NATIONAL LEAGUE

(By Associated Press.)
PITTSBURG, May 28.—Boston defeated Pittsburgh yesterday, 2 to 1. The visitors scored their first run on Mollwitz's error and their second when Caton threw too late to third to catch a runner instead of first.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 28.—Chicago came from behind yesterday and by heavy hitting against Perritt, Anderson and Causey, overtook New York and defeated the visitors 7 to 3, making a three straight. Hendrix was unsettled in the early innings but settled down and pitched a good game.

(By Associated Press.)
CINCINNATI, May 28.—Mayer's fine pitching enabled Philadelphia to even the series yesterday. Eller started for Cincinnati but retired after filling the bases in the first inning on two hits and a base on balls. Bressler took his place and allowed two runs on Cravath's two-bagger and a double steal. Cincinnati scored in the first off hits by L. Magee and Roush and an error by Cravath. Poor fielding behind him did not hurt Mayer who was very effective the rest of the way.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, May 28.—Brooklyn took the last game of the series from St. Louis yesterday 1 to 0, after losing three straight to the locals. Grimes held the home team to two hits. Baird and Paulette being the only St. Louisans to reach first.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, May 28.—The Red Cross war fund was increased more than $5500 from yesterday's game between Boston and Chicago, which the Sox won 5 to 4. After Cloutte was touched for two runs in the first, Shellenback went in for Chicago and held Boston to six hits.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 28.—The New York Americans held a Red Cross field day here yesterday and defeated Cleveland 7 to 1. It was Thorndahl's fourth straight win. Wamsbana stole home in the fifth with the first run scored on Thorndahl in 37 consecutive innings.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 28.—Washington hit both Boland and Jones hard yesterday and easily defeated Detroit 7 to 4. Ayers allowed only three hits until the ninth inning.

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Long hits figured largely in Philadelphia's 8 to 4 victory over St. Louis yesterday. In the second, McAvoy tripled with two on and in the third Burns' double and bases on ball to Gardner and Shannon filled the bases. At this point, Davenport relieved Sothoron, but Dugan's single drove in two runs, winning the game.

YOUR RED CROSS An Army Without a Gun

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON
Of the Vigilantes.

The Red Cross is the greatest instrument of mercy the world has ever seen. Noble as the service of mercy and helpfulness was in Civil War days, the Red Cross surpasses it immeasurably not only in the range and variety of its effort, but in efficiency and effectiveness.

The Red Cross is, we may say, the arms of the mothers of the world reached out to their sons to bind up their wounds and comfort them. The Red Cross is an army without a gun that wages war only upon suffering and heartache. Where the flag of the stars goes there the banner of the Red Cross must fly beside it. We watch our boys go forth to war with a spirit of hopefulness because we know that this great agency of humanity presses close behind them; that its work is not incidental, but the intelligent directed effort of one of the most marvelous organizations ever contrived by American genius.

We have all contributed to the Red Cross; we shall be called upon again to contribute to its funds,—again and perhaps again. And we will respond again and yet again! For this is a war for the defense of civilization, and we of great, free, splendid, glorious America, have every intention that it shall be fought with the army of the Red Cross solidly supporting our soldiers.

STRETCHING PARIS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF FRANCE

THE RED CROSS HAS HELPED WHERE GOVERNMENTS WERE HELPLESS.

The avalanche of refugees that swept into Paris from the north of France had been the despair of the civil authorities. These homeless, stunned people were a new responsibility to be added to the thousands of wounded men that came steadily from the shambles of the west front.

Paris is an old city. It was not ready to take in its neighbors' children. Its population was already a tight fit. So it made the best of its poor hospitality by offering up its garrets. New building construction seemed impossible. Men were scarce. The mechanic was either manning the trenches or fighting the fight in the war factories. Paris was distracted.

It is wonderful indeed how nobly Paris tried to meet this condition. And it is remarkable how Paris met it with the aid of our own Red Cross. Unhindered by red tape or precedent, our Red Cross put on overalls and jumper, carried the hod, became architect, engineer and contractor and went into the building of homes. Here was a church lot that lay vacant; here an unfinished hospital; there a worn out

THE RED CROSS MAN

By AMELIA JOSEPHINE BURR
Of the Vigilantes.

Broken with pain and weariness
 And sapped with vile disease,
 Back to the land of ruined towns,
 Of murdered men and trees,
 Through Switzerland from Germany
 The trains of wreckage ran,—
 And on the French frontier they found
 A Red Cross Man.

And when to what had once been home
 Those haggard exiles came,
 Young wheat was green above the scars
 Of steel and blood and flame
 Round new built houses where once more
 The work of life began.
 And still they found to welcome them
 A Red Cross Man.

There the husband clasped again
 The wife he mourned as dead—
 The child was on its mother's breast,
 The old were comforted.
 What wonder if they hope to find
 The Angel of God's Plan
 Who meets them at the heavenly gate
 A Red Cross Man!

REWARD FOR BANDIT ENGAGES ATTENTION OF STATE AUTHORITIES

Now that Paul Walters is out of the way and the death of Mark Wildes is avenged the question arises what share of the reward will go to the Indians and other members of the posse responsible for the prompt capture of the assassin. The official reward was placed at $1000 by the state and another proclamation announcing a reward of $5000 was un- signed on the desk of the governor when the news was received of the death of Walters. Churchill county offered a reward of $500 and a further reward of $500 was offered by citizens of Fallon.

Particulars of the killing prove conclusively that the assassin had received substantial assistance from friends in the vicinity where the shooting occurred as he was well supplied with ammunition and food, which was cached in several places where it could be reached easily while engaged in eluding the officers and trailers. Following is the story of the taking off of Walters, as told in the Gazette:

The search for Paul Walters, slayer of Sheriff Mark Wildes of Churchill county, ended suddenly and much to the satisfaction of a large posse that had been searching for him, at 4:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a tule swamp six miles from Parran, when he was shot and killed by Skinny Pascale, an Indian trader.

Walters had been driven from the hills in to the big salt marsh near Parran Thursday and his trail through the salt grass and tulle was picked up Thursday morning and followed closely by the posse which was headed by Emery Morgan and Dan McLeod of Reno.

In and out among the swamps and flats Walters took a devious course and finally ended at a slough that made an island out of a small area of high land covered with brush and bunch grass.

Believing that the man was hiding on the island the members of the posse surrounded it while Skinny Pascale and Walking Brown, another Indian, started to ride across the slough to the island.

They were riding from different directions and while his horse was half way across the slough Pascale saw Walters rise up from his hiding place in a clump of grass with his
