The advance was over a difficult terrain near the river's mouth which was partially flooded. The Italians captured approximately 1900 Austrians, together with machine guns, trench mortars and war material.

SENATOR TILLMAN DIES IN CAPITAL

VETERAN OF A QUARTER OF A CENTURY SUCCUMBS TO A HEMORRHAGE (By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 3.—United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, the South Carolina veteran of twenty-four years' service in congress, chairman of the senate naval affairs committee, died here as a result of a cerebral hemorrhage suffered Saturday. To honor the picturesque figure both bodies of congress planned to adjourn today and will appoint committees to accompany the body to the former home at Trenton, South Carolina.

Benjamin Ryan Tillman was born in Edgefield county, North Carolina, August 11, 1847. He was educated at Bethany academy, but his studies were interrupted by the civil war, in which he took part as a confederate officer until a serious illness compelled a retirement. At the close of the war he rose to prominence in the political activities of his state and during the years of reconstruction was actively interested in its educational advancement. He enlisted the agricultural interests and in 1899 and 1902, being supported by the Farmers' Alliance, he was elected governor of South Carolina. In 1901 and 1907 he was elected to the United States senate. In March 1902 Senator Tillman assaulted his colleague, Senator Senator McLaurin, in the senate chamber for which he was censured and suspended.

UTAH SCOUTS IN TRAIL OF FATHERS

(By Associated Press) SALT LAKE CITY, July 3.—Over the trail followed by their grandfathers 71 years ago the Boy Scouts of Salt Lake City will march through Emigration canyon, near here, July 23, for a two days hike in celebration of the entrance of pioneers into the valley, July 21, 1847. Dr. John H. Taylor, director of the Boy Scouts for Utah, has arranged the outing, and about 200 already have agreed to take the trip. This annual hike has become a regular affair with the Boy Scouts of this city, many of whom are descendants of the Mormon pioneers who blazed the trails across the country to this valley. The boys will carry their own outfits and prepare their own meals during the two days they are away.

CHINA SMUGGLING GOODS TO GERMANY

(By Associated Press) LONDON, July 3.—The Daily Mail gives prominence to a dispatch from its Harbin correspondent saying that goods badly needed by the German government are being sent to Russia by Chinese merchants; are almost certain to fall into German hands. China, according to the correspondent, has removed the embargo on the transportation of foods and goods to Russia, which originally was adopted as a war measure intended to complete the eastern blockade of Germany, on the ground that imports to Russia cannot influence the war, and that Chinese have been suffering from the embargo.
