Americans and the Allies Inflict Heavy Losses on Enemy

TROUBLE IS AT AN END ALL SERENE

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Minister Bunsch at Peking advised the state department today that all is quiet in Tientsin where there was trouble last week between American soldiers and Japanese and that he is sending a full report by mail. The minister made no mention of the nature of the difficulty.

GERMAN GENERAL KILLED BY MOB

LONDON, (Sunday) March 16.—General Count Six Von Arnim, commander of the German army in Flanders during a large part of the war, has been beaten to death by peasants of Asch, Bohemia, according to a Paris dispatch. It is said that Von Arnim shot at peasants who were gathering firewood on his property. A mob invaded and pillaged his chateau after killing him.

WILSON PROPOSAL PARTLY ENDORSED

MADRID, (Sunday) March 16.—A committee appointed by the government to study the subject of Spanish participation in the league of nations has submitted a report which will be considered at the cabinet meeting soon. The government entirely endorsed Wilson's proposal but reserves its decision about a reduction of armament and the fighting military forces by members of the league.

SHIP BUILDERS APPEAL

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Pacific ship builders are again urging the shipping board to relax restrictions against the acceptance of foreign contracts by yards in this country. The shipping board reiterated today that any changes in regulations have to be dictated by the president.

VOLCANO ERUPTS

SANTA DIEGO, March 17.—The volcano of Calbuco on the coast of Chile, south of Concepcion, is in eruption and the inhabitants of Santo Island, Chiloe and other nearby towns are fleeing from their homes. Ashes and lava are destroying fields and houses in the vicinity.

OFFICERS KILLED AS THEIR PLANE DROPS

HOUSTON, March 17.—Lieutenants Robert Morbach and O. Davidson, of Ellington Field, were killed Sunday night near Richmond, by their plane crashing to the ground as they were nearing the end of their flight from San Antonio.

NEVADA MAY BE WET BY A LEGAL PRECEDENT

RENO, March 17.—Nevada may soon resume the status of a state where the sale of liquor is permissible by law. Unless the present supreme court justices reverse a decision of that body, in effect since 1887, that any amendment to the state constitution that has not been enrolled on the journals of both house and senate is null and void, Nevada will automatically become "wet" again, despite the recent bone-dry law.

Former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Patrick McCarren has asked a ruling from the present high court on the alleged unconstitutionality of the dry initiative act through an amended habeas corpus petition in the case of Frank Ming, local saloon keeper, arrested for moving liquor upon changing his residence. The petition is so drawn that it may be taken to the supreme court of the United States.

Authority Questioned

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The authority of Burleson to increase telephone rates throughout the country will be determined by the supreme court, which today granted the state of Kansas permission to institute original proceedings against the postmaster general, questioning the validity of his order establishing new toll rates.

TO DROP PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Russian bolshevik government is planning the use of aircraft in dropping printed propaganda in England and France, according to Swedish press reports made public by the state department. Aviators for the work are said to be training in Moscow.

NO HITCH OCCURRED

Bonar Law, the government leader of the house of commons, told today that it is his belief that there is no foundation for the report that a hitch occurred in the presentation to Germany of the draft of peace terms, because of divergencies of opinion on the subject of a league of nations.

BILL CHLOROFORMED

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—Opponents of Allen's liquor abatement bill won the fight to refer the measure to the judiciary committee which prohibition members said was the same as to chloroform the bill.

GREAT MINE, SAYS COLBURN R. L. Colburn has returned from a visit to Manhattan, where he inspected the White Caps. He was astounded at the ore showing and pronounces the property one of the greatest gold mines in the state.

STUDENTS RIOT OVER A IDEA NOVEL

PEKING (Tuesday), March 4.—Advices reaching Peking from Korea indicate that the younger generation has been stirred by Paris dispatches dwelling upon the prominence given at Paris to the principle of self determination by the peoples. Japanese papers received here charge that mission school students are participating in disturbances throughout Korea.

EVEN CHINA IS PREY TO NEW CULT

PEKING (Wednesday), March 14.—The Chinese government is alarmed at a report from Petrograd relative to the formation of a Chinese workmen's organization with 60,000 members with the object of carrying on a revolutionary propaganda and establishing soviets in China. Inquiries are being made by authorities as to measures to check activities.

