INTERNAL STRIFE BESETS WAR-WEARY AUSTRIA

COAL OPERATORS SCORED BY FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

(By Associated Press.) KANSAS CITY, Jan. 22.—That the coal operators are bigger than the fuel administration and that they never have obeyed the fuel administration's orders or shown any intention of doing so, was the declaration made by Emerson Garey, fuel administrator for Kansas, at a meeting of fuel heads of six states here yesterday.

SENATOR STONE EXCORIATES ROOSEVELT

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Characterizing former President Roosevelt as the most potent agent the kaiser has in America and the "most seditious man of consequence in America," Senator Stone, addressing the senate yesterday afternoon, charged that Republican leaders are engaged in a studied effort to make politics out of the war. Their object is to "take the government over into their hands," by partisan criticism of the conduct of the war, he declared.

DISSATISFIED POPULACE IS FAR FROM GETTING UNDER CONTROL

Scarcity of Food and Oppression of Working Classes Cause of Uprising

(By Associated Press.) The internal strife in Austria, which apparently is due chiefly to war-weariness, the high cost of living and the dislocation generally of economic life, continues to be of absorbing interest. Although the exact situation resulting from the troublesome times is not given in the extremely meagre details available, the dispatchs that have crept through are indicative of a situation that will require skillful handling by the authorities again to bring the dissatisfied populace into a state of tractability.

STRINGENT REGULATIONS ADOPTED

(By Associated Press.) DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 22.—A telegram received at the office of State Fuel Administrator Webster, the approval of the federal administrator is given to a plan to conserve the fuel supply.

Noted Writer Tells of Grave German Peril

(By Associated Press.) AMSTERDAM, Jan. 22.—Maximilian Harden Die Zeeuwt says: "He who wishes to see Poland, Courland, Lithuania, Esthonia and Livonia from the Russian empire makes this empire a mortal enemy, for Russia will not always believe in Leninistic feelings. They would endanger the life of Germany, not merely East Prussia. After our experience in the west is there now to be created a greater and more dangerous Alsace-Lorraine?"

Slav is Selected To Hold Line On Italian Front

(By Associated Press.) ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS, Jan. 21.—(Monday)—General Sretzover Boroevic has been appointed to succeed Arch Duke Eugene in command of the entire enemy front against Italy. This is construed as confirmation of reports that the enemy proposes to maintain a defensive attitude on the Italian front for the present.

Tax to be Levied On Every Person Entering Mexico

(By Associated Press.) MEXICO CITY, Jan. 22.—Carranza has approved the bill taxing all persons entering Mexico after February 1 50 cents Mexican. General Bredca, former temporary governor of Coahuila, has been appointed governor of the federal district including Mexico City.

EMBARGOES ARE LOCAL IN CHARACTER

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Embargoes which have been put into effect against the acceptance of new freight by several railroads were declared last night by Director General McAdoo to be entirely local in character and not indicative of any proposed general prohibition against shipment of goods other than fuel, food and war supplies.

TO RETURN RAILROADS AT END WAR

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Changes in the fundamental principles of railroad operation under government control will make it inadvisable to turn the roads back to private owners immediately after the end of the war, Director General McAdoo declared before the senate interstate commerce committee. Until "comprehensive and rational legislation" to meet the changed conditions, is enacted it would be injurious to the stockholders for the government to relinquish control, he stated.

SCORES PASSENGER TRAINS ANNULLED

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Heavy snows in the East have forced the abandonment of scores of passenger trains. The locomotives so released were diverted to the coal traffic.

RAILROADS GETTING BEST OF BARGAIN

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Clifford Thorne, former chairman of the Iowa railroad commission, told the senate interstate commerce committee today that the administration railroad bill guarantees the railroads $300,000,000 more than England guaranteed when she took control of her railroads, and at the same time it offers no inducement for the railroads to be efficient to the public.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE CHARGE

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Chicago packing house employees' demand for government control of the meat industry has been broadened to include all packing plants in the country as a national necessity, Frank Walsh, attorney for the workers, told the president's mediation commission. Attorney Walsh added that it is "absurd for six companies to control the food of the United States."

