PRICE OF COAL FOR TONOPAH IS FIXED

Effective Monday, January 21, 1918, and until changed or modified, the maximum prices which fuel dealers of Tonopah may charge to consumers of coal shall be determined as follows: Maximum Gross Margins—To the prime cost of lump or nut coal, as hereinafter defined, dealers may add not more than three dollars and five cents ($3.05) per ton of 2,000 pounds. This maximum gross margin shall include curb delivery of such coal to the consumer within the city or town limits, for deliveries of not less than 2,000 pounds. Exceptions—For bin delivery to consumer, as hereinafter described, an additional charge of not to exceed twenty-five cents ($.25) per ton of 2,000 pounds may be made. For deliveries made to consumers for coal in quantities of less than 2,000 pounds and 500 pounds or over, an additional charge of not to exceed twenty-five cents ($.25) per ton of 2,000 pounds may be made. For deliveries made to consumers on orders for coal in quantities of less than 500 pounds, an additional charge of not to exceed fifty cents ($.50) per ton of 2,000 pounds may be made. For coal which has been sacked on order of the consumer, an additional charge of not to exceed seventy-five cents ($.75) per ton of 2,000 pounds may be made. For coal hauled by the consumer with his own equipment from dealers' yards, a discount of not less than fifty cents ($.50) per ton of 2,000 pounds must be allowed. For coal hauled by the consumer with his own equipment from the car, a discount of not less than one dollar ($1.00) per ton of 2,000 pounds must be allowed. Prime Coal—The prime cost of coal as outlined in the rulings of the Nevada fuel administration and in this order, is defined as the cost of the coal at the mine, plus the freight charges and war tax thereon. (The jobbers' margin has already been provided for in the gross margin allowed.) Bin Delivery—Constitutes actual packing of coal from wagon to consumers' bins. Unloading from wagon directly to consumers' bins does not constitute bin delivery. Quality—Substitution of low priced coal at prices allowed for higher priced coal and preparation of special mixtures by dealers is hereby prohibited in the territory embraced by this order; hereafter only such mixtures or preparations may be sold as are prepared at the mines, in selling two or more kinds of coal, the dealer must separately weigh the respective quantities and bill them to the consumer. Complaints—All complaints arising under this order should be promptly addressed to the chairman of the local committee having jurisdiction in the district where such complaint arises, for investigation and adjustment. Penalty—Whoever shall, with knowledge that the prices of any such commodity have been fixed as herein provided, ask, demand or receive a higher price, or whoever shall, with knowledge that the regulations have been prescribed as herein provided, violate or refuse to conform to any of the same, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment of not more than two years, or both. Each independent transaction shall constitute a separate offense. E. H. WALKER, Federal Fuel Administrator for Nevada. Dated at Carson City, Nev., Jan. 17, 1918.

GOMPERS MAKES SUGGESTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 23.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, addressing the United Mine Workers of America in convention here, suggested a universal seven-hour law during the war, instead of the present spasmodic suspension of industries to conserve coal and relieve railroad congestion. The convention adopted a resolution pledging the moral and financial support of the organization to the defense of those involved in the San Francisco preparedness bomb explosion cases, after hearing speeches by Edwin Nolan, one of the defendants, and Edwin McKenzie, his attorney. The resolution requested the president to intervene to prevent a "gross miscarriage of justice."

REHABILITATION OF SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Government machinery for the vocational rehabilitation of soldiers and sailors unfit for further military service would be made available under certain conditions to any persons injured in civil or federal employment under the terms of a bill approved by a conference of representatives of government departments and civilian organizations. The measure will be sent to Secretary Baker with the recommendation that it be presented to congress. This training would be under the control and direction of a board of vocational rehabilitation, composed of one representative each of the war, navy, treasury and labor departments and the federal board for vocational education, to be appointed by the president. Advisory committees to assist in the economic and social supervision of the work are provided for, one representing labor, one commerce and industry and one agriculture. The conference was called by Surgeon General Gorgas at the direction of Secretary Baker.

WILL OPEN CONTEST

The president advised his visitors that under the present organization the war record of the government has been one of the great accomplishments and would result in placing abroad by next June twice the number of Americans originally planned. Mistakes in such a gigantic task, he suggested, were to be expected. To meet the arguments of the administration spokesmen, Senator Chamberlain and his supporters are preparing to elaborate on the deficiencies on the delays in providing army supplies and equipment disclosed in the committee's war inquiry. The committee has decided to resume the investigation next Saturday, calling Surgeon General Gorgas to testify regarding cantonment sanitary conditions.

Governor Boyle has proclaimed and designated the week of January 28 as "Smileage week campaign week." The proceeds will be devoted to building an amusement hall in every military cantonment in the United States.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE BUTLER. "Life's Whirlpool," the wonder play, starring the star supreme, Ethel Barrymore, will be presented today. It is an "all Barrymore" production. It was written and directed by one member of the family, Lionel Barrymore, his star being his sister and its exterior scenes were photographed at the home of the star. "Life's Whirlpool" is filled with opportunities for splendid human emotion. The life of Ester Carey (Ethel Barrymore) is one of those strangely selected by fate to be filled with storms and dangers. But at last the fury of the storm breaks and passes, and a rainbow of happiness gives promise of peaceful days to come. This production gives the star chances for dramatic expression such as she has never before had in motion pictures. Also Pathe Weekly, just as amusing and interesting as usual. Tomorrow, Mary Pickford, in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Rebecca is delightful from beginning to end; she is just the nicest child in American literature. As a classic for old and young "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" takes first rank in the hearts of the American public who mingle tears and smiles in affectionate interest over progress of womanhood. This is the first production of the new Arctcraft service. Matinee 1:30, evening, 7 and 8:30. Every day something new and amusing at the Butler.

FUEL OUTLOOK

(Continued From Page One.) ment extremely slow and cut the supply of empty cars to coal mines far below even the late sub-normal supply. The bright phase of the situation was a report of Fuel Administrator Garfield that ships were being bunkered more rapidly than last week, and that coal was going in sufficient quantities to domestic consumers. These were the main purposes of the industrial curtailment order of five days ago, Dr. Garfield said, and consequently the result of the industrial suspension was satisfactory. In a statement summarizing the results of his fuel curtailment order, Dr. Garfield said: "Our reports show that the prime purpose sought to be accomplished by the regulation, the bunkering of ships and the supplying of domestic consumers and public utilities with coal, have been greatly served. "Local officials of the fuel administration in all parts of the East reported that consumers, the preferred list in the industrial curtailment order, were being given the