ORDER WITHDRAWN

COPENHAGEN, March 17.—The order issued by Mohnke, German minister of war, for the execution of prisoners possessing arms or fighting against the government, has been withdrawn.

MRS. SLAVIN DIES AT LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Catherine A. Slavin, a former resident of Tonopah and one who will be mourned by not only the members of her family, but by all who knew her, died this morning at 10 o'clock at Los Angeles after a long illness. She was surrounded by her loved ones. Her son, Charles L. Slavin, had been at her bedside until a few days ago, when he was called to Tonopah on official business, believing that he would have time to return to her sick room.

Mrs. Slavin led a true Christian life and her many charities will long be remembered in this city. She was born in 1851 in New York City. In 1904 she came to Tonopah where her husband, Edward Slavin, died in 1909. Five children survive: Charles L. Slavin, undersheriff of Nye county; Miss Helene A. Slavin, a teacher of Tonopah; Mrs. T. G. Greeley, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Edward Malley, of Carson City; and R. J. Slavin, of San Francisco. The funeral will take place either at Carson City or Reno.

INFANT SLAYER SAYING NOTHING BUT SAWS WOOD

AMERONGEN (Saturday), March 15.—The former kaiser today completed sawing his thousandth tree since he took refuge in Count Bentack's castle last fall. From the thousandth tree a few logs will be converted into souvenirs to be presented to members of Bentack's family and others. Expert sawyers in the neighborhood compute that Bill Hohenzollern would have earned, if paid at trade rates, 50 cents for each working day.

POLES DECLARE ARMISTICE VOID

BERLIN (Monday), March 16.—Dispatches to Berlin newspapers from Mrauden allege that the Poles are preparing a general advance against the Germans, notifying German outposts that the armistice is no longer in effect. The dispatch says the Poles are charged with 84 violations of the armistice.

ALLIES ADVANCING GERMAN OUTPOSTS

BERLIN, (Saturday) March 15.—The British and French forces according to reports received here, have advanced their outposts from the limits of the present bridgeheads at Cologne and Mainz respectively. The French are reported to have penetrated the corporate limits of Frankfurt.

CANADIANS RETURN

HALIFAX, March 17.—The famous "Princess Pats" Canada's first troops to fight on French soil, returned home today on the steamer Carmania from England. While nominally it is "Princess Pats" regiment which returned, only thirty-two of the arrivals were among the original unit which went overseas in 1914. Other home comers were replacements necessary to keep the regiment up to normal strength in the fierce fighting in 1915.

WILL CONTINUE INSURANCE

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Payment of allotments and allowances in the work of the converted soldier's insurance into permanent government insurance will be continued by the war risk bureau, despite the shortage of funds caused by the failure of appropriation bills, is announced today of the treasury.

ATTEMPT TO SEVER COMMUNICATIONS IN SIBERIA DISASTROUS

COPENHAGEN, March 17.—Lettish troops have advanced towards Mitau and have captured the towns of Kandau and Zabeln, according to a Lettish headquarters statement. The advance continues on the Bolshevik northwest of Courland. They are threatened with having their retreat from Mitau to Riga cut off. The Bolsheviks are reported to be retreating in panic.

ARCHANGEL (Saturday), March 15.—The futile attack which the Bolsheviks delivered yesterday on the allied and American forces comprised the first serious attempt to cut the line of communications between the Dvina and Vaga columns. The attempt was not only frustrated but the Bolsheviks suffered a severe defeat and sustained heavy losses.

GERMANY TO ACCEPT VOTE OF ALSASCE

COPENHAGEN, March 17.—If the allies loaded the peace treaty conditions beyond Wilson's fourteen points the German national assembly will have to refuse its assent to the treaty. Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, declared in an address at a Berlin meeting favoring the formation of a real league of nations, according to a Berlin dispatch today. The matter will then be left to a referendum of the German nation, he said. Erzberger disclaimed any obligation of Germany to give compensation for acts committed after the first peace offer in December, 1918.

FOOD COMMISSION ENDS ITS SESSION

BASEL, (Sunday) March 16.—The inter-allied food commission which has been conducting negotiations in Vienna, concluded its sessions today when it reached an agreement by which German Austria will receive five convoys of grain daily through Triest, according to advices from Vienna. A credit of $30,000,000 has been arranged to carry out the agreement. Herbert Hoover is charged with administration of the agreement.
