Nothing Can Halt Yankees Or Save Huns from Defeat

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 24 (12:59 p. m.)--Along the line north of Chateau Thierry the Franco-American forces have driven the Germans out of nearly all Chatelet forest. The allied advance was made in considerable jumps in that area. The Germans continuing rear guard fighting depending much on machine guns. Further to the west the Americans gained ascendancy over the Germans when they drove them through and beyond the town of Epieds. American cavalry was used at a point in the operations north of the Chateau Thierry line. To the northward the most intense resistance was offered along the extended German right flank, but reports are that the allies have made gains and that the Germans have been unable to halt the movement toward their lines of supplies.
