INVESTIGATING.

CONDUCTED properly, minus politics and desire to "get" anybody, the present investigation of the conduct of the war may well be fruitful of valuable results.

AS TO CHINESE LABOR.

ROOSEVELT mimes no words in condemning the proposed importation of Chinese laborers to reap our crops.

"It has been announced from Washington that, in view of the shortage of labor on the farms, there will be an effort in congress to permit the importation for temporary use on the farms of Chinese coolies.

"I do not believe the effort will be successful, and if it were successful it would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall the American people.

"Never under any condition should this nation look at an immigrant as primarily a labor unit.

"He should always be looked at primarily as a future citizen and the father of other citizens, who are to live in this land as fellows with our children and children's children.

"No temporary advantages from the importation of Chinese coolies would offset the far-reaching ultimate damage it would cause."

COMPLICATIONS.

GREAT BRITAIN'S parliament is in something of a dilemma. There is a strong demand for a general election. Heretofore the policy has been to continue parliament in war time after the date that it would normally have concluded its term.

Apparently the Japs, despite the many reports, have not landed in Vladivostok. Will we next hear that Korniloff and Kaledines, their forces routed, are in flight?
