of prisoners were packed in and the guards were increased.

Shortly before noon a special train of cattle cars rolled up to the park. The prisoners were marched in single file from the enclosure, up the runways and on to the cars. As each man entered the car, according to the authorities, he was asked if he wanted to go to work, or if he could give the name of a reliable citizen who would vouch for him. Those who expressed a desire for employment were held for further investigation.

Several prominent citizens of Bisbee and Lowell, who openly declared they were in sympathy with the I. W. W. movement were forced into the cars with the unkept crowds. Among these was William B. Cleary, an attorney widely known throughout Arizona, who was taken into custody when the raid first started. Cleary was alleged to have spoken openly in favor of the I. W. W. movement.

The train left at noon. As it departed cheers and jeers were mingled. Some of the deported ones waved their hands and their caps and shouted: "Good-bye, Bisbee." The victims of the day's activities were Orson H. McRae, a member of the citizens' protective league, and shift boss at one of the Copper Queen mines, and James Brew, a former employe of the Denn mine, which closed down the first day of the strike.

McRae was killed when Brew fired through the window of his room at McRae and several others who were rounding up I. W. W. sympathizers. McRae, it was said, was unarmed. Brew fired several more shots and then stepped out of his room. Three of McRae's companions fired at him and he fell beside his victim, dying five minutes later.

PEKING ATTACK IS STILL IMPENDING

FIGHTING OUTSIDE THE SACRED CITY MAY BEGIN ANY MOMENT

(By Associated Press.) TIENTSIN, July 12.—Fighting began outside of Peking yesterday. The republicans say that owing to General Chang Hsun's refusal to mediate they intend to attack the forbidden city. They have been reluctant to do so, fearing Chang Hsun will fire into the legations, which are close to his residence. The republicans say they could overcome Chang Hsun's resistance were there no fears he would savagely attack foreign property generally.

WILL DRAW DRAFT

drawing cannot be held until all states are complete so that no juggling of numbers will be possible.

Officials also are unwilling to discuss the details, but the suggestion which seems to have the most support is that the numbers stamped in tin slips of paper be inclosed in non-transparent gelatine capsules and be placed in a large glass vessel to be removed one at a time.

The number of capsules which would be necessary will be equal to the total in the largest district. Thus under the present arrangement, 7990 numbers would have to be drawn. Information so far available indicate that the drawing will work out in this way:

There are 4550 exemption districts. When the first number is drawn—say, No. 10, it will be recorded as No. 1, with the serial number (ten) following. The record would show that the men whose cards bear the serial number ten in each of 4550 exemption districts would be first to appear before the exemption boards. Presumably the announcement made at the drawing would be No. 1, serial number 10.

To prevent embarrassment among those who are exempt, the war department has decided to give with each exemption certificate a bronze badge bearing the inscription: "Exempted—U. S." It is desired to prevent those exempted from any suspicion of being slackers.

The law specifies that exemptions are not permanent unless the cause for which they are granted is permanent. For instance, if a man should be exempted on the first call because of a dependent relative and that relative should die, or become self supporting before the second call, the registrant would be liable for service under the second call.

HOT WAVE BREAKS IN GRATEFUL RELIEF

CLOUDS OBSCURE SUN AND A FEW DROPS OF RAIN RELIEVE TEMPERATURE

For the first time since the first of July the temperature at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was cooler than at noon by four degrees. During the morning bets were made that the record would be fractured today and the morning gave every indication of carrying out the prediction. However, at 1 o'clock the sky clouded and an hour later ten drops of rain that could easily be counted fell on the parched landscape, reducing the temperature to 88, compared with 96 at the same time yesterday. This is the first moisture observed here since May 26, when there was a measurable quantity reported.

A thunderstorm is expected owing to the growing density of the cumulus clouds caused by the ascension of hot waves from the surface of the earth.

action on the theories of George Sorrel, a Frenchman, and got from him the plan of property destruction as a lever to gain their end, which they define as "industrial democracy."

This property destruction as advocated and practiced in the west of late has taken many forms. Lumber mills have had their costly saws splintered by spikes driven into logs, in the orchard districts fruit trees have died after copper nails had been hammered into them.

The organizers proclaim the movement to be world wide. The Red Flag is the proposed universal banner and each member of the organization carries a red card. Membership is sought in all branches of industry. Organizers say 52,000 farm laborers belong, and that the plantation labor of the south is being organized. It is the theory of the I. W. W. that each branch of industry should help the other in gaining its ends, and Rodger Culver, an I. W. W. speaker, recently said at Miami, Ariz., "if necessary to enforce the miners' demands, there will be no wheat crop on the North American continent."

Threats of wholesale destruction of wheat have not materialized.

AMUSEMENTS

June Caprice, the girl with the sunny smile, gets mixed up in a thrilling crook story in her latest picture, "A Small Town Girl," which will be seen at the Butler tonight.

With the help of a little Jane Lee, she hands the gem thieves over to the police. "A Small Town Girl" is a story of a country girl, played by June Caprice, who goes to New York to take care of her aunt's little girl, Jane Lee. There in the squalid surroundings of a First Avenue tenement June meets Frank Bernard Delaney, her old sweetheart back home, who had come to the big city to make good. In the same house with June is a band of crooks. They steal a jewel and hide it in the heel of the slipper belonging to Mame, the woman of the gang. Little Jane finds the slipper and gives it to June. Frank calls and in a playful tussle over the slipper pulls the heel off. The gem falls to the floor. Frank had heard of the theft and hurries to the police with the jewel. Meantime the crooks discover the loss of the slipper. Mame quizzes Jane and learns she gave it to June. With her men confederates she attacks June just as Frank returns with the police. When left alone June falls into Frank's arms. The dare-devil cowboy, Tom Mix, will be seen this evening in "6 Cylinder Love." When it comes to riding and especially riding in comedies, Tom Mix is called the incomparable. He is a wonder of his kind. Tomorrow Lionel Barrymore in "His Father's Son."

NOTICE TO CREDITORS I have sold the Shanghai restaurant on Main street to Tom Fong and will not be responsible for any debts contracted from this date. I will be at my old place of business on July 24th to pay all claims against me. 6A-VJ1311—TOM KIM.
