APEX SUIT CONTINUED TO FRIDAY SO EXPERTS MAY INSPECT PROPERTY

The White Caps vs. Morning Glory hearing in the district court came to an abrupt ending temporarily this morning. Mr. Walker and Mr. Van Waggoner, the two neutral mining engineers appointed by the court to examine, sample and generally observe the objects having a bearing upon the controversy, reported that in part they were not able to agree with either side and were prepared to submit their conclusions, but, owing to their conclusions differing from the conclusions of both parties, they preferred that before they testified a visit be made to the property and they be permitted to show to the engineers for the respective parties the features upon which they based their conclusions, so that these engineers might be able to consider the same things in their testimony. This was agreed to by both parties and the jury was excused until Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and in the meantime the two neutral engineers, accompanied by not to exceed two engineers on the part of each of the litigants, will make a further examination of the particular objects referred to by the neutral engineers in their tentative report.

RED CROSS WORKERS NEEDED; NEW SHIPMENT OF BANDAGES IN FEW DAYS

The chairman of the war council, Henry P. Davison, said in his telegram to all the chapters of the National Red Cross after the success of the big Christmas drive: "As we stand on the threshold of the new year in this hour of world tragedy there can be but one thought in the minds of the twenty-two million members of the American Red Cross, and that is to serve and sacrifice as never before."

We, then, in Tonopah, cannot rest on the work done last year, but must do more and better work. The Red Cross is carrying a message of love and sympathy and help to every soldier and sailor fighting for the great cause, and it should be the pleasure, as it is the duty, of every person loyal to this government to show his or her appreciation of the privileges enjoyed by them in some practical way.

DRASTIC LAWS ON FEED ARE PLANNED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Stricter economy of food is to be required of the American people by new laws put in the making yesterday by congress. Food Administrator Hoover has approved them and they are expected to pass promptly, as supplemental to the present food control act. Wheatless and meatless days and other economies necessary that America may help sustain her co-belligerents would become mandatory by law instead of voluntary as at present. Such new laws, the food administration holds, are necessary to protect the millions of loyal American co-operating in food saving against the wastefulness of a few individuals and of public eating houses which are said to handle probably 50 per cent of the food supply.

In the senate, the administration bill was introduced by Senator Forrester. In the house it was introduced by Chairman Lever of the agricultural committee.

The bill was referred to committees in both houses. It provides that whenever the president shall find that it is essential to limit further unrestricted use, manufacture, sale or distribution of food and foodstuffs, he may by proclamation modify, limit or discontinue their use to the extent necessary to assure an adequate supply. The president would be authorized to issue rules and regulations, which might vary from time to time to meet changing conditions, and in carrying out the proposed law may utilize any department, agency or officer of the government.

Any person who failed or refused to modify, limit or discontinue the sale, use, manufacture or distribution of such articles would be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a minimum $5,000 fine, six years' imprisonment, or both.

The law would cease to be in effect when the war between the United States and Germany is over.

CORN DISCRIMINATED AGAINST, M'ADOO TOLD

1917 BUMPER CROP THREATENED WITH DETERIORATION IF NOT DESTRUCTION. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Priority orders have discriminated against corn to such an extent that a large part of the nation's bumper crop of 1917 is threatened with serious deterioration if not destruction. Director General of Railroads McAdoo was told by Representative McCormick of Illinois, who, backed by a letter from Food Administrator Hoover, urged immediate appointment of a railroad executive experienced in handling corn shipments. Mr. McAdoo took the matter under advisement.

RED CROSS WORKERS NEEDED; NEW SHIPMENT OF BANDAGES IN FEW DAYS

Representative McCormick and Mr. Hoover agreed that corn now on the farms or in the country elevators must be moved within the next few weeks in order to avert shortages in many parts of the country. Reports to the food administrator showed that country elevators have been filled for months and millions of bushels are rotting in the fields because the farmer has no place to store the crop. As corn is an important cattle feed, the failure to move the crop, Mr. Hoover declared, is resulting in increased prices of milk and other dairy products and also meat.

"It does not appear to me," said Mr. Hoover, "that the movement of this most critical and essential foodstuff necessarily conflicts with the movement of coal. Grain moves in box cars and coal in open top cars. I am informed that a large number of box cars are daily loaded with pianos, furniture, graphophones, beer, whisky, etc., which are no essential at the moment as grains. It is estimated that the eastern roads have anywhere from 20,000 to 40,000 box cars belonging to the grain roads and unless these can be returned and put into their proper employment there is little solution of the problem."

NO MEN OF DRAFT AGE IN RED CROSS SERVICE

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The Red Cross has issued the following statement: "The American Red Cross in France does not admit to its staff any Americans of draft age unless they present the proper credentials from the United States military or naval authorities giving the reasons why they are not qualified for military or naval service. "When the organization was first brought together there were in it a number of Americans of conscription age, but those either satisfied the military authorities of their disability or left the Red Cross service and joined the service of the army or navy. "On all such questions the American Red Cross is working most conscientiously with the military authorities in France and at home."

5 MILLION MEN FROM U.S. NEEDED IS CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Senator McCumber, in giving the senate a gloomy picture of the position of the United States and her allies today and pleading for a radical speeding up of shipbuilding, declared England is bearing the brunt and asked, "How long can she stand the strain?" He said the United States must send 5,000,000 men to balance the manpower of the central powers. "Seven million men are needed to make the Germans retreat," he said.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE BUTLER. Owing to "The Auction Block" missing train connections in San Francisco, it will not arrive in time for today's exhibition. The management of the Butler will try to re-book this feature as soon as possible, so watch for date it will be announced later. For today's feature we have Hazel Dawn in "The Heart of Jennifer." Hazel Dawn is one of the screen's most beautiful and charming stars, and also proves herself an actress of genuine dramatic power in the feature production today. "The Heart of Jennifer" is the story of a woman's strong love for her husband, which prompts her to place upon herself the guilt of the crime committed by his sister, in the role of the heroic fortitude of the sacrificing wife. "The Heart of Jennifer" is a photoplay that conforms with the highest standard of pictures. With this feature will be seen Pathe Weekly with the latest war news, as well as all current events of the day. Tomorrow, Wm. S. Hart, in "The Cold Deck." This portrayal he considers the greatest of his career. The story is somewhat different from his usual portrayal, inasmuch as he plays the part of a "gentleman" in the early part of the picture, reverting to his usual cowboy. Friday, a screen surprise—something different—with Virginia Pearson in "All for a Husband," also "The Fighting Trail," making a 7-reel program. Saturday, successor to "The Slack-er," and it's a great picture—one that all should see. It is "Draft 258," featuring Mabel Taliaferro and being a 7-reel patriotic production de luxe. And with this 7-reel feature will be the greatest 2-reel comedy ever made, "Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells." Laughing lions, educated elephants—it has everything in it. Remember the show on Saturday will start promptly at 6:45, second at 8:45. Tickets can be had any time by just calling at the box office.