WOULD REGULATE THE RETURNS TO CARRIERS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The standard return under the pending railroad bill, to any carrier paying dividends of 5 per cent or more, should be confined to a payment of interest and dividend obligations, in addition to a guarantee to keep the properties in good condition, maintain their credit and build necessary improvements, Clifford Thorne, counsel for shippers, argued before the house interstate commerce committee.

REPORT OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS GIVEN

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The federal reserve board, in its annual report, said: "Goods and credit must be saved to the utmost of our ability in order to check the upward movement of prices." The net earnings of the federal reserve banks for 1917 are reported as $11,200,000.

REICHSTAG WILL HEAR POSTPONED ADDRESS

(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, Jan. 22.—The Zeitung Am Mittag of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here, says that Count Von Hertling, the imperial German chancellor, will deliver his postponed speech to the reichstag main committee next Thursday. The paper adds that Dr. Von Kuehmann, the German foreign secretary, is conferring with the party leaders and that he will participate in the debate which follows the chancellor's speech. The debate is expected to last three days.

THREAT TO BREAK OFF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, Jan. 22.—The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin says that unless Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, accepts the demands of the central powers when he returns to Brest-Litovsk on January 29 the central powers will break off peace negotiations.

CHINESE FIRE UPON AMERICAN GUNBOAT

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The commander of the American gunboat Monocacy was fired upon Thursday by entrenched Chinese rebels near Yochow. He reported that he returned the fire and silenced it. A yeoman was fatally injured and a seaman wounded. The Monocacy was hit a number of times.

KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

(By Associated Press.) OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 22.—Two persons were killed and fifteen seriously injured here last night when a railroad coal car loaded with cladders broke away from a switch train and crashed into a street car loaded with passengers.

RECOMMENDATION MADE

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The subcommittee of the Republican national executive committee has recommended that the national committee for the 1916 campaign, when it meets on February 12 at St. Louis, include six Progressives and the creation of an advisory committee of women.

DEPUTY APPOINTED

(By Associated Press.) SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 22.—The state forester has appointed Melville Pratt, instructor of forestry at the University of California, as his deputy.

TALKING ACROSS ATLANTIC

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Direct radio communication has been established between Rome and the Arlington station of the United States navy and is used daily for communication between the two governments.

WILL PROVIDE FACILITIES

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Secretary McAdoo today advised the department of agriculture that plans are being laid to provide adequate transportation facilities for all farm products in the country.

FARMER GETS DESPERATE

(By Associated Press.) SAN JOSE, Jan. 22.—Frank Easterday, a farmer, set fire to his house and killed himself after he had fired two charges of buckshot at his mother-in-law and sister-in-law, who were passing the place en route to the court house for final adjudication of the will of Easterday's wife, who left her mother her property. The injuries to the women were negligible.

THREAT TO BREAK OFF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, Jan. 22.—The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin says that unless Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, accepts the demands of the central powers when he returns to Brest-Litovsk on January 29 the central powers will break off peace negotiations.

HOW ROOSEVELT STANDS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Colonel Roosevelt has arrived in Washington. He frankly said that his purpose was to help speed up the war and disclaimed any intention of replying to Senator Stone's speech in the upper house of congress.

NEW TYPE OF SHELL

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Navy ordnance experts have perfected a non-ricochet shell for use against submarines. It will dive instead of bouncing when striking the water.

HEAVIEST STORM OF SEASON

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 22.—The heaviest snow of the winter began last midnight in this region. It is seriously interfering with railroad traffic and the work of clearing the freight congestion.

NEGOTIATIONS POSTPONED

PETROGRAD, Jan. 22.—Peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk have been postponed for a few days. Trotsky is again in Petrograd preparing another note to the entente.
